Regna Darnell, Frederic W. Gleach, 2014-11-01 Volume 8 of the Histories of Anthropology Annual series the premier series published in the history of the discipline explores national anthropological traditions in Britain the United States and Europe and follows them into postnational contexts Contributors reassess the major theorists in twentieth century anthropology including the work of luminaries such as Franz Boas Claude Lévi Strauss Bronisław Malinowski A. R. Radcliffe-Brown and Marshall Sahlins as well as lesser known but important anthropological work by Berthold Laufer A. M. Hocart Kenelm O. L. Burridge and Robin Ridington among others These essays examine myriad themes such as the pedagogical context of the anthropologist as a teller of stories about indigenous storytellers the colonial context of British anthropological theory and its projects outside the nation state the legacies of Claude Lévi Strauss's structuralism regarding culture specific patterns cognitive universals reflected in empirical examples of kinship myth language classificatory systems and supposed universal mental structures and the career of Marshall Sahlins and his trajectory from neo evolutionism and structuralism toward an epistemological skepticism of cross cultural miscommunication The Correspondence of Ezra Pound and the Frobenius

Institute, 1930-1959 Ezra Pound, 2024-02-22 Collecting in full for the first time the correspondence between Ezra Pound and members of Leo Frobenius Forschungsinstitut für Kulturmorphologie in Frankfurt across a 30 year period this book sheds new light on an important but previously unexplored influence on Pound's controversial intellectual development in the Fascist era Ezra Pound's long term interest in anthropology and ethnography exerted a profound influence on early 20th century literary Modernism These letters reveal the extent of the influence of Frobenius concept of Paideuma on Pound's poetic and political writings during this period and his growing engagement with the culture of Nazi Germany Annotated throughout the letters are supported by contextualising essays by leading Modernist scholars as well as relevant contemporary published articles by Pound himself and his leading correspondent at the Institute the American Douglas C Fox

Doing Anthropology in Wartime and War Zones Reinhard Johler, Christian Marchetti, Monique Scheer, 2014-04-09 World War I marks a well known turning point in anthropology and this volume is the first to examine the variety of forms it took in Europe Distinct national traditions emerged and institutes were founded partly due to collaborations with the military Researchers in the cultural sciences used war zones to gain access to informants prisoner of war and refugee camps occupied territories even the front lines Anthropologists tailored their inquiries to aid the war effort contributed to interpretations of the war as a struggle between races and assessed the warlike nature of the Balkan region whose crises were key to the outbreak of the Great War Ibss: Anthropology: 2003 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science, 2004-12 First published in 1952 the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences anthropology economics political science and sociology is well established as a major bibliographic reference for students researchers and librarians in the social sciences worldwide Key features Authority Rigorous standards are applied to make the IBSS the most authoritative selective bibliography ever produced Articles and books are selected on merit by some of the world's most expert librarians and academics Breadth today the IBSS covers over 2000 journals more than any other comparable resource The latest monograph publications are also included International Coverage the IBSS reviews scholarship published in over 30 languages including publications from Eastern Europe and the developing world User friendly organization all non English titles are word sections Extensive author subject and place name indexes are provided in both English and French Cold War Anthropology David H. Price, 2016-03-26 David H Price uses information from CIA FBI and military records to map the connections between academia and the strategic use of anthropological research to further the goals of the U S military and outline the major influence the American security state has had on the field of anthropology Out of the Study and Into the Field Robert Parkin, Anne de Sales, 2010-06-01 Outside France French anthropology is conventionally seen as being dominated by grand theory produced by writers who have done little or no fieldwork themselves and who may not even count as anthropologists in terms of the institutional structures of French academia This applies to figures from Durkheim to Derrida Mauss to Foucault though there are partial exceptions such as Lévi Strauss and Bourdieu It has led to a contrast being made especially perhaps in the Anglo Saxon world between French theory relying on rational inference and British empiricism based on induction and generally skeptical of theory While there are contrasts between the two traditions this is essentially a false view It is this aspect of French anthropology that this collection addresses in the belief that the neglect of many of these figures outside France is seriously distorting our view of the French tradition of anthropology overall At the same time the collection will provide a positive view of the French tradition of ethnography stressing its combination of technical competence and the sympathies of its practitioners for its various ethnographic subjects

Nation-Building in Indian Anthropology Abhijit Guha, 2022-10-06

Researches on the history of anthropological studies in India unlike in western countries has not yet been an established tradition despite the fact that courses on the growth and development of anthropology in India are being taught at the graduate and postgraduate levels in the Indian universities and are strongly recommended by the University Grants Commission Indian anthropologists however in the early decades after the independence made inspiring and solid research contributions on the major problems encountered by the new nation which has been described and analysed in detail in this book These problems include rehabilitation of refugees after the 1947 Partition and displacement of people from their homes and land caused by the big dams industrialization and famines This book result of years of painstaking research by the author critically reviews the existing works and their gaps in the history of Indian anthropology and makes a new and valuable addition in the field of the history of academic disciplines in the context of nation building It should be read not only as a text by the students of anthropology and sociology but also as a reference work for researchers interested in the history of social sciences and development studies in India
