

A photograph of a modern, terracotta-colored building with a complex, stepped facade. The building features numerous rectangular windows and balconies, some of which are highlighted with bright orange accents. The architecture is characterized by its geometric forms and the way it interacts with light and shadow. The building is set against a clear blue sky, and some greenery is visible in the foreground and to the right.

Narratives And Spaces:

Narrative Space and Time Elana Gomel, 2014-02-18 Space is a central topic in cultural and narrative theory today although in most cases theory assumes Newtonian absolute space However the idea of a universal homogeneous space is now obsolete Black holes multiple dimensions quantum entanglement and spatio temporal distortions of relativity have passed into culture at large This book examines whether narrative can be used to represent these impossible spaces Impossible topologies abound in ancient mythologies from the Australian Aborigines dream time to the multiple layer universe of the Sumerians More recently from Alice's adventures in Wonderland to contemporary science fiction's obsession with black holes and quantum paradoxes counter intuitive spaces are a prominent feature of modern and postmodern narrative With the rise and popularization of science fiction the inventiveness and variety of impossible narrative spaces explodes The author analyses the narrative techniques used to represent such spaces alongside their cultural significance Each chapter connects narrative deformation of space with historical problematic of time and demonstrates the cognitive and perceptual primacy of narrative in representing imagining and apprehending new forms of space and time This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the connection between narratology cultural theory science fiction and studies of place

Contested Spaces, Counter-Narratives, and Culture from Below in Canada Roxanne Rimstead, Domenico A. Beneventi, 2019-02-28 Contested Spaces Counter narratives and Culture from Below in Canada and Quebec explores strategies for reading space and conflict in Canadian and Quebecois literature and cultural performances posing questions such as how do these texts and performances produce and contest spatial practices What are the roles of the nation city community and individual subject in reproducing space particularly in times of global hegemony and neocolonialism And in what ways do marginalized individuals and communities represent contest or appropriate spaces through counter narratives and expressions of culture from below Focusing on discord rather than harmony and consensus this collection disturbs the idealized space of Canadian multicultural pluralism to carry literary analysis and cultural studies into spaces often undetected and unforeseen including flophouses and slums shantytowns and urban alleyways underground spaces and peep shows and inner city urban parks as they are experienced by minorities and other marginalized groups These essays are the products of sustained high level collaboration across French and English academic communities in Canada to facilitate theoretical exchange on the topic of space and contestation uncover geographies of exclusion and generate new spaces of hope in the spirit of pioneering works by Henri Lefebvre Michel Foucault Michel de Certeau Doreen Massey David Harvey and other prominent theorists of space JOURNEY TO THE NARRATIVE SPACES OF MALAY LITERATURE (IIUM PRESS) Muhammad Haji Salleh, 2024-07-01 In the field of Malay Studies the traditional artist is among the most mysterious of beings deeply buried under a tradition that was oral and anonymous He is more enigmatic now more than ever before as he is further alienated from us by the technological development the different modes of literary communication and not the least

by the disappearance of the rural environment that created the artist all of these factors much influencing his mind There is no doubt that much as he felt rasa the world he also thought fikir about it about its universe the powers that governed his life the community its values the arts and what made them please and so on Digital Narrative Spaces Daniel

Punday,2021-12-30 There is a broad consensus that digital narrative is spatial but what this critical term means and how it is used varies greatly depending on the discipline from which it is approached Digital Narrative Spaces brings together essays by prominent scholars in electronic literature and other forms of digital authorship to explore the relationship between story and space across these disciplines This volume includes an introduction with Marie Laure Ryan s typology of space followed by thought provoking individual chapters which explore innovative explorations of electronic literature locative media literary tourism and the mapping of real world literary spaces The collection closes with an essay analyzing continuities and discontinuities in theory of space across the chapters This volume will provide an important framework for establishing a dialogue across disciplines and future scholarship in these fields Museums, Narratives, and Critical Histories Kerstin

Barndt,Stephan Jaeger,2024-03-04 In response to systemic racism and institutions implications in histories of colonialism nationalism and exclusion museum curators have embraced new ways of storytelling to face entangled memories and histories Critical museum practices have consciously sought to unsettle established forms of representation break with linear narratives of progress and experiment with new modes of multivocal multimedia and subjective storytelling The volume features analyses of narratives and narration in museums and heritage institutions today as well as visions for future museum practices on a local regional national transnational and global scale It is divided into three sections Narrative Theory and Temporality Ruptures and Repair and Difficult Memories and Histories Essays from a variety of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences examine museum practices in history memorial anthropological and art museums across six continents They develop narratological categories reflect on immersive and virtual narratives challenge colonial violence and hegemonic forms of representation query the performance of heritage parse exhibition design and unearth techniques to express narratives of social justice Fragmentation in Narrative Space Joel Cudnohufsky,2005 Mental Spaces in

Discourse and Interaction Todd Oakley,Anders Hougaard,2008 The cognitive theory of mental spaces and conceptual integration MSCI is a twenty year old cross disciplinary enterprise that presently unfolds in academic circles on many levels of reflection and research One important area of inquiry where MSCI can be of immediate use is in the pragmatics of written and spoken discourse and interaction At the same time empirical insights from the fields of interaction and discourse provide a necessary fundament for the development of the cognitive theories of discourse This collection of seven chapters and three commentaries aims at evaluating and developing MSCI as a theory of meaning construction in discourse and interaction MSCI will benefit greatly not only from empirical support but also from clearer refinement of its methodology and philosophical foundations This volume presents the latest work on discourse and interaction from a mental spaces perspective surely to be of interest to a broad range of researchers in discourse analysis Infrastructures of Reality: Metaverse Stories, Spaces, Bodies Chris Hesselbein, Paolo Bory, 2025-08-09 This open access book focuses on two dimensions of the development of the metaverse that are crucial to reality namely spatiality and embodiment Metaversal technologies are thought to fundamentally affect both our spaces and bodies which are two central aspects of the constitution of social reality Both spatiality and embodiment are core elements of world making that are being pulled into the ambit of metaversal projects On the one hand metaversal technologies are profoundly spatial in the sense that they render space in virtual form or overlay digital layers onto pre existing physical spaces On the other hand metaversal technologies are directly geared towards the body in that they not only seek to extend or expand our embodied senses and emplace our bodies in virtual spaces but they also seek to capture their behaviours and actions on a far more granular level This can create new opportunities in terms of work social interaction and leisure but can also open our bodies up to new tech driven interventions and control Whether in the form of VR or AR such technologies not only reproduce space but also rely on making spaces more legible and open to automated interventions Taken together the metaversification of spaces and bodies gives rise to crucial questions about the goals and implications of metaversal developments by large technology companies and about the relationship between the developments of the metaverse and AI systems Drawing on our combined background and expertise in Science and Technology Studies and the History of Media and Communication we critically analyse the development of metaversal technologies and platforms by discussing a broad set of developments and examples from a wide range of technology and gaming companies Written in clear concise and accessible language and combining and applying novel theoretical frameworks and concepts to a currently emergent phenomenon this book will find a large audience not only within academic and professional circles but also in popular culture Contested Spaces in Contemporary North American Novels Şemsettin Tabur, 2018-09-30 This volume investigates the ways in which Toni Morrison s A Mercy Dionne Brand s In Another Place Not Here Jhumpa Lahiri s The Namesake and Carolyn See s There Will Never Be Another You engage with the physical ideological and socially constructed real and imagined spaces of colonialism justice diaspora and risk Building on a range of theoretical approaches to the production of space this study argues for the significance of literature as a cartographic practice charting the intricacies of the socio spatiality of human life Through rigorous readings this book examines each novel as a critical map that both represents and explores contested spaces and alternative spatial negotiations These spatially oriented literary analyses contribute to recent conceptualizations of space as socially and relationally produced open dynamic and contested and enrich the existing scholarship on the novels discussed here

Counter-Narratives and Organization Sanne Frandsen, Timothy Kuhn, Marianne Wolff Lundholt, 2016-07-15 Counter Narratives and Organization brings the concept of counter narrative into an organizational context illuminating these complex elements of communication as intrinsic yet largely unexplored aspect of organizational storytelling Departing from dialogical emergent and processual perspectives on organization the individual chapters focus on the character of counter narratives along with their performative aspects by addressing questions such as how do some narratives gain dominance over others how do narratives intersect relate and reinforce each other how are organizational members and external stakeholders engaged in the telling and re telling of the organization The empirical case studies provide much needed insights on the function of counter narratives for individuals professionals and organizations in navigating challenging negotiating and replacing established dominant narratives about who we are what we believe what we do as a collective The book has an interdisciplinary scope drawing together ideas from both storytelling in organization studies the communicative constitution of organization CCO from organizational communication and traditional narratology from humanities Counter Narratives and Organization reflects an ambition to spark readers imagination recognition and discussion of organization and counter narratives offering a route to bring this important concept to the center of our understandings of organization

The Language of Stories Barbara Dancygier, 2011-10-13 How do we read stories How do they engage our minds and create meaning Are they a mental construct a linguistic one or a cultural one What is the difference between real stories and fictional ones This book addresses such questions by describing the conceptual and linguistic underpinnings of narrative interpretation Barbara Dancygier discusses literary texts as linguistic artifacts describing the processes which drive the emergence of literary meaning If a text means something to someone she argues there have to be linguistic phenomena that make it possible Drawing on blending theory and construction grammar the book focuses its linguistic lens on the concepts of the narrator and the story and defines narrative viewpoint in a new way The examples come from a wide spectrum of texts primarily novels and drama by authors such as William Shakespeare Margaret Atwood Philip Roth Dave Eggers Jan Potocki and Mikhail Bulgakov place Fractal Narrative German A. Duarte, 2014-09-15 Fractals suggest recursivity infinity and the repetition of a principle of order They are digital pictures of the universe s continuous movement ignored by mankind during millennia This book investigates the relationship existing between geometries and technology and how it guided cognitive processes and thus the organization of narrative spaces The author proposes a new approach for the study of media remarking that from Bacon s camera obscura to von Neumann s computers both geometries and technology strongly influenced the organization of narrative spaces which acquired a fractal character Cultural Space on Metaverse Ji-Hyun Lee, 2023-09-25 This book consists of some selected papers presented at the 4th cultural DNA workshop The papers include topics from three different perspectives insightful analysis intelligent synthesis and cutting edge tools to better understand cultural DNA It is this diverse perspective toward cultural DNA that makes this book special and suggestive This book can be suggestive especially for the designers trying to find the very essence the archetype and the building blocks of our environment for the incorporation of social and cultural factors into their designs This book consists of some selected papers presented as first drafts at the 4th cultural DNA workshop The papers include topics from three different perspectives insightful analysis intelligent synthesis and cutting edge tools to better understand cultural DNA Language Narratives and Shifting Multilingual Pedagogies Belinda Mendelowitz, Ana Ferreira, Kerry Dixon, 2022-12-15 Winner of the UKLA Academic Book Award 2024 This book challenges monoglossic ideologies traditional language pedagogies and dominant forms of knowledge construction by foregrounding multilingual and multicultural students language narratives repertoires and identities The research is based on a sixteen year longitudinal study of a sociolinguistics course at an English language university and the language narratives produced by the first year education students The study was borne out of a need to create a critically inclusive course that would engage a cohort of students from socially and linguistically diverse backgrounds in contemporary South Africa Drawing on data from over 5 000 students who have journeyed through this course this book shows how a narrative heteroglossic pedagogy harnesses students multilingual strengths A close analysis reveals complex identity work by students located in the Global South The authors argue that decolonising language education is about reconceptualising language reconfiguring what knowledges are valued in the classroom and reshaping pedagogy The Architecture of Narrative Time Erica Wickerson, 2017-05-26 Time matters to all of us It dominates everyday discourse diaries schedules clocks working hours opening times appointments weekdays and weekends national holidays religious festivals birthdays and anniversaries But how do we as unique individuals subjectively experience time The slowness of an hour in a boring talk the swiftness of a summer holiday the fleetingness of childhood the endless wait for pivotal news these are experiences to which we all can relate and of which we commonly speak How can a writer not only report such experiences but also conjure them up in words so that readers share the frustration the excitement the anticipation are on tenterhooks with a narrator or character or in melancholic mourning for a time long since passed which we never experienced ourselves Erica Wickerson suggests that the evocation of subjective temporal experience occurs in every sentence on every page at every plot turn in any narrative The Architecture of Narrative Time offers a new template for understanding narrative time that combines close readings with analysis of the structural overview It enables new ways of reading Thomas Mann but also new ways of conceptualising narrative time in any literary work not only in Mann's fiction and not only in texts that foreground the narration of time The range of Mann's novels novellas and short stories is compared with other nineteenth and twentieth century works in German and in English to suggest a comprehensive approach to considering time in narrative

The Design of Frontier Spaces Carolyn Loeb, Andreas Luescher, 2016-03-09 In a globalizing world frontiers may be in flux but they remain as significant as ever New borders are established even as old borders are erased Beyond lines on maps however borders are spatial zones in which distinctive architectural graphic and other design elements are deployed to signal the nature of the space and to guide if not actually control behaviour and social relations within it This volume unpacks how manipulations of space and design in frontier zones historically as well as today set the stage for specific kinds of interactions and convey meanings about these sites and the experiences they embody Frontier zones organize an array of functions to facilitate the passage of goods information and people and to define and control access Bringing together studies from Asia Africa the Middle East Europe and North America this collection of essays casts a wide net to consider borders of diverse sorts Investigations of contemporary political frontiers are set within the context of examinations of historical borders borders that have existed within cities and virtual borders This range allows for reflection on shifts in how frontier zones are articulated and the impermanence of border emplacements as well as on likely scenarios for future frontiers This text is unique in bringing together a number of scholarly perspectives in the arts and humanities to examine how spatial and architectural design decisions convey meaning shape or abet specific social practices and stage memories of frontier zones that no longer function as such It joins and expands discussions in social science disciplines in which considerations of border practices tend to overlook the role of built form and material culture more broadly in representing social practices and meanings

Unnatural Narrative Jan Alber, 2016-03-01 A talking body part a character that is simultaneously alive and dead a shape changing setting or time travel although impossible in the real world such narrative elements do appear in the storyworlds of novels short stories and plays Impossibilities of narrator character time and space are not only common in today's world of postmodernist literature but can also be found throughout the history of literature Examples include the beast fable the heroic epic the romance the eighteenth century circulation novel the Gothic novel the ghost play the fantasy narrative and the science fiction novel among others Unnatural Narrative looks at the startling and persistent presence of the impossible or the unnatural throughout British and American literary history Layering the lenses of cognitive narratology frame theory and possible worlds theory Unnatural Narrative offers a rigorous and engaging new characterization of the unnatural and what it yields for individual readers as well as literary culture Jan Alber demonstrates compelling interpretations of the unnatural in literature and shows the ways in which such unnatural phenomena become conventional in readers minds altogether expanding our sense of the imaginable and informing new structures and genres of narrative engagement

Popular Culture, New Media and Digital Literacy in Early Childhood Jackie Marsh, 2005 This book offers a range of perspectives on children s multimodal experiences providing a ground breaking account of the ways in which children engage with popular culture media and digital literacy practices from their earliest years Many young children have extensive experience of film television printed media computer games mobile phones and the Internet from birth yet their reaction to media texts is rarely acknowledged in the national curricula of any country This seminal text focuses on children from birth to eight years addressing issues such as media and identity construction media literacy practices in the home the changing nature of literacy in technologically advanced societies The place of popular and media texts in children s lives and the use of such texts in the curriculum By exploring children s engagement with popular culture media and digital texts in the home community and early years settings the contributors look at empirical studies from around the world and draw out vital new theoretical issues relating to children s emergent techno literacy practices With an unmatched team of international experts evaluating topics from text messaging to the Teletubbies this book is a long overdue fascinating and illuminating read for policy makers educational researchers and practitioners and crosses over to appeal to those in the linguistics field

The Ontology of Space in Biblical Hebrew Narrative Luke Gartner-Brereton, 2014-12-18 The central premise of this book is that biblical Hebrew narrative in terms of its structure tends to operate under similar mechanical constraints to those of a stage play wherein space is central characters are fluid and objects within the narrative tend to take on a deep internal significance The smaller episodic narrative units within the Hebrew aesthetic tend to grant primacy to space both ideologically and at the mechanical level of the text itself However space as a determinate structural category has been all but overlooked in the field of biblical studies to date reflecting perhaps our own inability as modern readers to see beyond the dominant cinematic aesthetic of our times The book is divided into two major sections each beginning with a more theoretical approach to the function of narrative space and ending with a practical application of the previous discussion using Genesis 28 10 22 the Bethel narrative and the book of Ruth respectively as test cases
