Radio's Legacy in Popular Culture Martin Cooper, 2022-01-27. Examining work by novelists filmmakers TV producers and songwriters this book uncovers the manner in which the radio and the act of listening has been written about for the past 100 years. Ever since the first public wireless broadcasts people have been writing about the radio often negatively sometimes full of praise but always with an eye and an ear to explain and offer an opinion about what they think they have heard. Novelists including Graham Greene Agatha Christie Evelyn Waugh and James Joyce wrote about characters listening to this new medium with mixtures of delight frustration and despair. Clint Eastwood frightened moviegoers half to death in Play Misty for Me but Lou Reed's Rock the act of listening as a cultural expression focusing on fiction films and songs about radio. Martin Cooper a broadcaster and academic uses these movies TV shows songs novels and more to tell a story of listening to the radio as created by these contemporary writers filmmakers and musicians.
