Rosenzweig His Life Thought:

Franz Rosenzweig Franz Rosenzweig, Nahum Norbert Glatzer, 1998-01-01 Franz Rosenzweig was a prominent figure in the development of Jewish existentialism and a major influence on the work Emil Fackenheim amongst others This work offers an array of significant texts and presents Rosenzweig's life in an informative way Franz Rosenzweig's

Philosophy of Existence E.R. Freund, 2013-04-17 The Star of Redemption which presents Franz Rosenzweig's system of philosophy begins with the sentence from death vom Tode from the fear of death originates all cognition of the All and concludes with the words into life This beginning and this conclusion of the book signify more than the first and last words of philosophical books usually do Taken together from death into life they comprise the entire meaning of Rosenzweig's philosophy The leitmotif of this philosophy is the life and death of the human being and not the I of philosophical idealism where man ultimately signifies for ethics no more than a point to which it ethics relates its problems as for science also he man is only a particular case of its general laws I Rosenzweig deals with the individual's actual existence that which is terminated by death he speaks of the individual's hic et nunc of his actions and decisions in the realm of concrete reality This philosophy is not an exposition of theoretical principles It is not concerned with man in general in abstract time but rather with the individual human being designated by a proper name living in his particular time Human existence in its finiteness and temporalness forms the focus in which Rosenzweig's motif can be gathered together Franz Rosenzweig's "The New Thinking" Alan Udoff, Barbara E. Galli, 1999-04-01 Here for the first time faithfully translated in their entirety are the principal texts for which Franz Rosenzweig initiated the project that would become The Star of Redemption Included in the volume are Rosenzweig's essay The New Thinking four important reviews of The Star of Redemption and his 1917 letter to Rudolf Ehrenberg the germcell of The Star Barbara E Galli's own essay touches on the basic concepts of Rosenzweig's work while pointing to and going beyond his scholarship Alan Udoff's provocative closing essay situates Rosenzweig's thought in the context of modern and postmodern philosophical concerns and suggests a new direction in assessing the philosopher's theological accomplishment This volume is a perfect guide for students of the great philosopher and for a broader general audience seeking an introduction to Rosenzweig's ideas The Messianic Disruption of Trinitarian Theology Kornel

Zathureczky, 2009-03-16 The unsettling context of late modernity a terrain of an infinite fragmentation of life poses a challenge to Christianity to rearticulate its defining doctrine of the Trinity Christianity's initial messianic weakness in that its canonical writings attest to a universal message of redemption for the victims of Empire was subverted into the strong theology of the Empire This book demonstrates that Trinitarian discourse was profoundly implicated in this development as it essentially absorbed and took the bite out of the messianic language of the early Christian movement Zathureczky proposes a retrieval of the messianic discourse of Christianity by way of recapturing its redemptive weakness Relying on an elective affinity between Walter Benjamin's messianism and Jürgen Moltmann Trinitarianism he attempts to recapture the weakness and fragility of the language of the initial messianic impulse of the Christian community The resulting weak Trinitarianism retains the basic character of Christianity as a Trinitarian faith but now Trinitarian discourse about God is simultaneously messianic discourse a language that is attuned to give voice to the damaged lives and alienating conditions of our contemporary context Texts and responses Michael A. Fishbane, Paul R. Flohr, 2023-08-28 Giving Beyond the Gift Elliot R. Wolfson, 2014-02-03 This book explores the co dependency of monotheism and idolatry by examining the thought of several prominent twentieth century Jewish philosophers Cohen Buber Rosenzweig and Levinas While all of these thinkers were keenly aware of the pitfalls of scriptural theism to differing degrees they each succumbed to the temptation to personify transcendence even as they tried either to circumvent or to restrain it by apophatically purging kataphatic descriptions of the deity Derrida and Wyschogrod by contrast carried the project of denegation one step further embarking on a path that culminated in the aporetic suspension of belief and the consequent removal of all images from God a move that seriously compromises the viability of devotional piety The inquiry into apophatic transcendence and immanence in these Jewish thinkers is symptomatic of a larger question Recent attempts to harness the apophatic tradition to construct a viable postmodern negative theology a religion without religion are not radical enough Not only are these philosophies of transcendence guilty of a turn to theology that defies the phenomenological presupposition of an immanent phenomenality but they fall short on their own terms inasmuch as they persist in employing metaphorical language that personalizes transcendence and thereby runs the risk of undermining the irreducible alterity and invisibility attributed to the transcendent other The logic of apophaticism if permitted to run its course fully would exceed the need to posit some form of transcendence that is not ultimately a facet of immanence Apophatic theologies accordingly must be supplanted by a more far reaching apophaticism that surpasses the theolatrous impulse lying coiled at the crux of theism an apophaticism based on accepting an absolute nothingness to be distinguished from the nothingness of an absolute that does not signify the unknowable One but rather the manifold that is the pleromatic abyss at being's core Hence the much celebrated metaphor of the gift must give way to the more neutral and less theologically charged notion of an unconditional givenness in which the distinction between giver and given collapses To think givenness in its most elemental phenomenological sense is to allow the apparent to appear as given without presuming a causal agency that would turn that given into a gift Franz Rosenzweig's Conversions Benjamin Pollock, 2014-08-12 Franz Rosenzweig's near conversion to Christianity in the summer of 1913 and his subsequent decision three months later to recommit himself to Judaism is one of the foundational narratives of modern Jewish thought In this new account of events Benjamin Pollock suggests that what lay at the heart of Rosenzweig's religious crisis was not a struggle between faith and reason but skepticism about the world and hope for personal salvation A close examination of this important time in Rosenzweig's life the book also sheds light on the full trajectory of his philosophical development An Episode of Jewish Romanticism Ernest H. Rubinstein, 2012-02-01 Examining romanticism in the thought of Jewish philosopher Franz Rosenzweig this book compares his magnum opus The Star of Redemption with Leo Baeck's essay Romantic Religion and Friedrich Schelling's Philosophy of Art texts representing two distinct and to a large extent opposed interpretations of romanticism Rosenzweig's thought was shaped by two intellectual histories Germany's and Judaism's Because romanticism had such a definite impact on modern German writing and thought it becomes a question whether and to what extent Rosenzweig too was a romantic Part of the force of the question derives from the tensions sometimes noted between Jewish and romantic worldviews In this book author Ernest Rubinstein shows The Star of Redemption to be along the spectrum of ideas that extends between Baeck and Schelling and thus illustrates a qualified romanticism The Nietzsche Legacy in Germany Steven E. Aschheim, 1994-02-25 Countless attempts have been made to appropriate the ideas of Friedrich Nietzsche for diverse cultural and political ends but nowhere have these efforts been more sustained and of greater consequence than in Germany Aschheim offers a magisterial chronicle of the philosopher's presence in German life and politics Idolatry Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2023-05-16 Idolatry or its Hebrew equivalent Avodah Zarah is a fundamental feature of a Jewish view of other religions All religions must pass the test of whether they are compliant with a Jewish view of religions as being free from the worship of another God With the advance in interfaith relations positions have been affirmed that clear most major contemporary religions from the charge of idolatry What remains of idolatry once it no longer serves as a tool for evaluating other faiths Does the category continue to have theological appeal What are its internal uses A cadre of Jewish scholars and thought leaders explore in this volume what the continuing relevance of idolatry is and how it might continue to inform our religious horizons allowing us to distinguish between good and bad religion both within Judaism and beyond
