Radicalism, Anti-Racism and Representation Alastair Bonnett, 2023-02-14 First published in 1993 Radicalism Anti Racism and Representation is a study set within a wider political context for the discussion of racial representation and anti racism The second half of the book is devoted to interview based exploration of the ambiguities and political characteristics of race equality consciousness amongst public educators It is shown that there is no one anti racism Different ideals and assumptions have been arrived at within different historical and geographical contexts It is suggested that this intellectual plurality provides a resource for those wishing to rethink anti racism in the light of its contemporary malaise The study also explores and explains the development of self critical reflexive anti racist and radical consciousness amongst educators The book provides the first sociological study of anti racism Indeed it is the first to provide a substantive critique of anti racism from outside the New Right It is also the first to look at this phenomenon geographically and to compare anti racism in multiracial and white areas This book will be of interest to students of human geography sociology history ethnic studies and race studies

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature

War Narratives in Post-Conflict Societies Michal Mochtak, 2024-02-29 This book studies war narratives and their role in the political arenas of post conflict societies with a focus on the former Yugoslavia How do politicians in postwar societies talk about the past war How do they discursively represent vulnerable social groups created by the conflict Does the nature of this representation depend on the politicians ideology personal characteristics or their record of combat service The book answers these questions by pairing natural language processing tools and large corpora of parliamentary debates collected in three southeast European post conflict societies Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia and Serbia Using the latest advances in computer science the book explores patterns in the war discourse of the political elites of these countries and discusses how politicians talk about war in terms of common narratives and shared frameworks Mapping over 20 years of parliamentary debates the book presents a new perspective on the role of the legacies of war in public space and develops theoretical arguments about reconciliation in post conflict societies The wars of the 1990s and the breakup of Yugoslavia have created three totally different settings for remembering the past conflicts in these countries despite their common history It is a story of victorious battles Croatia past grievances Bosnia Herzegovina and denial Serbia showing the different flavors of past wars in various national contexts that are symptomatic of many post conflict societies in different parts of the world This book will be of much interest to students of war and conflict studies southeastern European politics discourse analysis and international relations

Children's

Publishing and Black Britain, 1965-2015 Karen Sands-O'Connor, 2017-06-23 This book examines a critical period in British children's publishing from the earliest days of dedicated publishing firms for Black British audiences to the beginnings of the Black Lives Matter movement in the UK. Taking a historical approach that includes education, arts, Black protest, community publishing, and children's literature, the study investigates the motivation behind both independent and mainstream publishing firm decisions to produce books for a specifically Black British audience. Beginning with a consideration of early reading schemes that incorporated Black and Asian characters, the book continues with a history of one of the earliest presses to publish for children, Bogle L'Ouverture. Other chapters look at the influence of community-based and independent presses, the era of multiculturalism and anti-racism, the effect of racially motivated violence on children's publishing, and the dubious benefit of awards for Black British publishing. The volume will appeal to children's literature scholars, librarians, teachers, education policy makers, and Black British historians.

Ethnic and Racial Studies Today Martin Bulmer, John Solomos, 2013-10-18 This important collection addresses recent developments in the teaching, studying, and presentation of race across many disciplines, including sociology, politics, social geography, cultural studies, and philosophy. Drawing on the latest research in all these areas, the authors provide a comprehensive account of key controversies and debates and pinpoint new directions in research and scholarship that are likely to shape the study of race and ethnicity well into the next century.

Discourses of Antiracism in France Catherine Lloyd, 2018-10-26 First published in 1998, this book is an examination of antiracist discourses and practices in France. It sets out to trace the development of post-war French antiracism through the life of antiracist organizations, setting this within a broader historical, political, and social context. It breaks new ground in that it analyses antiracism as a body of ideas in its own right, rather than as a mirror image of racism. The author uses previously unpublished archival material from French organizations, combined with observations from current events. She argues that antiracist discourses and practices are structured around four main themes: discrimination, representation, solidarity, and hegemony. While perceptions of discrimination have evolved into complex understandings of social exclusion, the representational functions of antiracist groups were challenged by immigrant workers' movements themselves. Solidarity remained central to antiracist practices in different political contexts. Underpinning these features lies a hegemonic social project through which antiracists have sought to promote a common sense through political and educational campaigns. The author concludes that French antiracism, although constantly changing and refocusing, is now a pluralist, transversal, hegemonic movement and an important component of civil society.

Transnational Ties Michael Peter Smith, John Eade, 2017-09-08 Cities are key sites of the transnational ties that increasingly connect people, places, and projects across the globe. They provide opportunities and constraints within which transnational actors and networks operate, and nodes linking wider social formations that traverse national borders. This book brings together a series of richly textured ethnographic studies that suggest new ways to situate and historicize transnationalism, identify new pathways to transnational urbanism, and map the contours of translocal interregional and diasporic connections not previously studied The transnational ties treated in this book truly span the globe giving concrete meaning to the phrase globalization from below How have the contributors to this book conceptualized the wider context informing the conduct of their ethnographically grounded multi sited research on the relationship between cities migration and transnationalism Several interrelated contextual dimensions have been singled out as affecting the opportunities and constraints experienced by transnational migrant subjects Socio spatially in several of these chapters the political economic context now called neoliberal globalization is shown to be a key driving force creating conditions that necessitate facilitate or impede migration foster trans local economic ties and create new inter regional interdependencies e g new South South and East East transnational ties The changing historical context of both migrating groups and the cities and regions they move across are central to the study of the interplay of urban change and migrant transnationalism The historical particularities of migrant recruitment migration histories migratory narratives and changing gender and class relations all affect the character and geography of transnational migration with an impact on the social structures of community formation This is a pioneering effort in the Comparative Urban and Community Research series

Working through Whiteness Cynthia Levine-Rasky, 2012-02-01 What is whiteness What is gained by claiming it as a critical perspective in anti racism work How do whiteness studies both redeem and assert the white subject Working through Whiteness explores these questions through essays by Canadian American British and Australian scholars reflecting the broad array of academic inquiry into whiteness in the areas of law ethics education feminism politics psychology sociology criminology and social geography Rarely has knowledge of whiteness as the practice of social domination been drawn from this far and wide By embracing the leading edge in critical theory this book is a crucial addition to the growing literature on whiteness

Race and Antiracism in Black British and British Asian Literature Dave Gunning, 2012-01-01 Race and Antiracism in Black British and British Asian Literature offers the first comprehensive exploration of the cultural impact of the politics of race and antiracism in recent novels by black British and British Asian writers It examines works by Zadie Smith Caryl Phillips Nadeem Aslam Ferdinand Dennis and others arguing that an understanding of how race and ethnicity function in contemporary Britain can only be gained through attention to antiracism and the ways it conditions racial categories identities and models of behavior Looking at topics such as the role of Africa the reception of Islam and the meaning of multiculturalism Dave Gunning offers a detailed engagement with the nuances of antiracism and their effects on British literature and culture

Shades of White Pamela Perry, 2002-02-14 A comparative ethnography in two high schools one urban and one suburban that studies the differing notions of whiteness and race that predominate among students at each school

Transforming Politics S. Roseneil, 2016-07-27 This volume examines the transformation of politics and social movements at various levels Starting with a transformation of identity within social movements it goes on to discuss changes in the scale of social movement mobilisation The impact of social movements on the state is also considered with a particular focus upon the ways in which the state is able to incorporate apparently radical political agendas Finally the book examines those intellectual and theoretical debates stimulated by recent political transformations Europe and Civil Society Carlo Ruzza,2004-07-16 Europe and Civil Society provides an in depth examination of how public interest groups and social movements seek to influence the European policy making process The book is based on a comparison of the role of networks of activists and their allies broadly defined as Movement Advocacy Coalitions in influencing decision making at the European Union level in three specific areas of policy making environmentalism anti racism and ethno nationalist regionalism It draws on systematic documentary analysis and an extensive series of interviews with activists and institutional actors to examine the role of public interest organizations in these three areas This focus reflects topical societal concerns and facilitates new insights into the study of European policy making political sociology and social movement research Reshaping the University Rauna Kuokkanen,2011-11-01 In the past few decades the narrow intellectual foundations of the university have come under serious scrutiny Previously marginalized groups have called for improved access to the institution and full inclusion in the curriculum Reshaping the University is a timely thorough and original interrogation of academic practices It moves beyond current analyses of cultural conflicts and discrimination in academic institutions to provide an indigenous postcolonial critique of the modern university Rauna Kuokkanen argues that attempts by universities to be inclusive are unsuccessful because they do not embrace indigenous worldviews Programs established to act as bridges between mainstream and indigenous cultures ignore their ontological and epistemic differences and while offering support and assistance place the responsibility of adapting wholly on the student Indigenous students and staff are expected to leave behind their cultural perspectives and epistemes in order to adopt Western values Reshaping the University advocates a radical shift in the approach to cultural conflicts within the academy and proposes a new logic grounded in principles central to indigenous philosophies Constructions of Race, Place, and Nation Peter Jackson,Jan Penrose,1994 Thinking Black Rob Waters,2018-11-06 It was a common charge among black radicals in the 1960s that Britons needed to start thinking black As state and society consolidated around a revived politics of whiteness thinking black they felt was necessary for all who sought to build a liberated future out of Britain s imperial past In Thinking Black Rob Waters reveals black radical Britain s wide cultural political formation tracing it across new institutions of black civil society and connecting it to decolonization and black liberation across the Atlantic world He shows how from the mid 1960s to the mid 1980s black radicalism defined what it meant to be black and what it meant to be radical in Britain From Criminalizing to Decriminalizing Marijuana Nikolay Anguelov,2018-10-15 This book tracks the political history and specific political actions associated with the diffusion of state level marijuana decriminalization It provides an integrated chronology of policy diffusion to show how social and cultural changes have impacted the shift from anti to pro marijuana political platforms The main contributions are an interdisciplinary approach to analyzing policy learning and evolution an overview of the political history of marijuana criminalization a clear synthesis of the medical literature on cannabis effects and a supply and demand analysis of legal and illegal marijuana markets in America For scholars of criminal justice law political science policy studies sociology and addiction it provides an amalgam of the diverse and divergent extant research on marijuana Black British Feminism Heidi Safia Mirza,1997 A collection of classic texts and new black feminist scholarship that traces the crucial developments and debates of the last twenty years It is the first volume entirely dedicated to the writings of black women in a British context The SAGE Handbook of Human Geography, 2v Roger Lee,Noel Castree,Rob Kitchin,Vicky Lawson,Anssi Paasi,Chris Philo,Sarah Radcliffe,Susan M. Roberts,Charles Withers,2014-05-22 Superb How refreshing to see a Handbook that eschews convention and explores the richness and diversity of the geographical imagination in such stimulating and challenging ways Peter Dicken University of Manchester Stands out as an innovative and exciting contribution that exceeds the genre Sallie A Marston University of Arizona Captures wonderfully the richness and complexity of the worlds that human beings inhabit This is a stand out among handbooks Lily Kong National University of Singapore This wonderfully unconventional book demonstrates human geography s character and significance not by marching through traditional themes but by presenting a set of geographical essays on basic ideas practices and concerns Alexander B Murphy University of Oregon This SAGE Handbook stands out for its capacity to provoke the reader to think anew about human geography essays that offer some profoundly original insights into what it means to engage geographically with the world Eric Sheppard UCLA Published in association with the journal Progress in Human Geography edited and written by the principal scholars in the discipline this Handbook demonstrates the difference that thinking about the world geographically makes Each section considers how human geography shapes the world interrogates it and intervenes in it It includes a major retrospective and prospective introductory essay with three substantive sections on Imagining Human Geographies Practising Human Geographies Living Human Geographies The Handbook also has an innovative multimedia component of conversations about key issues in human geography as well as an overview of human geography from the Editors A key reference for any scholar interested in questions about what difference it makes to think spatially or geographically about the world this Handbook is a rich and textured statement about the geographical imagination Foreigners, minorities and integration Sarah Hackett,2015-11-01 This book explores the arrival and development of Muslim immigrant communities in Britain and Germany during the post 1945 period through the case studies of Newcastle upon Tyne and Bremen It traces Newcastle s South Asian Muslims and Bremen s Turkish Muslims from their initial settlement through to the end of the twentieth century and investigates their behaviour and performance in the areas of employment housing and education At a time at when Islam is sometimes seen as a barrier to integration and harmony in Europe this study demonstrates that this need not be the case In what is the first comparison of Muslim ethnic minorities in Britain and Germany at a local level this book reveals that instances of integration have been frequent It is essential reading for both academics and students with an interest in migration studies modern Britain and Germany and the place of Islam in contemporary Europe
