The Boundless Sea Gary Y. Okihiro,2019-09-24 The last book in a trilogy of explorations on space and time from a preeminent scholar The Boundless Sea is Gary Y Okihiro s most innovative yet Whereas Okihiro s previous books Island World and Pineapple Culture sought to deconstruct islands and continents tropical and temperate zones this book interrogates the assumed divides between space and time memoir and history and the historian and the writing of history Okihiro uses himself from Okinawan roots growing up on a sugar plantation in Hawai i researching in Botswana and teaching in California to reveal the historian s craft involving diverse methodologies and subject matters Okihiro s imaginative narrative weaves back and forth through decades and across vast spatial and societal differences theorized as historical formations to critique history s conventions Taking its title from a translation of the author s surname The Boundless Sea is a deeply personal and reflective volume that challenges how we think about time and space notions of history

Nation, power and dissidence in third generation Nigerian poetry in English E. Egya,2019-04-12 Nation Power and Dissidence in Third Generation Nigerian Poetry in English is a theoretical and analytical survey of the poetry that emerged in Nigeria in the 1980s Hurt into poetry the poets collectively raise aesthetics of resistance that dramatises the nationalist imagination bridging the gap between poetry and politics in Nigeria The emerging generation of poetic voices raises an outcry against the repressive military regimes of the 1980s and 1990s Ingrained in the tradition of protest

Food Insecurity and the Social Division of Labour in Tanzania, 1919-85 D. Bryceson, 1990-07-08 Most studies of famine and the African food crisis stress how the socio economic context influences the occurrence of food shortages By contrast this book argues that food insecurity itself influences the social and economic organization of the society Through this approach the author provides a new interpretation of the causes and consequences of Tanzania's present economic crisis. The book examines the effects of changing food availability on the functioning of the state, the market, and clientage networks over the past seven decades. The conclusion is that clientage is no less important than the state and market as an organizational force in Tanzanian society, and under heightened food insecurity, the state and market lose ground to clientage.
