Born in a small English town, his early hopes were to become an engineer, not a comedian. But fate had other ideas. Rowan learned at Oxford how much fun it is to make people laugh, which led him from college stages to world fame. His work with Richard Curtis produced famous works like Not the Nine of the Clock, News, which earned him praise from critics. But it was through Mr Bean that everyone really fell in love with Rowan. He made a character that people of all ages and countries love because he was so good at physical comedy. Rowan was good at dramatic and exciting parts like in Four Weddings and a Funeral and Johnny English, but not so good at comedies. Off screen, he is a humble philanthropist who enjoys vehicles and quality time with his family. Rowan left behind a legacy of happiness and motivation that encourages dreamers to follow their hearts.
