Reproduction Sexuality And The Family:

Reproduction, Sexuality, and the Family Karen J. Maschke, 1997 This collection of essays and reviews represents the most significant and comprehensive writing on Shakespeare's A Comedy of Errors Miola's edited work also features a comprehensive critical history coupled with a full bibliography and photographs of major productions of the play from around the world In the collection there are five previously unpublished essays The topics covered in these new essays are women in the play the play's debt to contemporary theater its critical and performance histories in Germany and Japan the metrical variety of the play and the distinctly modern perspective on the play as containing dark and disturbing elements To compliment these new essays the collection features significant scholarship and commentary on The Comedy of Errors that is published in obscure and difficult accessible journals newspapers and other sources This collection brings together these essays for the first time

Queering Family Trees Sandra Patton-Imani, 2020-06-09 Argues that significant barriers to family making exist for lesbian mothers of color in the United States One might be tempted in the afterglow of Obergefell v Hodges to believe that the battle has been won that gays and lesbians fought a tough fight and finally achieved equality in the United States through access to legal marriage But that narrative tells only one version of a very complex story about family and citizenship Queering Family Trees explores the lived experience of queer mothers in the United States drawing on over one hundred interviews with African American Latina Native American white and Asian American lesbian mothers living in a range of socioeconomic circumstances to show how they have navigated family making While the legalization of same sex marriage and adoption in 2015 has provided avenues toward equality for some couples structural and economic barriers have meant that others especially queer women of color who often have fewer financial resources have not been able to access seemingly available choices such as second parent adoptions powers of attorney and wills Sandra Patton Imani here argues that the virtual exclusion of lesbians of color from public narratives about LGBTQ families is crucial to maintaining the narrative that legal marriage for same sex couples provides access to full equality as citizens Through the lens of reproductive justice Patton Imani argues that the federal legalization of same sex marriage reinforces existing structures of inequality grounded in race gender sexuality and class Queering Family Trees explores the lives of a critically erased segment of the queer population demonstrating that the seemingly color blind solutions offered by marriage equality do not rectify such inequalities

Sexual and Reproductive Health Paul Van Look, Kristian Heggenhougen, Stella R. Quah, 2011-01-10 This volume presents the highlights of current global thinking about sexual and reproductive health Major changes have taken place in the last 15 years in the way decision makers think about the subject and the manner in which programmes deliver comprehensive sexual and reproductive health services The turning point was the International Conference on Population and Development ICPD held in Cairo Egypt in 1994 ICPD was a watershed for several reasons First more than in any of the preceding United Nations population conferences the issue of population was clearly placed as being central to sustainable development Second the narrow focus on population growth the population bomb which had been a neo Malthusian concern and preoccupation ever since the Club of Rome published its 1972 report Limits to Growth was replaced by the comprehensive concept of sexual and reproductive health Third and linked to the definition and introduction of the reproductive health concept was the strong call for a paradigm shift away from a policy environment driven by demographic considerations sometimes to the point of using coercion in family planning services in order to reach demographic targets to an environment that recognized the right of individuals to make their own choices And last but not least ICPD as well as the Fourth World Conference on Women FWCW held the following year in Beijing People's Republic of China strongly emphasized that the rights of women and men to good sexual and reproductive health are firmly grounded in universal human rights Provided by publisher

Sexual Ideology and Schooling Alexander McKay, 1999-11-04 Sexuality education in the schools has become a key battleground in the wider social conflict over the sexual norms of Western culture In Sexual Ideology and Schooling Alexander McKay conceptualizes the sexuality debates as a battle between two basic but diametrically opposed belief systems about the nature and purpose of sexuality in human life and society Restrictive and Permissive He outlines the philosophical moral foundations of a democratic approach to teaching young people about sexuality and persuasively argues that public institutions including the schools should base public policy related to sexuality on democratic principles rather than the dictates of sexual ideology The Sexuality-Reproduction

Nexus and the Three Demographic Transitions Nikolai Botev,2020-01-07 This monograph outlines an integrative framework that conceptualizes the role of relations of control in human reproduction and long term population dynamics It thereby draws on the demographic transition theory sexuality studies Foucault s concept of bio power and sexuality as key to social control cognate concepts and theories and on findings from demography anthropology archaeology and other disciplines The framework is based on the premise that four demographic regimes can be identified over the course of human history They are defined by the primary locus and modus of control over reproduction The framework questions some of the basic postulates in population studies including how demographic transitions are interpreted As such this book contributes to the debate on the longer term trends in population dynamics and the relations of power and control in human reproduction

Changing Cultures Professor Mica Nava,1992-04-07 Changing Cultures brings together a selection of challenging essays which have their roots in the fertile convergence of feminism sociology and cultural studies Themes include the assessment of feminist theory its transformations and its ability to illuminate issues and practices The complex relationship between objects of study their political implications and their historical context is a recurring theme The book includes analyses of the utopianism of feminist thought on the family sexuality and sexual difference in youth service provision and the symbolic resonance of the urban and the domestic in the education of girls It goes on to investigate child sexual abuse in relation to problems of interpretation and the politics of media representation The final section examines different theorizations of consumerism and advertising and their implications for our understanding of youth and consumerism

the Nuclear Ideal Daniela Cutas,Sarah Chan,2012-11-22 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com This book examines through a multi disciplinary lens the possibilities offered by relationships and family forms that challenge the nuclear family ideal and some of the arguments that recommend or disqualify these as legitimate units in our societies That children should be conceived naturally born to and raised by their two young heterosexual married to each other genetic parents that this relationship between parents is also the ideal relationship between romantic or sexual partners and that romance and sexual intimacy ought to be at the core of our closest personal relationships all these elements converge towards the ideal of the nuclear family The authors consider a range of relationship and family structures that depart from this ideal polyamory and polygamy single and polyparenting parenting by gay and lesbian couples as well as families created through assisted human reproduction Edelman and Kudzma's Canadian Health Promotion Throughout the Life Span - E-Book Marian Fitzgerald, Kandice L.

Grossman, 2024-09-02 Sociology of Sexualities is an insightful exploration of sexuality through a sociological lens offering a comprehensive understanding of sexualities and gender identities The Third Edition brings to light the current societal challenges faced by LGBTQ and reproductive rights the influence of technology on sexuality and the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on sexual behaviors Sexual Education Around the World - Past, Present and Future Issues Rogena Sterling, 2023-09-13 Sexual education is a worldwide concern that intersects with various attitudes values and cultural norms It is an area of life that has for many years been kept private but now there is recognition that there is a need to support people especially young people in modern societies The way sexual education is taught and applied within institutions shapes the way we understand and approach human sexuality Various societies have chosen various means to provide sexual education both at school and to the wider society There is still much more development and support needed however We can begin to identify strategies for overcoming challenges in sex education promoting healthier attitudes and empowering individuals to make informed decisions about their own bodies and relationships This book is organized into three sections The first section focuses on issues in sexual education such as sexual harassment sexuality and relationship education and advocacy by people with disabilities future challenges and sex differences in physical attractiveness The second section focuses on the means of sexual health education interventions including the use of technology The last section includes a chapter on sex education and the invisibility of intersex people in the curriculum Macmillan Health Encyclopedia: Sexuality and reproduction, 1999

Reproductive Medicine and the Life Sciences in the Contemporary Economy Alexander Styhre, 2016-04-08 In Reproductive Medicine and the Life Sciences in the Contemporary Economy Alexander Styhre and Rebecka Arman illuminate issues that have given rise to terms such as the bioeconomy and the baby business The life sciences play an increasing role in providing services and commodities consumed by businesses and the public Based on an in depth study of clinics offering assisted fertilization in Sweden this book is the first to examine the commercialization and commodification of know how derived from the life sciences from the point of view of organization theory In the field of reproductive medicine there has been significant growth of both public and private clinical work Clinics are places where individual interests and concerns and social and institutional arrangements intersect With a front office where patients encounter various professional groups and a back office comprising the laboratories wherein human reproductive materials are handled and stored they are more than just places in which medicine is applied in a clinical setting Clinicians in this field actively influence policy making and the regulatory frameworks that monitor and set the boundaries for their work These are places where social and cultural interests and concerns are translated into policies and practice The clinics are open social systems responding to and influencing discussions This book combines organization theory sociological theory gender theory science and technology studies and philosophy It emphasises the critical importance of a sociomaterial perspective on organization stressing how material and social resources are always of necessity folded into each other in day to day organizing

Reproductive Politics and the Making of Modern India Mytheli Sreenivas, 2021-06-04 Finalist for the inaugural ACLS Open Access Book Prize Calculating the cost of life in a transnational context Beginning in the late nineteenth century India played a pivotal role in global conversations about population and reproduction In Reproductive Politics and the Making of Modern India Mytheli Sreenivas demonstrates how colonial administrators postcolonial development experts nationalists eugenicists feminists and family planners all aimed to reform reproduction to transform both individual bodies and the body politic Across the political spectrum people insisted that regulating reproduction was necessary and that limiting the population was essential to economic development This book investigates the often devastating implications of this logic which demonized some women's reproduction as the cause of national and planetary catastrophe To tell this story Sreenivas explores debates about marriage family and contraception She also demonstrates how concerns about reproduction surfaced within a range of political questions about poverty and crises of subsistence migration and claims of national sovereignty normative heterosexuality and drives for economic development Locating India at the center of transnational historical change this book suggests that Indian developments produced the very grounds over which reproduction was called into question in the modern world The open access edition of Reproductive Politics and the Making of Modern India is freely available thanks to the TOME initiative and the generous support of The Ohio State University Libraries DOI 10.6069/9780295748856

Relative Races Brigitte Fielder, 2020-09-21 In Relative Races Brigitte Fielder presents an alternative theory of how race is ascribed Contrary to notions of genealogies by which race is transmitted from parents to children the examples Fielder discusses from nineteenth century literature history and popular culture show how race can follow other directions Desdemona becomes less than fully white when she is smudged with Othello's blackface a white woman becomes Native American when she is adopted by a Seneca family and a mixed race baby casts doubt on the whiteness of his mother Fielder shows that the genealogies of race are especially visible in the racialization of white women whose whiteness often depends on their ability to reproduce white family and white supremacy Using black feminist and queer theories Fielder presents readings of personal narratives novels plays stories poems and images to illustrate how interracial kinship follows non heteronormative non biological and non patrilineal models of inheritance in nineteenth century literary culture
