Rubens And Rembrandt In Their Century:

Rubens and Rembrandt in Their Century, 1979 Pierpont Morgan Library, Felice Stampfle, 1979 Rubens and Rembrandt in Their Century, 1979 Rubens and Rembrandt in Their Century Felice Stampfle, 1979 Art Market and Connoisseurship Anna Tummers, Koenraad Jonckheere, 2008 The question of whether seventeenth century painters such as Rembrandt and Rubens were exclusively responsible for the paintings later sold under their names has caused many a heated debate Despite the rise of scholarship on the history of the art market much is still unknown about the ways in which paintings were produced assessed priced and marketed during this period which leads to several provocative questions did contemporary connoisseurs expect masters such as Rembrandt to paint works entirely by their own hand Who was credited with the ability to assess paintings as genuine The contributors to this engaging collection Eric Jan Sluiter Hans Van Miegroet and Neil De Marchi among them trace these issues through the booming art market of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries arriving at fascinating and occasionally unexpected conclusions

Rembrandt and the Inspiration of India Stephanie Schrader, 2018-03-20 This sumptuously illustrated volume examines the impact of Indian art and culture on Rembrandt 1606-1669 in the late 1650s By pairing Rembrandt's twenty-two extant drawings of Shah Jahan Jahangir Dara Shikoh and other Mughal courtiers with Mughal paintings of similar compositions the book critiques the prevailing notion that Rembrandt brought life to the static Mughal art Written by scholars of both Dutch and Indian art the essays in this volume instead demonstrate how Rembrandt's contact with Mughal painting inspired him to draw in an entirely new refined style on Asian paper an approach that was shaped by the Dutch trade in Asia and prompted by the curiosity of a foreign culture Seen in this light Rembrandt's engagement with India enriches our understanding of collecting in seventeenth century Amsterdam the Dutch global economy and Rembrandt's artistic self-fashioning A close examination of the Mughal imperial workshop provides new insights into how Indian paintings came to Europe as well as how Dutch prints were incorporated into Mughal compositions

Drawings from the Age of Bruegel, Rubens, and Rembrandt William W. Robinson, 2016-08-02 This superb book presents 100 notable examples from the Harvard Art Museums distinguished collection of Dutch Flemish and Netherlandish drawings from the 16th to 18th century Featuring such masters as Pieter Bruegel the Elder Peter Paul Rubens and Rembrandt van Rijn the volume showcases beautiful color illustrations accompanied by insightful commentary on prevalent styles and techniques Genres that define this artistic period landscape scenes of everyday life portraiture and still life are explored in detail The book also presents the results of new conservation and technical study including infrared analysis and scientific examinations of drawing materials This revelatory new research has allowed previously illegible underdrawings and inscriptions in many of the artworks to surface for the first time shedding light on longstanding mysteries of production and provenance

Century Pierpont Morgan Library (N.Y.), Felice Stampfle, 1979 Art Market and Connoisseurship Anna Tummers, Koenraad Jonckheere, 2025-10-01 The question whether or not seventeenth century painters such as Rembrandt and Rubens created the paintings which were later sold under their names has caused many a heated debate Much is still unknown about the ways in which paintings were produced assessed priced and marketed For example did contemporary connoisseurs expect masters such as Rembrandt to paint their works entirely by their own hand Who was credited with the ability to assess paintings How did a painting's price relate to its quality And how did connoisseurship change as the art market became increasingly complex The contributors to this essential volume trace the evolution of connoisseurship in the booming art market of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Among them are the renowned Golden Age scholars Eric Jan Sluijter Hans Van Miegroet and Neil De Marchi It is not to be missed by anyone with an interest in the Old Masters and the early modern art market
