Shattered Dreams Lonely Choices Birthparents Of Babies With Disabilities Talk About Adoption:

Shattered Dreams--Lonely Choices Joanne Finnegan,1993-07-13 Dreams of pregnancy include the expectation that nine months of waiting will end with a joyous event But each year a shattered dream occurs for thousands of couples who receive the news that their child will have a disabling condition severe enough that they may question if they are the best parents for their child Societal expectation is that parents will raise their child or if the condition of the child is detected prenatally abortion is offered as an alternative Parents who explore other options face scrutiny and sometimes condemnation lonely choices Joanne Finnegan shares her personal experience and that of several families she interviewed who like herself explored options other than raising their child with a disability Parents express with candor the overwhelming pain they felt when receiving the news the frustration when searching for options the no win feeling of decision making the resolve with a final decision and finally life after the decision Parent quotes also address issues such as spiritual dilemmas and interactions with friends family their other children and medical professionals Words of advice for new parents include how to build support systems and gather information how to search for an adoptive family and arranging the details of communication between adoptive and birth parents Interviews with adoptive parents poetry and extensive resource lists complete the book Written as a gift for other parents to help them cope with the pain and loneliness of decision making this book will also be a valuable resource for medical professionals adoption and social workers counselors and spiritual advisors and friends and family of the parents It is a helpful as well as a deeply therapeutic book providing a strong lesson in how to manage during this stressful time from receiving the news about the baby s condition and prognosis to weighing the factors involved in the various decisions Should one take the baby home from the hospital If not home then where Foster care respite care guardianship and other forms of substitute care are mentioned The author also examines decisions about finances and support services family issues finalizing an adoption plan living with the decision regrets and future pregnancies Let All the Children Come Phyllis Kilbourn,2013-03-19 In order to minister more effectively to children with disabilities we first must understand the context surrounding children with disabilities and the consequences of disability on them This book compiled by Phyllis Kilbourn provides helpful training to those who desire to engage in more informed ministry to disabled children Reconstructing Motherhood and Disability in the Age of Perfect Babies Gail Landsman,2008-08-18 Examining mothers of newly diagnosed disabled children within the context of new reproductive technologies and the discourse of choice this book uses anthropology and disability studies to revise the concept of normal and to establish a social environment in which the expression of full lives will prevail Emma's Laugh: A Memoir Diana Kupershmit,2025-07-30 As Diana surveyed her newborn baby s face languid body and absent cry she knew something was wrong Then the doctors delivered devastating news her first child Emma had been born with a rare genetic disorder that would leave her profoundly physically and intellectually disabled Diana imagined life with a child with disabilities as a dark and insular one a life in which she would be forced to exist in the periphery alongside her daughter Convinced of her inability to love her imperfect child and give her the best care and life she deserved Diana gave Emma up for adoption But as with all things that are meant to be Emma found her way back home As Emma grew Diana watched her live life determinedly and unapologetically radiating love always Emma evolved from a survivor to a warrior and the little girl that Diana didn't think she could love enough rearranged her heart In her short eighteen years of life Emma gifted her family the indelible lesson of the healing and redemptive power of love This is a mother's requiem to her perfectly imperfect child a child who left too soon but whose lessons continue to inspire a life lived and loved
