Dydo,William Rice,2008-12-19 The definitive book on Gertrude Stein The Mind of the Novel Bruce F. Kavin,2006 From Moby Dick to The Unnamable from A Tale of a Tub to The Book of Questions Bruce Kavin explores the nature of self conscious fiction and compares its structure to that of human consciousness Focusing on texts that confront their own limits by trying to name the unnamable the ineffable self Kavin draws on methods from literary criticism to systems theory to explain a variety of first person works that dance around the ungraspable subject Opera Production II Quaintance Eaton,2009-06 Opera Production II was first published in 1974 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions For the world of opera this is an indispensable basic reference work which provides essential information about more than 350 operas Producers singers directors students orchestras and audiences will find useful concise information in this handbook a sequel to the author s earlier book Opera Production I A Handbook which contains similar information about more than 500 other operas While the first volume concentrates on more familiar operas this book is devoted principally to lesser known works both old and new including many as yet unperformed contemporary operas The details given about each opera are those needed to assess the production requirements for a given work the number and importance of settings size of orchestra chorus and ballet number of singers their relative importance and individual requirements vocal and acting demands of performers including vocal ranges in most cases plot synopsis and brief historical material to anchor the reader in the necessary knowledge of the period and source of the libretto The information is compressed into capsule form so that anyone using the book can tell at a glance the suitability of a work to the particular facilities talents or tastes of an opera company or its public In addition to the reference material there is a chapter Production Problems in Handel's Opera by Randolph Mickelson a helpful feature since nine of Handel's operas are included and they are apt to pose special production problems

Narratives of Nostalgia, Gender, and Nationalism Jean Pickering, Suzanne Kehde, 1996 Most Americans think of Betsy Ross as she was depicted in Charles Weisberger's popular painting The Birth of Our Nation's Flag a motherly figure sewing at the hearth In fact as Jo Ann Menezes's analysis in Nostalgia Gender and Nationalism points out Ross was a widowed businesswoman who ran an upholstery shop out of her house In Weisberger's painting all signs of economic industry are erased and Ross's house is transformed into a home rather than the site of cottage industry Ross is constructed as the perfect heroic mother worthy of sacred creation thus our flag was born Ross's transformation into an icon neatly illustrates the conjunction of soaring nationalism and the establishment of woman as a fixed domestic presence and serves as an excellent example of the master narratives revealed in Nostalgia Gender and Nationalism The essays in this provocative anthology explore the connections between nation and gender and the ways in which nostalgia functions to bind these two presumably unrelated constructions together Collectively they suggest that women pay a special fee on behalf of the nation even though it is traditionally represented as an honorarium given to them and that in fact the nation state takes as a foundational principle the subordination of women

Gertrude Stein's Theatre Mary Irwin Bainum, 1981

A Concise Companion to Postwar American Literature and Culture Josephine Hendin, 2008-04-15 This Concise Companion is a guide to the creative output of the United States in the postwar period in its diverse energies shapes and forms Embraces diversity covering Vietnam literature gay and lesbian literature American Jewish fiction Italian American literature Irish American writing emergent ethnic literatures African American writing jazz film drama and more Shows how different genres and approaches opened up creative possibilities and interacted in the postwar period Portrays the postwar United States split by differences of wealth and position by ethnicity and race and by agendas of left and right but united in the intensity of its creative drive

Narratives of Nostalgia, Gender and Nationalism Suzanne Kehde, Jean Pickering, 1996-12-20 Using texts ranging from the writings of Schlegel to the speeches of the fiftieth anniversary commemoration of D Day these essays explore the ways in which nostalgia brokers the relations between the master narratives of gender and the master narratives of nationalism Although such narratives seem to present nation as an unchanging essence these essays all deal with texts that on analysis show nationalism in an evolving response to developments both political and cultural that destabilize the idea of nation

The Routledge Companion to Performance Practitioners Franc Chamberlain, Bernadette Sweeney, 2020-08-16 The Routledge Companion to Performance Practitioners collects the outstanding biographical and production overviews of key theatre practitioners first featured in the popular Routledge Performance Practitioners series of guidebooks Each of the chapters is written by an expert on a particular figure from Stanislavsky and Brecht to Laban and Decroux and places their work in its social and historical context Summaries and analyses of their key productions indicate how each practitioner's theoretical approaches to performance and the performer were manifested in practice All 22 practitioners from the original series are represented with this volume covering those born after 1915 This is the definitive first step for students scholars and practitioners hoping to acquaint themselves with the leading names in performance or deepen their knowledge of these seminal figures

The Routledge Companion to Studio Performance Practice Franc Chamberlain, Bernadette Sweeney, 2021-11-29 The Routledge Companion to Studio Performance Practice is a unique indispensable guide to the training methods of the world's key theatre practitioners Compiling the practical work outlined in the popular Routledge Performance Practitioners series of guidebooks each set of exercises has been edited and contextualised by an expert in that particular approach Each chapter provides a taster of one practitioner's work answering the same key questions How did this artist work How can I begin to put my understanding of this to practical use Newly written chapter introductions put the exercises in context explaining how they fit into the wider methods and philosophy of the practitioner in question All 21 volumes in the original series are represented in this volume

Stories Doris Lessing, 2010-02-10 This major collection contains all of Doris Lessing's short fiction other than the stories set in Africa from the beginning of her career until now Set in London Paris the south of France the English countryside these thirty five stories reflect the themes that have always characterized Lessing's work the bedrock realities of marriage and other relationships between men and women the crisis of the individual whose very psyche is threatened by a society unattuned to its own most dangerous qualities the fate of women

Mama Dada Sarah Bay-Cheng, 2004-06-01 Mama Dada is the first book to examine Gertrude Stein's drama within the history of the theatrical and cinematic avant gardes Since the publication of Stein's major writings by the Library of America in 1998 interest in her dramatic writing has escalated particularly in American avant garde theaters This book addresses the growing interest in Stein's theater by offering the first detailed analyses of her major plays and by considering them within a larger history of avant garde performance In addition to comparing Stein's plays and theories to those generated by Dadaists Surrealists and Futurists this study further explores the uniqueness of Stein via these theatrical movements including discussions of her interest in American life and drama which argues that a significant and heretofore unrecognized relationship exists among the histories of avant garde drama cinema and homosexuality By examining and explaining the relationship among these three histories the dramatic writings of Stein can best be understood not only as examples of literary modernism but also as influential dramatic works that have had a lasting effect on the American theatrical avant

Embracing the Song of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Selected Operas Plays Of Gertrude Stein
