Narrative of the Broken Winter Mark Karlins,1987 Four Months Ina Dehabeen; Or, Narrative of a Winter's Cruise on the Nile M.L.M. Carey,1863 Kiwimade Narrative Sermons Myk Habets,2015-01-29 This collection of over forty narrative sermons illustrate the science and art of taking a text of Scripture almost any text and crafting it into a narrative that effectively and affectively communicates the content of Holy Scripture in ways that impact the congregation Spanning the canon of Holy Scripture the present volume represents a snapshot of current preaching by Baptist women and men from Aotearoa New Zealand in an attempt to teach by illustration what narrative sermons may look like and to model the potential they have to communicate God s Word written Originally preached to a diverse range of congregations each sermon has been re written for publication and illustrates biblical fidelity imaginative creativity and contextual sensitivity Kiwimade Narrative Sermons is a key resource text for classes on homiletics a refresher course for seasoned ministers of the Word and a devotional aid in its own right The Winter's Tale Maurice Hunt,2013-06-17 A collection that includes a lengthy introduction describing historical trends in critical interpretations and theatrical performances of Shakespeare s play 20 essays on the play including two written especially for this volume by Maurice Hunt and David Bergeron Music, Narrative and the Moving Image ,2019-05-15 In extending the traditional field of Word and Music Studies to include research on film and other forms of moving visualizations this volume focuses on innovative discussions of artistic works showing relationships between three individual communicative media This trifocal interdisciplinary perspective is reflected in seventeen essays that cover the historical space from the 19th to the 21st centuries and discuss a wide variety of individual genres in the represented media These range from Parisian cabaret to revolutionary Peking opera from silent film to Holocaust narration from documentary propaganda movies to opera film interludes and more The investigation of historical cases is broadened by reflections on theoretical and functional issues primarily in film music which show a remarkable breadth of technical and perceptual varieties The essays here collected are of relevance to scholars and students of film studies musicology and literature as well as readers generally interested in Intermediality Studies Compilation of Narratives of Explorations in Alaska United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Military Affairs,E. Hazard Wells,1900 Report submitted by Mr Carter from the Committee on military affairs to whom was referred resolution no 189 agreed to December 9 1897 directing the committee to report to the Senate on the extent of explorations by the United States Army in Alaska etc An Irishman's Story Justin McCarthy,1906 Narrative social work Clive Baldwin,2013-03-27 This is the first book to extend the narrative lens to explore the contribution of narrative to social work values and ethics social policy and our understanding of the self in social cultural and political context Casting a Giant Shadow Rachel S. Harris,Dan Chyutin,2021-07-06 Film came to the territory that eventually became Israel not long after the medium was born Casting a Giant Shadow is a collection of articles that embraces the notion of transnationalism to consider the limits of what is Israeli within Israeli cinema As the State of Israel developed so did its film industries Moving beyond the early films of the Yishuv which focused on the creation of national identity the industry and its transnational ties became more important as filmmakers and film stars migrated out and foreign films filmmakers and actors came to Israel to take advantage of high quality production values and talent This volume edited by Rachel Harris and Dan Chyutin uses the idea of transnationalism to challenge the concept of a singular definition of Israeli cinema Casting a Giant Shadow offers a new understanding of how cinema has operated artistically and structurally in terms of funding distribution and reception The result is a thorough investigation of the complex structure of the transnational and its impact on national specificity when considered on the global stage

Women Ethnographers and Native Women Storytellers Susan Berry Brill de Ramírez, 2015-11-19 This book focuses on the collaborative work between Native women storytellers and their female ethnographers and or editors but the book is also about what it is that is constitutive of scientific rigor factual accuracy cultural authenticity and storytelling signification and meaning Regardless of discipline academic ethnographers who conducted their field work research during the twentieth century were trained in the accepted scientific methods and theories of the time that prescribed observation objectivity and evaluative distance In contradistinction to such prescribed methods regarding the ethnographic work conducted among Native Americans it turns out that the intersubjectively relational work of women both ethnographers and the Indigenous storytellers with whom they worked has produced far more reliably factual historically accurate and tribally specific Indigenous autobiographies than the more scientifically objective approaches of most of the male ethnographers This volume provides a close lens to the work of a number of women ethnographers and Native American women storytellers to elucidate the effectiveness of their relational methods Through a combined rhetorical and literary analysis of these ethnographies we are able to differentiate the products of the women s working relationships By shifting our focus away from the surface level textual reading that largely approaches the texts as factually informative documents literary analysis provides access into the deeper levels of the storytelling that lies beneath the surface of the edited texts Non Native scholars and editors such as Franc Johnson Newcomb Ruth Underhill Nancy Lurie Julie Cruikshank and No l Bennett and Native storytellers and writers such as Grandma Klah Mar a Chona Mountain Wolf Woman Mrs Angela Sidney Mrs Kitty Smith Mrs Annie Ned and Tiana Bighorse help us to understand that there are ways by which voices and worlds are more and less disclosed for posterity The results vary based upon the range of factors surrounding their production but consistent across each case is the fact that informational accuracy is contingent upon the the degree of mutual respect and collaboration in the women s working relationships And it is in their pioneering intersubjective methodologies that the work of these women deserves far greater attention and approbation Narratives of New Netherland John Franklin Jameson,2010-07-01
