Representing Muslims Religion Ethnicity And The Politics Of Identity:

Representing Muslims Seán McLoughlin, 2003-11 Explores the tensions and contradictions facing ethnic minorities in a multicultural society Representing Muslims explores the tensions and contradictions facing ethnic minorities in a multicultural society particularly when those communities assert rights that the majority would often prefer they went without the right to express their Islamic identity and culture in ways which sometimes disturb and challenge prevailing notions of what it means to be British McLoughlin sets the debates around Muslim religious identity and cultural politics in the wider context of contemporary ideas about globalization and diaspora community and hybridity In four different case studies he considers some of the ways in which Muslims are seeking to represent their identity to the state wider society and each other He also examines the ways in which Muslim identity is contextualised and cross cut by a variety of sometimes conflicting notions of ethnicity class gender and generation

Islam in Russia: The Politics of Identity and Security Shireen Hunter, 2016-09-16 This richly detailed study traces the shared history of Russia and Islam in expanding compass from the Tatar civilization within the Russian heartland to the conquered territories of the Caucasus and Central Asia to the larger geopolitical and security context of contemporary Russia on the civilizational divide The study's distinctive analytical drive stresses political and geopolitical relationships over time and into the very complicated present Rich with insight the book is also an incomparable source of factual information about Russia's Muslim populations religious institutions political organizations and ideological movements

The Routledge Companion to the Study of Religion John Hinnells, 2005-06-21 Providing a genuinely full guide to the theory and methods related to religious studies this text written entirely by world renowned specialists is the ideal resource for those studying the discipline

Muslims, Identity, and American Politics Brian Calfano, 2018-04-27 Calfano provides an examination of the pressures faced by Muslims often considered political and social outsiders in western nations especially in the United States Identity is a complex concept especially when considering the role that group attachments play in affecting how one sees her his role in the political environment of their country of residence Perhaps the greatest tension in this regard is felt by those who are often considered outsiders in their home country despite significant ties to their nation Though citizens and second generation residents in many cases American Muslims face a combination of suspicion government scrutiny and social segregation in the United States despite significant education and economic assimilation in America The crux of the investigation advanced here centres on how group influence emotions and religious interpretation contribute to the political orientation and behaviour of a national sample of Muslims living in the American context A compelling explanation as to how members of an ostracized political group marshal the motivation to push through suspicion to become fully engaged political actors this book has wide relevance and will be of interest to scholars researching Muslims and political participation across the fields of political science history sociology and religion European Muslims and the Secular State Sean McLoughlin, Jocelyne Cesari, 2016-12-05 The institutionalization of Islam in the West continues to raise many questions for a range of different constituencies Secularization represents much more than the legal separation of politics and religion in Europe for important segments of European societies it has become the cultural norm Therefore Muslims settlement and their claims for the public recognition of Islam have often been perceived as a threat This volume explores current interactions between Muslims and the more or less secularized public spaces of several European states assessing the challenges such interactions imply for both Muslims and the societies in which they now live Divided into three parts it examines the impact of State Church relations Islamophobia and the war on terrorism evaluates the engagement of Muslim leaders with the State and civil society and reflects on both individual and collective transformations of Muslim religiosity Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics Tahir Abbas, 2011-03 The emergence of an Islamic political radicalism in Britain has been one of the most dramatic developments in post war society Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics explores the context behind this phenomenon focusing on post war immigration and integration the complex relations that exist between Britain and Islam and the true extent of social and economic inequalities that affect Muslims Muslim Identity Politics Khadijah Elshayyal, 2018-02-28 The surge in divisive and far right politics and growing Islamophobia in Britain pose new challenges for Muslim advocacy organisations British Muslim activism has taken centre stage in the public sphere as a result Yet for over fifty years Muslim advocacy groups have worked to preserve religious identity lobby the state and provide concerted responses to the political establishment This is the first book to chart critically the national and global factors influencing the political mobilisation of British Muslim activists as Muslims Khadijah Elshayyal traces the changes of thought direction and method within Muslim identity politics after 1960 noting key organisations and turning points such as the Rushdie Affair the 9 11 attacks the 7 7 bombings and the current conflict in Syria The book argues that the Rushdie Affair prompted new debate around the subject of freedom of expression which has continued to be a point of contention ever since Providing a history of the interaction between Muslim advocacy groups and the state and the impact of state policy on Muslim communities Muslims Identity Politics shows that that Muslim citizens continue to experience an equality gap and recommends where transformation and progress can be made Based on primary sources and in depth interviews this book is a vital resource for government officials policy makers and researchers interested in multiculturalism Islamophobia and security issues in Britain The Politics of Islamic Law Iza R. Hussin, 2016-03-31 In The Politics of Islamic Law Iza Hussin compares India Malaya and Egypt during the

British colonial period in order to trace the making and transformation of the contemporary category of Islamic law She demonstrates that not only is Islamic law not the shari ah its present institutional forms substantive content symbolic vocabulary and relationship to state and society in short its politics are built upon foundations laid during the colonial encounter Drawing on extensive archival work in English Arabic and Malay from court records to colonial and local papers to private letters and visual material Hussin offers a view of politics in the colonial period as an iterative series of negotiations between local and colonial powers in multiple locations She shows how this resulted in a paradox centralizing Islamic law at the same time that it limited its reach to family and ritual matters and produced a transformation in the Muslim state providing the frame within which Islam is articulated today setting the agenda for ongoing legislation and policy and defining the limits of change Combining a genealogy of law with a political analysis of its institutional dynamics this book offers an up close look at the ways in which global transformations are realized at the local level Muslims in Britain Peter

Hopkins, 2009-03-31 Following the events of 11th September 2001 in the USA and more especially the bombings on the London underground on 7th July 2005 and the incident at Glasgow Airport on 30th June 2007 an increasing amount of public attention has been focused upon Muslims in Britain Against the backdrop of this debate this book sets out a series of innovative insights into the everyday lives of Muslims living in contemporary Britain in an attempt to move beyond prevalent stereotypes concerning what it means to be Muslim Combining original empirical research with theoretical interventions this collection offers a range of reflections on how Muslims in Britain negotiate their everyday lives manage experiences of racism and exclusion and develop local networks and global connections The authors explore a broad range of themes including gender relations educational and economic issues migration and mobility religion and politics racism and Islamophobia and the construction and contestation of Muslim identities Threaded through the treatment of these themes is a unifying concern with the ways in which geography matters to how Muslims negotiate their daily experiences as well as their racialised gendered and religious identities Above all attention is focused upon the role of the home and local community the influence of the economy and the nation and the power of transnational connections and mobilities in the everyday lives of Muslims in Britain Includes contributions from Louise Archer Yahya Birt Sophie Bowlby Claire Dwyer Richard Gale Peter Hopkins Lily Kong Sally Lloyd Evans Sean McLoughlin Sharmina Mawani Tariq Modood Anjoom Mukadam Caroline Nagel Deborah Phillips Bindi Shah and Lynn Staeheli Rethinking Islamism beyond jihadi violence

Elisa Orofino, 2023-05-23 For several years now Islamism has been associated with jihadism and violent extremism both in academia and in contemporary political debates However this association can be misleading Islamism has much deeper roots than jihadi terrorism and it stands as a powerful and complex ideology inspiring thoughts actions and groups all over the world Emerging as a protest for justice ideology claiming freedom against Western colonisation of the Muslim world Islamism has triggered both individuals and groups worldwide since the early 1900s Almost as a sacred ideology based on the need to revive Islam as the only saving grace for Muslims around the world Islamism started to be widely associated with jihadism after 9 11 Before then Islamism was not automatically related to terrorism but to resistance Given that terrorists are only a small and definite portion of Islamists this volume aims to re focus research on Islamism beyond jihadism by collecting relevant contributions on Islamist but non violent organisations More precisely this volume innovatively contributes to current academic debates by exploring the origins of Islamism and the differences between jihadism the evolution of Islamism over time and places and the role played by the most influential non jihadist Islamist organisations active today as powerful non state actors Ethnicity, Politics, and Public Policy Harold R. Troper, 1999-01-01 Ten essays on multiculturalism form a comprehensive picture of the problems and prospects of pluralism and mirror the nuanced issues which arise when theories and goals of cultural sensitivity confront real life Methods and Contexts in the Study of Muslim Minorities Nadia Jeldtoft, Jørgen Nielsen, 2014-07-16 In the past decade Muslims in Europe have been the subject of heated debates on the place and role of religion in the public space Research into the issues involved has often used visible and formalised expressions of Muslim religiosity as its empirical point of departure This book instead examines the microlevel workings of Muslim minority religiosity to offer a new perspective on these debates Contributors to this volume examine the forms of Muslim religiosity which are not dependent on the official or semi official settings of organised religion These ethnographic studies investigate a range of examples of non organised Islam ranging from salafi jihadism to converts to Islam to everyday spiritualities of Muslim in Europe By exploring these neglected forms of Muslim religiosity this book is able to build up a more nuanced picture of the role of Muslims in Europe It will be of interest to academics researchers and graduate students of Religion Ethnic Studies Migration Studies Sociology and Political Science This book was previously published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies British Muslim Politics P. Akhtar, 2013-10-09 Although there has emerged a huge interest in the Muslim communities in Britain since 9 11 and 7 7 few academic studies have focused on the political processes within Muslim communities and the impacts these have on civic engagement This book examines the political biographies and religious identities of British Muslims of Pakistani descent Religion and Politics in the United States Kenneth D. Wald, Allison Calhoun-Brown, 2018-01-23 Using an evidenced based social scientific approach to religion Kenneth D Wald and Allison Calhoun Brown challenge the perception that religious influence in American politics is a problem to be solved Instead they contend that religion is a form of social identification that not only shapes our ideas about politics but it also shapes the behavior of political elites and ordinary citizens the interpretation of public laws and the development of government programs Ultimately the authors show how religion plays a fascinating and crucial role in our nation s political process and in our culture at large The eighth edition of Religion and Politics in the United States has been fully updated to include the latest scholarship and coverage of the 2016 presidential election It also features a new discussion of the religious right center and left as well as the impact of religion on the fight for equality based on gender and sexual orientation Additional student resources include all new discussion questions and further readings at the end of each chapter as well as a companion website featuring self quizzes

The Politics of Traumatic Literature Önder Çakırtaş,Şahin Kızıldaş,Antolin C. Trinidad,2018-10-29 This book is a collection of essays offering an inside view into the inner analysis of traumatic literary studies wherein language is used as a medium of expression so as to interpret man psyche and memory By making literature the partner of a dialogue with psychology in order to better comprehend the psyche it serves to alter the way of understanding the literary phenomenon Featuring relevant coverage on topics such as literary production psychology in literature identity and traumatic studies this book provides in depth analysis that is suitable for academicians students professionals and researchers interested in discovering more about the relationship between psychology and literature and their effects on thinking

The New Politics of Islam Naveed S. Sheikh,2003-08-29 This is a timely study of the international relations of Islamic states dealing both with the evolving theory of pan Islamism from classical to post caliphal times and the foreign policy practice of contemporary states especially Saudi Arabia Iran and Pakistan from the colonial period to the global aftermath of September 11 With a concise but analytic style the book engages one by one with the questions of political theory political geography and political sociology as they relate to international Islam Its primary empirical investigation is centred on the Organization of the Islamic Conference OIC a powerful pan Islamic regime sometimes referred to as the Muslim United Nations In its theoretical deliberations on Islam and the postmodern condition the book reconstructs contemporary understandings of how religious ideas and identities influence international politics in the Islamic world

The Politics of Religion, Nationalism, and Identity in Asia Jeff Kingston,2019-07-30 This comprehensive book provides a comparative analysis of religious nationalism in contemporary globalized Asia Exploring the nexus of religion identity and nationalism Jeff Kingston assesses similarities and differences across the region focusing on how religious sentiments influence how people embrace nationalism and with what consequences Kingston shows that in the age of the internet this has become an especially volatile mix that breeds violence and poses a significant risk to secularism diversity civil liberties democracy and political stability This extremist tide has swept across Asia with tragic results as witnessed by 730 000 Rohingya Muslims driven out of Myanmar 70 000 Kashmiris slaughtered in India and Islamic State affiliates terrorizing Bangladesh Indonesia the Philippines and Sri Lanka Who could have imagined Buddhist monks inciting violence and intolerance or setting themselves on fire Or pious vigilantes beheading atheist bloggers Or clerics defeating and jailing powerful politicians on blasphemy allegations And what explains why one million Uighur Muslims are locked up in China Examining the causes and consequences of these varied phenomena and what they portend Kingston casts a sobering light on the prospects of the Asian Century

Politics in a Religious World Eric Patterson,2011-09-29 The book discusses the lack of religious understanding in US foreign policy examining why the US chooses to avoid the religious aspects of international affairs

Muslims and Political Participation in Britain Timothy Peace,2015-05-01 This new volume showcases the latest research into Muslim political participation both in terms of electoral politics and civil society initiatives Muslims play a prominent role in British political life yet what do we actually know about the involvement of British Muslims beyond the existence of a handful of Muslim MPs What is unique about political participation in Muslim communities All the major parties actively seek to court a Muslim electorate but does such a phenomenon exist Despite the impact that Muslims have had on election campaigns and their roles in various political institutions research on this topic remains scant Indeed much of the existing work was couched within the broader areas of the participation of ethnic minorities or the impact of race on electoral politics The chapters in this volume address this lacuna by highlighting different aspects of Muslim participation in British politics They investigate voting patterns and election campaigns civil society and grassroots political movements the engagement of young people and the participation of Muslims in formal political institutions Written in an accessible style this book will be of interest to students and scholars of political participation and religious studies
