Nurturing Reflective Christians To Teach:

Nurturing Reflective Christians to Teach Daniel C. Elliott, 1995 In the Spring of 1994 teacher educators from representative institutions within the Christian College Coalition met to consider the question Just what is it that Christian colleges of education should do in preparing teachers for the nation s schools This well constructed volume begins to answer that question

Toward a Theology of Special Education David W. Anderson, 2012-10-31 Professor mentor author disability advocate seminar leader around the world Dr David Anderson corralled his many talents and worldwide experiences to author this important book The volume should prove invaluable to Christians concerned about disabilities especially teachers Without flinching Dr Anderson tackles the tough issues How could a good and benevolent God permit disabled children Are disabilities the result of sin How does a Christian teacher of the disabled differ from secular counterparts Especially helpful is his emphasis on the reflective teacher integrating faith and learning Certainly this is a volume that belongs on the bookshelves of anyone concerned with disabilities Steven A Kaatz PhD Graduate Programs in Special Education Bethel University St Paul Minnesota I have had the privilege of traveling with Dr Anderson as he has taught the concepts addressed in this book to educators pastors and parents in a variety of countries Ive seen the material come alive as leaders discover the importance of thinking Christianly about disability This book has the potential of impacting all readers in similar ways Dr Anderson challenges all of us to come to grips with a biblical worldview and then to live it out within our spheres of influence Toward a Theology of Special Education thus encourages all readers to think Christianly about disability Such thinking will then motivate us to care with Gods care and to serve with Gods concern for justice and compassion Dr Richard Schoenert pastor emeritus Calvary Church Roseville Minnesota
