Shared Intimacies:

Shared Intimacies Lonnie Garfield Barbach, Linda Levine, 2000 Friendship James O. Grunebaum, 2012-02-01 In Friendship James O. Grunebaum introduces a new conceptual framework to articulate explain and understand similarities and differences between various conceptions of friendship Asking whether special preference for friends is morally justified Grunebaum answers that question by analyzing a comprehensive comparison of not only Aristotle's three well known kinds of friendship pleasure utility and virtue but also a variety of lesser known friendship conceptions from Kant C. S. Lewis and Montaigne The book clarifies differences about how friends ought to behave toward each other and how these differences are in part what separate the various conceptions of friendship

Boys Love Media in Thailand Thomas Baudinette, 2023-10-05 Over the past several years the Thai popular culture landscape has radically transformed due to the emergence of Boys Love BL soap operas which celebrate the love between handsome young men Boys Love Media in Thailand Celebrity Fans and Transnational Asian Queer Popular Culture is the first book length study of this increasingly significant transnational pop culture phenomenon Drawing upon six years of ethnographic research the book reveals BL's impacts on depictions of same sex desire in Thai media culture and the resultant mainstreaming of queer romance through new forms of celebrity and participatory fandom The author explores how the rise of BL has transformed contemporary Thai consumer culture leading to heterosexual female fans of male celebrities who perform homoeroticism becoming the main audience to whom Thai pop culture is geared Through the case study of BL this book thus also investigates how Thai media is responding to broader regional trends across Asia where the economic potentials of female and queer fans are becoming increasingly important Baudinette ultimately argues that the center of queer cultural production in Asia has shifted from Japan to Thailand investigating both the growing international fandom of Thailand's BL series as well as the influence of international investment into the development of these media The book particularly focuses on specific case studies of the fandom for Thai BL celebrity couples in Thailand China the Philippines and Japan to explore how BL series have transformed each of these national contexts queer consumer cultures

Weaveworld Clive Barker, Here is storytelling on a grand scale the stuff of which a classic is made Weaveworld begins with a rug a wondrous magnificent rug into which a world has been woven It is the world of the Seerkind a people more ancient than man who possesses raptures the power to make magic In the last century they were hunted down by an unspeakable horror known as the Scourge and threatened with annihilation they worked their strongest raptures to weave themselves and their culture into a rug for safekeeping Since then the rug has been guarded by human caretakers The last of the caretakers has just died Vying for possession of the rug is a spectrum of unforgettable characters Suzanna granddaughter of the last caretaker who feels the pull of the Weaveworld long before she knows the extent of her own powers Calhoun Mooney a pigeon raising clerk who finds the world he s always dreamed of in a fleeting glimpse of the rug Immacolata an exiled Seerkind witch intent on destroying her race even if it means calling back the Scourge and her sidekick Shadwell the Salesman who will sell the Weaveworld to the highest bidder In the course of the novel the rug is unwoven and we travel deep into the glorious raptures of the Weaveworld before we witness the final cataclysmic struggle for its possession Barker takes us to places where we have seldom been in fiction places terrifying and miraculous humorous and profound With keen psychological insight and prodigious invention his trademark graphic vision balanced by a spirit of transcendent promise Barker explores the darkness and the light the magical and the monstrous and celebrates the triumph of the imagination
