Revelation Rob Dalrymple,2024-06-27 Could the cry Come out of her My people Rev 18 4 not be needed more today than it was when John penned the Apocalypse The book of Revelation begins and ends with the affirmation that God is the world s true Lord not Caesar In telling this story John lays out for us the fact that Christ s kingdom is not like the kingdoms of the world The kingdoms of the world rule by force and at the expense of the masses and for the benefit of those in power Jesus s kingdom however comes through love In Christ s kingdom power is demonstrated by laying down one s life for one s enemies Jesus of course demonstrated this kind of love on the cross and he calls us to do the same

We have nothing to fear After all Jesus was dead and now he is alive and he has the keys to Death and Hades Unfortunately many interpreters have come to believe that the devastation and destruction depicted in the book of Revelation in particular in the accounts of the Seven Seals and the Seven Bowls are God's end times wrath But have we ever stopped to consider that this portrait of God is fundamentally at odds with the gospel And with Jesus's call for us to love one another even as he loved us The book of Revelation tells a different story "The" posthumous works of Robert Hooke containing his Cutlerian lectures and other discourses, read at the meetings of the illustrious Royal Society Robert Hooke,1705

Revisions of the Night Diana Lipton,1999-04-01 An intriguing and subtle study of five Genesis dreams Abimelech s 20 18 Jacob s 28 10 22 31 10 13 Laban s 31 24 and Abraham s 15 1 21 Like many of their ancient Near Eastern counterparts all occur at times of uncertainty concern status and emphasize divine involvement in human affairs At a deeper level they also address doubts arising from God s promise of land descendants and a unique role for Israel among the nations Their particular treatment of relations between Israelites and non Israelites and of Israel s absence from the land points to the Babylonian Exile as the background against which the patriarchal dream texts achieved their present form Revisions of the Night shows how dreams combine the highly personal with the ardently political in an inspired response to national crisis

Shared Stories, Rival Tellings Robert C. Gregg,2015 Provides an extensive yet accessible guide to many ancient texts Includes artwork as well as historical writings to illuminate religious interpreters genius and impact Explores the historical contexts of the divides between Jews Christians and Muslims

Christ Jesus, the True Israel Brent E. Parker,2024-01-11 What is the relationship between the nation of Israel Jesus Christ and the church Pastors and theologians come to significantly different conclusions The reigning systems of evangelical theology covenant theology and dispensationalism answer this question by stressing the continuity of the Israel church relationship covenant theology or emphasizing discontinuity dispensationalism In more recent times progressive covenantalism has emerged as a via media between these two theological approaches by providing a different proposal for unpacking the biblical covenants and by highlighting that to rightly understand the people of God in biblical theology the person of Jesus Christ must be the focal point In Christ Jesus the True Israel Brent E Parker presents the case for the importance of typology in this debate arguing that national Israel is a type not unlike other Old Testament types e g the sacrificial system the temple etc that reaches its antitypical fulfillment in Jesus Christ Moreover the Israel church relationship is also typological but only through Christ Parker demonstrates that the progressive covenantal approach is a viable system of theology that seeks to preserve what the whole Bible says regarding the people of God from Israel to Christ and from Christ to the church Gaia's Gift Anne Primavesi, 2004-03-01 Gaia's Gift the second of Anne Primavesi's explorations of human relationships with the earth asks that we complete the ideological revolution set in motion by Copernicus and Darwin concerning human importance. They challenged the notion of our God given centrality within the universe and within earth's evolutionary history. Yet as our continuing exploitation of earth's resources and species demonstrates we remain wedded to the theological assumption that these are there for our sole use and benefit. Now James Lovelock's scientific understanding of the existential reality of Gaia's gift of life again raises the question of our proper place within the universe. It turns us decisively towards an understanding of ourselves as dependent on rather than in control of the whole earth community The Great Conversation Belden C. Lane, 2019-05-01 We are surrounded by a world that talks but we don't listen. We are part of a community engaged in a vast conversation but we deny our role in it. In the face of climate change, species loss and vast environmental destruction the ability to stand in the flow of the great conversation of all creatures and the earth can feel utterly lost to the human race. But Belden C. Lane suggests that it can and must be recovered not only for the sake of endangered species and the well being of at risk communities but for the survival of the world itself. The Great Conversation is Lane's multi-faceted treatise on a spiritually centered environmentalism. At the core is a belief in the power of the natural world to act as teacher. In a series of personal anecdotes Lane pairs his own experiences in the wild with the writings of saints and sages from a wide range of religious traditions. A night in a Missourian cave brings to mind the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius of Loyola, the canyons of southern Utah elicit a response from the Chinese philosopher Laozi, 500,000 migrating sandhill cranes rest in Nebraska and evoke the Sufi poet Farid ud Din Attar. With each chapter the humility of spiritual masters through the ages melds with the author's encounters with natural teachers to offer guidance for entering once more into a conversation with the world.
