Tomus IV. Commentaria. Auctores (N-Q) Friedrich Stegmüller, 1989 Catàleg dels manuscrits de la catedral de Girona. Volum: 1 : Mss. 1-20 , The Practice of the Bible in the Middle Ages Susan Boynton, Diane J. Reilly, 2011 In this volume specialists in literature theology liturgy manuscript studies and history introduce the medieval culture of the Bible in Western Christianity Emphasizing the living quality of the text and the unique literary traditions that arose from it they show the many ways in which the Bible was read performed recorded and interpreted by various groups in medieval Europe An initial orientation introduces the origins components and organization of medieval Bibles Subsequent chapters address the use of the Bible in teaching and preaching the production and purpose of Biblical manuscripts in religious life early vernacular versions of the Bible its influence on medieval historical accounts the relationship between the Bible and monasticism and instances of privileged and practical use as well as the various forms the text took in different parts of Europe The dedicated merging of disciplines both within each chapter and overall in the book enable readers to encounter the Bible in much the same way as it was once experienced on multiple levels and registers through different lenses and screens and always personally and intimately The Ethical Poetic of the Later Middle Ages Judson Boyce Allen, 1982-12-15 This study of the definition of literature in the late medieval period is based on manuals of writing and on literary commentary and glosses It defines a method of reading which may now profitably explain medieval texts and identifies new primary medieval evidence which may ground and guide new reading Allen chooses texts whose commentary tradition provides the greatest opportunity for completeness The most important of these is Ovid's Metamorphoses Medieval readings of Ovid bring into focus a number of major literary questions the problems of fable and fiction of unity imposed by miscellany poetry of allegorical commentary and of Christian use of pagan culture all in connection with text which furnished medieval authors with more stories than any other single source except possibly the Bible Allen also studies commentaries on the Consolation of Philosophy of Boethius the Thebaid of Statius the De nuptiis of Martianus Capella the medieval Christian hymn book and the Poetria nova of Geoffrey of Vinsauf Together these texts represent the range of medieval literature a literature which Allen concludes was taken as direct ethical discourse logically conducted and artfully organized within a system of language that also assimilated the natural world and sought to absorb its audience Revista española de teología , 1977 Irish Biblical Apocrypha Máire Herbert, Martin J.
