Revitalizing Antitrust In Its Second Century:

Revitalizing Antitrust in Its Second Century Harry First, Eleanor M. Fox, Robert Pitofsky, 1991-10-23 America has entered its second century of antitrust law The United States has come through the 1980s of laissez faire when antitrust had its lowest profile since the Hoover days lawyers advised clients that anything goes and theorists justified non enforcement of the law by Chicago School economics the claim that antitrust exists only to create efficiency and that business freedom creates efficiency Meanwhile the European Community has a developing body of antitrust law It rejects the Chicago School as ignoring market realities and it incorporates into its law values of opportunity access open markets and the right to be free from exploitation The newly democratized European nations and Russia all have moved to market economies and adopted antitrust law in the image of the European Community in spite of the carpet baggers trying to sell laissez faire The Supreme Court of the United States has now reversed the swing of the U S antitrust pendulum rejecting Chicago School theory in favor of market reality and accepting the fact that there is an antitrust right not to be coerced and abused by market power What is the intellectual foundation of this new antitrust this law that respects efficiency progressiveness access and freedom from abuse of power and which reflects the need of business firms to be active and agile players in a global marketplace That foundation is contained in Revitalizing Antitrust in its Second Century This is the only book that provides the underpinnings for the new antitrust It is the only book that helps the scholar lawyer business advisor student understand the direction of antitrust and how to predict the course of the law Four of the authors in the book were cited by the Supreme Court in its June opinion one was cited eleven times Revitalizing Antitrust in its Second Century is an indispensable volume for lawyers economists business advisors scholars and students of law economics business and political economy Antitrust Law Journal ,1986 How the Chicago School Overshot the Mark Robert Pitofsky, 2008 The essays collected in this book concern the rise and recent fall of American antitrust Of the 15 essays almost all express a deep concern that conservative economic analysis is leading judges and enforcement officials toward an approach that will ultimately harm consumer welfare Antitrust and Global Capitalism, 1930-2004 Tony A. Freyer, 2006-10-09 The international spread of antitrust suggested the historical process shaping global capitalism By the 1930s Americans feared that big business exceeded the government's capacity to impose accountability engendering the most aggressive antitrust campaign in history Meanwhile big business had emerged to varying degrees in liberal Britain Australia and France Nazi Germany and militarist Japan These same nations nonetheless expressly rejected American style antitrust as unsuited to their cultures and institutions After World War II however governments in these nations as well as the European Community adopted workable antitrust regimes By the millennium antitrust was instrumental to the clash between state sovereignty and globalization What ideological and institutional factors explain the global change from opposing to supporting antitrust Addressing this question this book throws new light on the struggle over liberal capitalism during the Great Depression and

World War II the postwar Allied occupations of Japan and Germany the reaction against American big business hegemony during the Cold War and the clash over globalization and the WTO International Antitrust Law & Policy: Fordham Corporate Law 1998 Barry Hawk, 1998-06-01 Every October the Fordham Corporate Law Institute brings together leading figures from governmental organizations leading international law firms and corporations and academia to examine and analyze the most important issues in international antitrust and trade policy of the United States the EU and the world This work is the most definitive and comprehensive annual analysis of international antitrust law and policy available anywhere Each annual edition sets out to explore and analyze the areas of antitrust competition law that have had the most impact in that year Recent hot topics include antitrust enforcement in Asia Latin America competition enforcement in the areas of telecommunications media and information technology None of the chapters are merely descriptive all raise questions of policy or discuss new developments and assess their significance and impact on antitrust and trade policy All chapters if necessary are revised and updated before publication As a result the reader receives up to date practical tips and important analyses of difficult policy issues The Annuals are an indispensable guide through the sea of international antitrust law The Fordham Corporate Law Proceedings are acknowledged as simply the most definitive US EC annual analyses of antitrust competition law published Competition Policy in the Global Trading System: Perspectives from the Eu, Japan and the USA Mitsuo Matsushita, Clifford Jones, 2002-04-17 Based on a conference of national authorities and leading scholars in antitrust and competition law and policy the text presents 20 essays which together provide an in depth assessment of achievements and impasses as well as a variety of possible ways forward Global Competition Policy Edward Montgomery Graham, J. David Richardson, 1997 There is growing consensus among international trade negotiators and policymakers that a prime area for future multilateral discussion is competition policy Competition policy includes antitrust policy including merger regulation and control but is often extended to include international trade measures and other policies that affect the structure conduct and performance of individual industries This study includes country studies of competition policy in Western Europe North America and the Far East with a focus on Japan in the light of increasingly globalized activities of business firms Areas where there are major differences in philosophy policy or practice are identified with emphasis on those differences that could lead to economic costs and international friction Alternatives for eliminating these costs and frictions are discussed including unilateral policy changes bilateral or multilateral harmonization of policies and creation of new international regimes to supplement or replace national or regional regimes Antitrust , Hypercompetition Richard A. D'aveni, 2010-05-11 General Motors and IBM have been battered to their cores Jack Welch the chairman of General Electric called the frenzied competition of the 1980 s a white knuckle decade and said the 1990s would be worse In this pathbreaking book that will define this new age of hypercompetition Richard D Aveni reveals how competitive moves and countermoves escalate with such ferocity today that the traditional sources of competitive advantage can no longer be sustained To compete in this dynamic environment D Aveni argues that a company must fundamentally shift its strategic focus He constructs a brilliant operational model that shows how firms move up escalation ladders as advantage is continually created eroded destroyed and recreated through strategic maneuvering in four arenas of competition Using this Four Arena analysis D Aveni explains how competitors engage in a struggle for control by seeking leadership in the arenas of price and quality timing and know how stronghold creation invasion and deep pockets Winners set the pace in each of these four competitive battlegrounds Using hundreds of detailed examples from hypercompetitive industries such as computers software automobiles airlines pharmaceuticals toys and soft drinks D Aveni demonstrates how hypercompetitive firms succeed in dynamic markets by disrupting the status quo and creating a continuous series of temporary advantages They seize the initiative D Aveni explains by employing a set of strategies he calls the New 7 S s Superior Stakeholder Satisfaction Strategic Soothsaying Speed Surprise Shifting the Rules of Competition Signaling Strategic Intent and Simultaneous and Sequential Thrusts Paradoxically firms must destroy their competitive advantages to gain advantage D Aveni shows Long term success depends not on sustaining an advantage through a static long term strategy but instead on formulating a dynamic strategy for the creating destruction and recreation of short term advantages America must embrace the new reality of hypercompetition D Aveni concludes in a compelling analysis of the potential chilling effect of American antitrust laws on competitiveness This masterful book essentially an operating manual of strategy and tactics for a new era will be required reading for managers planners consultants academics and students of hypercompetitive industries
