The Living Church, 1999 Digital Overwhelm Craig E. Mattson, 2024-07-30 Why does doing your job feel so flooded and so pointless at the same time Nobody knows better than millennial and Gen Z professionals how rapid technological development has inundated post pandemic work Organizational researcher Craig Mattson listens to their stories and builds a framework for coping with digital overwhelm at work This book won't tell you to declutter your digital life or to end capitalism now But what you can do suggests Professor Mattson is change how you attend to zones where technological disruption meets emotional pressure Calling these zones modes of communication this book urges you to practice mode switching Addressed to millennial and Gen Z professionals Digital Overwhelm draws on biblical wisdom literature to offer a primer on organizational communication Each chapter is followed by a short Mode Switch Workshop addressing questions such as how to survive the Zoom room how to write an email that sounds like you how to get unstuck when tools break down and how to get people to do things so you can too Even technologically disrupted organizations are more navigable than they feel if you know how to switch up your modes of communication

For Life Abundant Dorothy C. Bass, Craig Dykstra, 2008-04-29 Bass and Dykstra have written extensively and collaboratively on Christian Practices arguing that the what Christians have done faithfully over time constitutes a life giving way of life and that this living of Christianity is more primary to what it means to be Christian than doctrinal confession that our confessions spring from faithful living rather than the other way around This book contains numerous essays that take up the question of Christian Practices and ministry the preparation of ministers theological education etc in a post Enlightenment understanding of the relationship of practice and head knowledge Because the book is the result of a community conversation it doesn't have a clear thesis but it models its conviction that reflection on theology arises from community conversation around our life in discipleship together An extremely helpful beginning to a conversation about ministry practices of faith clergy preparation etc as the time has come to integrate the kind of learning that comes in the classroom with the kind that only comes from living the faith with others Amazon.com Worth Doing W. Willimon, 2002 Examines the roles of the pastor Focuses on the pastor as preacher counselor teacher interpreter of scripture evangelist prophet leader and role model Scattered and Gathered Neil Hudson, 2019-06-20 How can the local church empower people to live faithfully and fruitfully for Christ in their Monday
