Moore, William John Mitchell, William Turnbull (Jr.), 1988 This is an entirely different garden book a pattern book in which a score of landscapes and gardens are drawn described and analyzed not just as a bouquet of pleasures but as sources lodes to be mined for materials shapes and relationships and ideas for transforming our own backyards There is a universality about the creation of gardens across time and in diverse cultures that has inspired this entirely different garden book a playful and affectionate typology of gardens a pattern book in which a score of landscapes and gardens are drawn described and analyzed not just as a bouquet of pleasures but as sources lodes to be mined for materials shapes and relationships and ideas for transforming our own backyards The Poetics of Gardens is a celebration of places and the gardens they can become Most of the 500 sketches axonometric drawings and photographs were created especially for this book They explore the special qualities of places and the acts that can transform them into gardens The authors discuss the qualities that create the promise of a garden the shapes of land and water the established plants the light and wind the climate and show how these can be organized to give a place a special meaning And they pay particular attention to the rituals of habitation by which we imaginatively take possession of places on the surface of the earth The Poetics of Gardens examines great gardens made in other places with other climates at other times from ancient Rome to modern England from Ball to Botany Bay from the court of Chien Lung to the magic kingdom of Walt Disney to explore their devices and record their images scents and sounds The authors discuss the adaptation of the great garden traditions of the past to North American soil and call together the creators of these gardens to speculate about how their patterns and ideas can be appropriated transformed and composed into places that come alive for us The J. Paul Getty

Museum J. Paul Getty Museum,2007 This revised and updated J Paul Getty Museum Handbook of the Collections includes many major objects that recently have been added to the collections as well as the more familiar masterpieces frequent visitors have become acquainted with over the years from the antiquities drawings manuscripts paintings photographs and sculpture and decorative arts holdings Among the notable new accessions is a major collection of modern and contemporary sculpture a 2005 gift from the Fran and Ray Stark Trust Moreover the new edition of the Handbook marks the historic moment at which the Museum commences operating on two sites simultaneously the dazzling Getty Center on a hilltop in Brentwood and the magnificently reimagined Getty Villa in Malibu devoted to Western antiquities Readers who have not been among the millions of visitors to the two sites will find this Handbook an inducement for paying a visit for those who have seen the collections it will help them recall the experience and enrich their recollection Garden at Monceau

Carmontelle,2020-12-08 Carmontelle s landmark publication Garden at Monceau beautifully reproduced to show the Parisian garden s artistic and cultural importance before the French Revolution Originally published in 1779 Garden at Monceau is a richly illustrated presentation of the garden Louis Carrogis known as Carmontelle designed on the eve of the French Revolution for Louis Philippe Joseph d Orlans duc de Chartres With its array of architectural follies intended to surprise and amaze the visitor the garden was a setting for ancien regime social life Carmontelle s portrayal of his work in Garden at Monceau therefore serves as an expression of a key moment in the history of European landscape design garden architecture and social history This facsimile edition with its English language text and reproductions of the original engravings is accompanied by essays that interpret the landscape design and examine Carmontelle s larger career as a painter and theater producer Directory of General Merchandise/variety & Specialty Stores ,1994 California 2008 Michael
