Representing Bisexualities Subjects And Cultures Of Fluid Desire:

Representing Bisexualities Donald E. Hall, Maria Pramaggiore, 1996-07 Is bisexuality coming out in America Bisexual characters are surfacing on popular television shows and in film Newsweek proclaims that a new sexual identity is emerging But amidst this burgeoning acknowledgment of bisexuality is there an understanding of what it means to be bisexual in a monosexual culture RePresenting Bisexualities seeks to answer these questions integrating a recognition of bisexual desire with new theories of gender and sexuality Despite the breakthroughs in gender studies and queer studies of recent years bisexuality has remained largely unexamined Problematic sexual images are usually attributed either to homosexual or heterosexual desire while bisexual readings remain unexplored The essays found in RePresenting Bisexualities discuss fluid sexualities through a variety of readings from the fence covering texts from Emily Dickinson to Nine Inch Nails Each author contributes to the collection a unique view of sexual fluidity and transgressive desire Taken together these essays provide the most comprehensive bisexual theory reader to date

Bisexuality and Queer Theory Jonathan Alexander, Serena Anderlini-D'Onofrio, 2014-04-10 According to David Halperin sexuality in our time is typified by a crisis in contemporary sexual definition What is sexuality What does it mean to have a sexual identity or orientation What is the relationship between sexuality as a knowledge construct on one hand and the often messy flows of desire and practices of love on the other How and why are some sexual erotic and intimate practices normalized and others marginalized Queer Theory has emerged in the West as one of the most provocative analytical tools in the humanities and social sciences It scrutinizes identity and social structures that take heteronormativity for granted that do not question the social construction of heterosexuality as normative in relation to its oppositional binary homosexuality At the same time bisexuality is a practice identity and orientation that challenges the binary logic around which cultural notions of sexuality are organized It is a portal to the imagination of a world of amorous expression beyond that divide This provocative collection presents bisexuality and queer theory as two parallel thought collectives that have made significant contributions to cultural discourses about sexual and amorous practices since the onset of the AIDS era and explores the ideas that circulate in these thought collectives today We learn much about the construction and experience of sexuality and the power it still holds throughout the contemporary Western world to shape identities and practices This volume challenges our understanding of what it means to be sexual to have a sexual identity and to practise the arts of loving This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Bisexuality

Postcolonialism Michael Chapman, 2009-03-26 This collection poses two overarching questions Is there a role for the literary imagination in postcolonial studies And where might one locate South Africa or more generally South African perspectives in a field delineated primarily by northern institutional purposes and practices While engaging with contemporary debates the essays seek to turn current postcolonial emphases on theoretical formulations and issue driven interpretation towards the subjective

Bisexual Spaces Clare Hemmings, 2013-11-12 A largely unexplored area this is an innovative and original examination of bisexual spaces as places that are defined by both geographical boundaries and cultural significance Hemmings applies the ideas of queer theory as well as social and cultural geography in her fascinating investigation into the spaces and places of bisexual life Specifically focusing on Northampton MA and San Francisco she draws on interviews with community members and the town histories showing how and why they have developed into safe places for the gay lesbian and bisexual communities By mapping out a space of bisexuality Bisexual Spaces provides a new and provocative understanding of the concept

Bisexuality in the Lives of Men Erich W Steinman, Brett Genny Beemyn, 2014-06-03 Explore the theoretical political psychological and cultural issues surrounding male bisexuality Bisexuality in the Lives of Men is the first anthology to focus on men who love both men and women The theoretical scientific and literary essays in this landmark volume dispel the fictions that bisexual men are greedy promiscuous confused deceptive unfaithful HIV positive the dominant images of bisexual men in our culture Whether portrayed as a coward who can't quite come out into full gayness or a smooth talking serial killer the bisexual man has been vilified in books and movies In scholarly studies they are often ignored or else lumped together with gay men It is now widely acknowledged that human sexuality is more complex and diverse than the narrow categories gay and straight But while the use of the term bisexual has become much more common in the last decade an understanding of bisexuality itself lags far behind A lack of research on how bisexuality is experienced interpreted and encoded in literature film and other aspects of popular culture means that stereotypes stigma and confusion are still prevalent Bisexuality in the Lives of Men is a multidisciplinary examination of this neglected topic bringing together expertise reflecting divergent approaches and fields to show the whole bisexual man Topics include a thoughtful review and analysis of the public health research on the role of bisexual men in HIV transmission a study of the marital consequences of a husband s bisexuality including couples who have stayed together an analysis of the heartfelt discussions taking place in an online bi male community an empirical study of the ways that bi negativity differs from homophobia an essay bringing together queer theory and social constructionist ideas to explain why bisexual men are much less visible than bisexual women The rigorously analytical yet accessible essays in this volume offer new information and perspectives about male bisexuality Bisexuality in the Lives of Men is an essential resource for anyone interested in the theoretical political and cultural issues of male bisexuality

The Masks of Mary Renault Caroline Zilboorg, 2013-10-10 Born Eileen Mary Challans in London in 1905 Mary Renault wrote six successful contemporary novels before turning to the historical fiction about ancient Greece for which she is best known While Renault s novels are still highly regarded her life and work have never been completely examined Caroline Zilboorg seeks to remedy this in The Masks of Mary Renault by exploring Renault s identity as a gifted writer and a sexual woman in a society in which neither of these identities was clear or easy Although Renault s life was anything but ordinary this fact has often been obscured by her writing The daughter of a doctor she grew up comfortably and attended a boarding school in Bristol She received a degree in English from St Hugh s College in Oxford in 1928 but she chose not to pursue an academic career Instead she decided to attend the Radcliffe Infirmary in Oxford where she trained to be a nurse With the outbreak of the Second World War she was assigned to the Winford Emergency Hospital in Bristol and briefly worked with Dunkirk evacuees She went on to work in the Radcliffe Infirmary s brain surgery ward and was there until 1945 It was during her nurse s training that Renault met Julie Mullard who became her lifelong companion This important lesbian relationship both resolved and posed many problems for Renault not the least of which was how she was to write about issues at once intensely personal and socially challenging In 1939 Renault published her first novel under a pseudonym in order to mask her identity It was a time when she was struggling not only with her vocation nursing and writing but also with her sexual identity in the social and moral context of English life during the war In 1948 Renault left England with Mullard for South Africa and never returned It was in South Africa that she made the shift from her early contemporary novels of manners to the mature historical novels of Hellenic life The classical settings allowed Renault to mask material too explosive to deal with directly while simultaneously giving her an academic freedom to write about subjects vital to her among them war peace career women s roles female and male homosexuality and bisexuality Renault s reception complicates an understanding of her achievement for she has a special status within the academic community where she is both widely read and little written about Her interest in sexuality and specifically in homosexuality and bisexuality in fluid gender roles and identities warrants a rereading and reevaluation of her work Eloquently written and extensively researched The Masks of Mary Renault will be of special value to anyone interested in women s studies or English literature

Hall, 2017-03-07 This essential introductory guide explores and aggressively expands the provocative new field of sexual identity studies It explains the history of sexual identity categories such as gay and lesbian covers the reclamation of queer as a term of radical self identification and details recent challenges to sexual identity studies posed by transgender and bisexual theories Donald E Hall offers concrete applications of the abstract theories he explores with imaginative new readings of such works as The Yellow Wallpaper Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde Orlando and The Color Purple Throughout Hall urges the reader to grapple with the changing nature of sexual identity in the twenty first century and asks searching questions about how we might identify ourselves differently given new technologies and new possibilities for sexual experimentation To students theorists and activists alike Queer Theories issues a challenge to continue to disrupt narrow traditional notions of sexual normality and to resist setting up new and confining categories of true sexual identity

Cinematic Homelands Mara Antic, 2024-10-04 This book maps an emerging cycle of films made by Iranian diasporic women filmmakers and produced outside of Iran focusing on five significant examples Shirin Neshat s Women Without Men 2009 Sepideh Farsi s Red Rose 2014 Maryam Keshavarz s Circumstance 2011 Ana Lily Amirpour s A Girl Walks Home Alone at Night 2014 and Desiree Akhavan s Appropriate Behaviour 2014 These films speak to the emergence of feminist concerns surrounding gender relations female subjectivity and sexuality in diasporic filmmaking The book intends to show how the body of recent Iranian diasporic women s films demonstrates a substantial shift within the existing exilic and diasporic paradigm requiring analysis of intersectional relations not only between ethnicity culture and nationality but also gender and sexuality Attending closely to the vibrant feminist film culture generated by Iranian women in diaspora this book aims to interrogate the diversity of women s filmmaking practices and their role in shaping new representations of female subjectivity and the diasporic condition

The Contemporary Femme Fatale Katherine Farrimond, 2017-07-06 The femme fatale occupies a precarious yet highly visible space in contemporary cinema From sci fi alien women to teenage bad girls filmmakers continue to draw on the notion of the

sexy deadly woman in ways which traverse boundaries of genre and narrative This book charts the articulations of the femme fatale in American cinema of the past twenty years and contends that despite her problematic relationship with feminism she offers a vital means for reading the connections between mainstream cinema and representations of female agency The films discussed raise questions about the limits and potential of positioning women who meet highly normative standards of beauty as powerful icons of female agency They point towards the constant shifting between patriarchal appropriation and feminist recuperation that inevitably accompanies such representations within mainstream media contexts
