Fisher's Colonial Magazine and Commercial-maritime Journal ,1840 The British Empire Mark Doyle,2018-06-29 An essential starting point for anyone wanting to learn about life in the largest empire in history this two volume work encapsulates the imperial experience from the 16th 21st centuries From early sixteenth century explorations to the handover of Hong Kong in 1997 the British Empire controlled outposts on every continent spreading its people and ideas across the globe and profiting mightily in the process The present state of our world from its increasing interconnectedness to its vast inequalities and from the successful democracies of North America to the troubled regimes of Africa and the Middle East can be traced in large part to the way in which Great Britain expanded and controlled its empire The British Empire A Historical Encyclopedia addresses a broader range of topics than do most other surveys of the empire covering not only major political and military developments but also topics that have only recently come to serious scholarly attention such as women s and gender history art and architecture indigenous histories and perspectives and the construction of colonial knowledge and ideologies By going beyond the headline events of the British Empire this captivating work communicates the British imperial experience in its totality Encyclopedia of African American History Leslie M. Alexander,Walter C. Rucker,2010-02-09 A fresh compilation of essays and entries based on the latest research this work documents African American culture and political activism from the slavery era through the 20th century Encyclopedia of African American History introduces readers to the significant people events sociopolitical movements and ideas that have shaped African American life from earliest contact between African peoples and Europeans through the late 20th century This encyclopedia places the African American experience in the context of the entire African diaspora with entries organized in sections on African European contact and enslavement culture resistance and identity during enslavement political activism from the Revolutionary War to Southern emancipation political activism from Reconstruction to the modern Civil Rights movement black nationalism and urbanization and Pan Africanism and contemporary black America Based on the latest scholarship and engagingly written there is no better go to reference for exploring the history of African Americans and their distinctive impact on American society politics business literature art food clothing music language and technology Freedom's Debt William A. Pettigrew,2013-12-30 In the years following the Glorious Revolution independent slave traders challenged the charter of the Royal African Company by asserting their natural rights as Britons to trade freely in enslaved Africans In this comprehensive history of the rise and fall of the RAC William A Pettigrew grounds the transatlantic slave trade in politics not economic forces analyzing the ideological arguments of the RAC and its opponents in Parliament and in public debate Ultimately Pettigrew powerfully reasons that freedom became the rallying cry for those who wished to participate in the slave trade and therefore bolstered the expansion of the largest intercontinental forced migration in history Unlike previous histories of the RAC Pettigrew s study pursues the Company s story beyond the trade s complete deregulation in 1712 to its demise in 1752 Opening the trade

led to its escalation which provided a reliable supply of enslaved Africans to the mainland American colonies thus playing a critical part in entrenching African slavery as the colonies preferred solution to the American problem of labor supply

The Colonial Magazine and Commercial-maritime Journal ,1840 Colonial Magazine and Commercial-maritime Journal ,1840 The African Correspondence of Sir Joseph Banks, 1767-1820 Neil Chambers,2024-06-21 This edition brings together in three fully edited volumes the correspondence and associated papers of Sir Joseph Banks regarding European and especially British exploration of Africa from 1767 1820 for the first time publishing this globally scattered material in one place thereby revolutionizing its availability and understanding of the activities of a key figure who helped organize and publish a series of missions to penetrate the African interior mainly from West Africa and by crossing the Sahara from Cairo and Tripoli Banks was a founder in 1788 of the African Association which mounted many of these missions including those of Mungo Park to explore the River Niger and J L Burkhardt exploring Syria Arabia and Egypt At the time little was known about the African interior its peoples kingdoms and resources and the aim of the African Association under Banks was to discover what lay there to make contact with and study its societies to map them and their lands and help establish trading links Banks also maintained a lively correspondence with British diplomatic representatives in North Africa such as James Mario Matra at Tangier and Henry Salt in Cairo who were a rich source of news Moreover as unofficial director of the royal gardens at Kew he sent pioneering plant collectors to gather plants in South Africa vastly boosting knowledge of this region s important flora At home he corresponded with politicians government officials entrepreneurs navigators naturalists and campaigners like William Wilberforce about a great range of issues surrounding Africa This work is multi disciplinary and will stand alongside existing series of Banks s correspondence published by Neil Chambers Scientific Correspondence 2007 Indian and Pacific Correspondence 2007 14 It will appeal to scholars of African history in the Early Modern Period to those studying exploration and collecting as well as those interested in natural history the history of science geography cartography and the Enlightenment An Introduction detailed Calendar of Correspondents Timelines for each volume and a comprehensive Index supplement the footnotes to nearly 800 documents included in this fascinating and comprehensive new series Royal African Society Royal African Society,1962* United Service Magazine and Naval Military Journal ,1840 Captivity's Collections Kathleen S. Murphy,2023-10-12 Cashews from Africa s Gold Coast butterflies from Sierra Leone jalap root from Veracruz shells from Jamaica in the eighteenth century these specimens from faraway corners of the Atlantic were tucked away onboard inhumane British slaving vessels Kathleen S Murphy argues that the era s explosion of new natural knowledge was deeply connected to the circulation of individuals objects and ideas through the networks of the British transatlantic slave trade Plants seeds preserved animals and insects and other specimens were gathered by British slave ship surgeons mariners and traders at slaving factories in West Africa in ports where captive Africans disembarked and near the British South Sea Company s trading factories in Spanish America The specimens were displayed in British museums and herbaria depicted in published natural histories and discussed in the halls of scientific societies Grounded in extensive archival research on both sides of the Atlantic Captivity's Collections mines scientific treatises slaving companies records naturalists correspondence and museum catalogs to recover in rich detail the scope of the slave trade's collecting operations The book reveals the scientific and natural historical profit derived from these activities and the crucial role of specimens gathered along the routes of the slave trade on emerging ideas in natural history
