All-Embracing Manufacturing Gideon Halevi,2012-03-22 All embracing manufacturing is a system that aims to dissolve the complexity of the manufacturing process and restore the inherent simplicity It claims that production is very simple and flexible by nature However the complexity is a result of the production system approach which makes it rigid and therefore complex All embracing manufacturing introduces flexibility to production planning it eliminates constraints bottlenecks and disruptions automatically while it restores the simplicity No decision is made ahead of time but only at the time of execution It introduces technology as dominant part of manufacturing It is a computer oriented system that imitates human behavior i e practically as any of us behave in daily personal life The Six Day Horror Movie Michael P. DiPaolo,2004-11-18 When someone offered Michael DiPaolo 5 000 to help make a Digital Video horror film he jumped at the chance to test a theory an ultra low budget feature shot in less than a week with a paid cast and crew could be successful if meticulously planned Using one computer and one camcorder he produced and edited Daddy which had its theatrical premier in New York City in 2004 This book breaks down the production through a detailed daily diary emphasizing that the most important aspects of successful producing are careful planning and camaraderie in the group The work covers many points important for the low budget filmmaker including selecting a story budgeting scheduling picking cast and crew scouting locations finding wardrobe food and transportation and what to do if you run out of time or money Postproduction is also covered editing computer work and sound design as is the result of all this hard work screenings festivals and distributors One chapter covers the primacy of cinematic point of view and another profiles some role models for the aspiring low budget filmmaker Edgar Ulmer Val Lewton Roger Corman John Cassavetes Ed Wood Jr and Jean Luc Godard Later chapters explain strategy and tactics of guerrilla filmmaking and show the budding filmmaker how to recognize both his limitations and his strengths
