Requiem For A Red Box:

Requiem for a Red Box John Timpson, Neil McAllister, Val Corbett, 1989-01-01 Street Furniture Design Eleanor Herring, 2016-07-14 Eleanor Herring's unique study of street furniture in post war Britain considers how objects which are now familiar parts of our urban environment were designed to populate public spaces Herring explores the design of lampposts post boxes parking meters and signage in the context of a government backed by various bodies keen to propagate good modern design in a Britain whose towns and cities had been laid waste by bombing and the privations of war She also considers the innate conservatism of local communities and councils wary of a standardised street design imposed from above She traces how the design of street furniture became the site of a fierce struggle which exposed deep seated anxieties about class taste and power Herring's original research draws on archival material and on interviews with leading figures in urban design including graphic designer Margaret Calvert and industrial designer Kenneth Grange The British Phonebox Nigel Linge, Andy Sutton, 2017-02-15 The full story of one of the most iconic public symbols in Britain Public relations and the making of modern Britain Scott Anthony, 2018-04-30 Public relations was established in Britain by a group of liberal intellectuals in the aftermath of the slump Central to the startling story of Britain's early public relations pioneers is Sir Stephen Tallents the inaugural President of the Institute of Public Relations Tallents was a public sector entrepreneur who lent his patronage to John Grierson's documentary film movement the BBC Overseas Service the development of Listener Research and the staging of the Festival of Britain A compelling portrait of how the social economic and media revolutions of early twentieth century reshaped national life Public relations and the making of modern Britain reveals a country struggling to cope with austerity and crisis that is at once very different from and yet surprisingly similar to our own This book includes the first reprint of Tallents influential The Projection of England for over fifty years It will interest students and scholars of media studies and modern British culture history and politics A REQUIEM FOR CAELUS R. Peter Ubtrent, 2016-10-13 When the young Lo thar Mistshrouder of the Fikir Clan saved the even younger Lorelei Heartstealer of the Kar clan all hailed it as the day when the two clans could end their ages old war and usher in an era of peace and harmony It was simple dumb luck that Caelus was chosen at that time to be the next planet Suppressed by the mighty Va Shan Empire Lorelei was taken to serve in the pleasure Sanctum of Kral leader of the Va Shan Lo thar together with Lorelei's best friend Maegil and the Dragor Jo tal are all that is left behind and they quickly discover that their magical abilities are no match for the advanced weapons arrayed against them Thus begins the three book saga of Lo thar Lorelei Maegil and Jo tal caught up in the vile and corrupt world of a galactic empire they never even knew existed A Requiem for the Earth Hasan Manzar, 1998 Hasan Manzar's characters are common men and women in conflict with exploitative social norms Though down trodden they are bold and strong ready to strike out at an inequitable social order The themes locale and subjects are diverse and though the stories are placed against the panorama of Pakistani culture they are not restricted by geographical boundaries The Tree
