Poetry and Its Others

Jahan Ramazani,2013-11-05 What is poetry Often it is understood as a largely self enclosed verbal system suspended from any mutual interaction with alien discourse in the words of Mikhail Bakhtin But in Poetry and Its Others Jahan Ramazani reveals modern and contemporary poetry s animated dialogue with other genres and discourses Poetry generates rich new possibilities he argues by absorbing and contending with its near verbal relatives Exploring poetry s vibrant exchanges with other forms of writing Ramazani shows how poetry assimilates features of prose fiction but differentiates itself from novelistic realism metabolizes aspects of theory and philosophy but refuses their abstract procedures and recognizes itself in the verbal precision of the law even as it separates itself from the law s rationalism But poetry s most frequent interlocutors he demonstrates are news prayer and song Poets such as William Carlos Williams and W H Auden refashioned poetry to absorb the news while expanding its contexts T S Eliot and Charles Wright drew on the intimacy of prayer though resisting its limits and Paul Muldoon Rae Armantrout and Patience Agbabi have played with and against song lyrics and techniques Encompassing a cultural and stylistic range of writing unsurpassed by other studies of poetry Poetry and Its Others shows that we understand what poetry is by examining its interplay with what it is not Comic Relief Kathleen Marie

Nagasubramani, Adult learners have more options for enrolling in postsecondary education than ever before and they are able to use their learning style preference in deciding which program best meets their needs For some of these students those programs are fully online and for others there is minimal use of technology As technology grows and become more integrated into individual lives the unique learning styles and preferences of adults need to learn to be incorporated into instructional design Drawing on a regional sample of US colleges 545 adult learners in a graduate programs were surveyed about how to effectively build community in their online classes Results indicated some agreement with these instructional tools Mature adult learners however were found to have stronger agreement with strategies that included work outside of the formal online class These
