Sharing Transboundary Resources International Law And Optimal Resource Use:

Sharing Transboundary Resources Eyal Benvenisti, 2002 Why do states often use transboundary resources inefficiently Benvenisti considers a range of factors including mismanagement as a link between domestic and international processes He also looks forward to potential solutions in this multi disciplinary approach Benvenisti s analysis will interest international environmentalists and lawyers and international relations scholars and practitioners Sharing

Transboundary Resources Eyal Benvenisti, 2002-04-04 Why do states often fail to cooperate using transboundary natural resources inefficiently and unsustainably This book first published in 2002 examines the contemporary international norms and policy recommendations that could provide incentives for states to cooperate Its approach is multi disciplinary proposing transnational institutions for the management of transboundary resources Benvenisti takes a fresh approach to the problem considering mismanagement as the link between domestic and international processes As well he explores reasons why some collective efforts to develop the international law on transnational ecosystems have failed while others succeeded This inquiry suggests that adjudicators need to be assertive in progressively developing the law while relying on scientific knowledge more than on past practice Global water policy issues seem set to remain a cause for concern for the foreseeable future this study provides a new approach to the problem of freshwater and will interest international environmentalists and lawyers and international relations scholars and practitioners Humanitarian Disarmament Treasa

Dunworth, 2020-08-06 The humanitarian framing of disarmament is not a novel development but rather represents a re emergence of a much older and long standing sensibility of humanitarianism in disarmament The Book rejects the big bang theory that presents the Anti Personnel Landmines Convention 1997 and its successors the Convention on Cluster Munitions 2008 and the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons 2017 as a paradigm shift from an older traditional state centric approach towards a more progressive humanitarian approach It shows how humanitarian disarmament has a long and complex history which includes these treaties This book argues that the attempt to locate the birth of humanitarian disarmament in these treaties is part of the attempt to cleanse humanitarian disarmament of politics presenting humanitarianism as a morally superior discourse in disarmament However humanitarianism carries its own blind spots and has its own hegemonic leanings It may be silencing other potentially more transformative discourses Narratives of

Hunger Anne Saab, 2019-04-04 An examination of how international law fails to challenge fundamental assumptions and address practical issues of hunger and climate change Sovereignty in China Maria Adele Carrai, 2019-08 This book provides a comprehensive history of the emergence and the formation of the concept of sovereignty in China from the year 1840 to the present It contributes to broadening the history of modern China by looking at the way the notion of sovereignty was gradually articulated by key Chinese intellectuals diplomats and political figures in the unfolding of the history of international law in China rehabilitates Chinese agency and shows how China challenged Western Eurocentric assumptions about the progress of international law It puts the history of international law in a global perspective interrogating the widely held belief of international law as universal order and exploring the ways in which its history is closely anchored to a European experience that fails to take into account how the encounter with other non European realities has influenced its formation

The Impact of International Law on International Cooperation Eyal Benvenisti, Whewell Professor of International Law Eyal Benvenisti, Moshe Hirsch, Von Hofmannsthal Chair in International Law Moshe Hirsch, 2006-11-06 This 2004 book aims at advancing our understanding of the influences international norms and international institutions have over the incentives of states to cooperate on issues such as environment and trade Contributors adopt two different approaches in examining this question One approach focuses on the constitutive elements of the international legal order including customary international law soft law and framework conventions and on the types of incentives states have such as domestic incentives and reputation The other approach examines specific issues in the areas of international environment protection and international trade The combined outcome of these two approaches is an understanding of the forces that pull states toward closer cooperation or prevent them from doing so and the impact of different types of international norms and diverse institutions on the motivation of states The insights gained suggest ways for enhancing states incentives to cooperate through the design of norms and institutions

The Crime of Aggression Under the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court Carrie McDougall, 2013-04-18 An analysis of the crime of aggression amendments adopted under the International Criminal Court's Statute in 2010

Complementarity, Catalysts, Compliance Christian M. De Vos, 2020-04-23 Since its establishment at the turn of the century a central preoccupation of the International Criminal Court ICC has been to catalyse the pursuit of criminal accountability at the domestic level Drawing on ten years of research this book theorizes the ICC's principle of complementarity as a transnational site and adaptive strategy for realizing an array of ambitious governance goals Through a grounded inter disciplinary approach it illustrates how complementarity came to be framed as a catalyst for compliance and its unexpected effects on the legal frameworks and institutions of three different ICC situation countries in Africa Uganda Kenya and the Democratic Republic of Congo Linking complementarity's law and practice to contemporary debates in international law and relations the book unsettles international law's dominant progressive narrative It urges a critical rethinking of the ICC's politics and a reorientation towards international criminal justice as a project of global legal pluralism

State Responsibility for Breaches of Investment Contracts Jean Ho, 2018-10-25 There is a wealth of material that shapes the law of State responsibility for breaches of investment contracts First impressions of an unsettled or uncertain law have thus far gone unchallenged But unchallenged first impressions point to the need for a detailed study that investigates and analyses the sources the content the characteristics and the evolution of this law The argument at the heart of this monograph is that the law of state responsibility for breaches of investment contracts has carved a unique and distinct trajectory from the traditional route for the creation of international law developing principally from arbitral awards and mimicking to a considerable extent the general international law on the protection of aliens and alien property This book unveils the remarkable journey of the law of state responsibility for breaches of investment contracts from its origins to its formation to its arrival at the cusp of maturity Prosecuting Sexual and Gender-Based Crimes at the International Criminal Court Rosemary Grey, 2019-04-11 Detailed study of the ICC's practice in prosecuting gender based crimes current up to the ICC Statute's twentieth anniversary in 2018
