Report Of The Expert Group On Strategies For Combating Trafficking Of Women And Children:

Report of the Expert Group on Strategies for Combating Trafficking of Women and Children Expert Group on Strategies for Combating Trafficking of Women and Children, Commonwealth Secretariat, 2003 Extrait de l introduction Trafficking in persons especially women and children for commercial sexual exploitation is one of the fastest growing areas of international criminal activity and of increasing concern to the international community including the Commonwealth Trafficking for the purposes of labour exploitation forced labour marriage adoption and the trade in organs are additional areas of concern but are less well documented The overwhelming majority of trafficked persons are women and girls Consequently this discussion focises primarily on strategies to combat the unlawful trafficking of women and children Report of the Expert Group on Strategies for Combating Trafficking of Women and Children Commonwealth Secretariat. Expert Group on Strategies for Combating Trafficking of Women and Children, 2003 Sex Trafficking Marie Segrave, Sharon Pickering, 2012-12-06 Trafficking in persons particularly the trafficking of women into sexual servitude sex trafficking has generated much attention over the past decade This book provides a critical examination of the international and national frameworks developed to respond to this issue focused both on the design of policy responses and their implementation Uniquely it brings together and brings to life the voices of policymakers non government agencies and trafficked women The analysis is grounded in rich empirical work and research in Europe Asia Australia and North America This book examines how sex trafficking has been mobilized within anti trafficking policies across the globe and offers a close examination of the dominant international framework drawing upon a rich and diverse set of case studies Australia Serbia and Thailand This analysis draws upon over 100 interviews with trafficking experts across the three nations including policymakers police immigration authorities socialworkers lawyers UN agencies local and international NGOs activists Critically it also draws upon the voices of women who have been trafficked Human Trafficking and Prostitution Among Women and Girls of Edo State, Nigeria Possibility of Rehabilitation Through Education and Prevention Mary Dorothy Ezech, 2017-06-06 Even though this study was primarily on human trafficking and prostitution among Edo women and girls of Edo state in Nigeria human trafficking however is a widespread visible phenomenon in the world today It is a global problem A report from United Nations Office on Drug and Crime in 2014 says that human trafficking involves over three million people in the world bringing their slaveholders an annual profit of 32 billion dollars According to the same report there is no place in the world where children women and men are safe from human trafficking In the background the stark reality of poverty unemployment social marginalization political crises wars interethnic conflicts and the militarization of entire territories has increased the massive displacements of the population fuelling the illegal sex trade linked to them Many youngsters who desire to improve their living conditions and those of their families fleeing their homes often become prey to criminal organizations who take advantage of them exploit them and dehumanize them Little do they know when they are leaving their homes to go to overseas what is waiting for them is often something altogether different namely intimidation blackmail violence nightmare and slavery that strip them of all dignity and respect To make matters worse most of the victims and their families not only lose credibility but are also ostracized by their local communities when what happened comes to light Therefore the victims of this painful chain are not only young girls and boys but also families Unfortunately some parents especially mothers have also been perpetrators of this deplorable crime They push their daughters into the arms of their torturers lulled by the dream of a brighter future To stop and to prevent the reoccurrence of this criminal network of complicity which has been more or less voluntary conscious and unconscious a joint commitment by all governments organizations local communities and individuals is necessary Everyone needs to remember and never forget that every human being every person has been created and procreated in the image and likeness of God and is a subject of essential rights which should never be violated but rather should be respected and upheld by everyone in every time and place

The Trade in Human Beings Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Home Affairs Committee, 2009 Incorporating HC 318 i vi session 2007 08

'My Name is Not Natasha' John Davies, 2009 This book challenges every common presumption that exists about the trafficking of women for the sex trade It is a detailed account of an entire population of trafficked Albanian women whose varied experiences including selling sex on the streets of France clearly demonstrate how much the present discourse about trafficked women is misplaced and inadequate The heterogeneity of the women involved and their relationships with various men is clearly presented as is the way women actively created a panoptical surveillance of themselves as a means of self policing There is no artificial divide between women who were deceived and abused and those who choose sex work in fact the book clearly shows how peripheral involvement in sex work was to the real agenda of the women involved Most of the women described in this book were not making economic decisions to escape desperate poverty nor were they the uneducated nave entrapped into sexual slavery The women s success in transiting trafficking to achieve their own goals without the assistance of any outside agency is a testimony to their resilience and resolve

New Books on Women and Feminism ,2004 Human Trafficking in Europe Gillian Wylie, Penelope McRedmond, 2010-06-30 This book focuses on human trafficking in Europe for labour and sexual exploitation It includes empirical work on trafficking throughout Europe identifying underlying causes in globalization migration policies and gender inequality It questions whether European responses from policy makers or civil society are adequate

Caribbean Anti-Trafficking Law and Practice Jason Haynes, 2019-07-11 This monograph investigates the International European and Commonwealth Caribbean approaches to human trafficking from an Analytical Eclectic perspective It presents a compelling empirically based argument that although there is currently a panoply of measures aimed at preventing human trafficking prosecuting offenders and protecting trafficked victims in both Europe and the Commonwealth Caribbean these measures have in practice been fraught with a number of challenges whether of a normative institutional or individual nature The continued existence of these challenges strongly suggests that there exists a disconnect between anti trafficking law and practice which is not peculiar to small island developing States since they also extend to developed States including the United Kingdom Although these challenges are not insurmountable this monograph advances the argument that sustained social economic political and legal commitments are both necessary and desirable and that without such commitments only pyrrhic victories would be won in the fight to eradicate the scourge of the twenty first century Given the importance of the issue of human trafficking and its inescapable impact on victims families communities nations regions and the international community as a whole this monograph will serve as an important resource for policy makers scholars students and practitioners actively working in this increasingly dynamic area of law

Human Trafficking John Winterdyk, Benjamin Perrin, Philip Reichel, 2011-12-05 Human trafficking is a crime that undermines fundamental human rights and a broader sense of global order It is an atrocity that transcends borders with some regions known as exporters of trafficking victims and others recognized as destination countries Edited by three global experts and composed of the work of an esteemed panel of contributors
