Norman ROSENBLOOD,1972 Shaw: Seven Critical Essays Shaw Seminar. 1966 - 1968, Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario,1972 Julius Caesar's Self-Created Image and Its Dramatic Afterlife Miryana Dimitrova,2017-12-14 The book explores the extent to which aspects of Julius Caesar s self representation in his commentaries constituent themes and characterization have been appropriated or contested across the English dramatic canon from the late 1500s until the end of the 19th century Caesar in his own words constructs his image as a supreme commander characterised by exceptional celerity and mercifulness he is also defined by the heightened sense of self dramatization achieved by the self referential use of the third person and emerges as a quasi divine hero inhabiting a literary historical reality Channelled through Lucan s epic Bellum Civile and ancient historiography these Caesarean qualities reach drama and take the shape of ambivalent hubris political role playing self institutionalization and an exceptional relationship with temporality Focusing on major dramatic texts with rich performance history such as Shakespeare s Julius Caesar Handel s opera Giulio Cesare in Egitto and Bernard Shaw s Caesar and Cleopatra but also a number of lesser known early modern plays the book encompasses different levels of drama s active engagement with the process of reception of Caesar s iconic and controversial personality Consuming Traditions Elizabeth Outka,2009 Examples of faux authenticity abound in today s marketplace Trading on the commercial appeal of the ersatz real however is far from a twenty first century invention As Consuming Traditions investigates the allure of commodified nostalgia and the selling of the genuine article emerged as powerful forces in early twentieth century Britain Elizabeth Outka redefines the debates surrounding literary modernism and the market as she explores the marketing of authenticity a crucial but overlooked development in the history of modernity With an interdisciplinary approach that probes novels plays advertisements and architecture Consuming Traditions presents a convincing case for how the commodified authentic the selling of objects and places allegedly free of commercial taint marks a critical turn in modern culture and offers a new way to understand literary modernism and its complex negotiation of tradition and novelty Drawing on cultural studies theories of consumerism and works by Shaw Forster Woolf Joyce and others Outka examines how literature both enacted and critiqued the larger revolution in material culture BOOK JACKET A Contemporary Shavian Manifesto Azeez Jasim Mohammed,2016-05-11 A Contemporary Shavian Manifesto presents an appraisal of George Bernard Shaw s position on women in his plays The dramatist s unconventional approach itself is praiseworthy as he creates unwomanly women who are deviant and create their own space outside social conventions and practices In creating a counterpoint to the norm Shaw succeeds in creating the image of a new woman who is no longer the angel of the house The book explores the ways in which Shaw addresses gender inequality in society through an examination of women s role in the social religious moral and economic spheres In addition to studying Shaw s exploration of the radical woman this book traces his attempts to project a new woman who is the pursuer rather than being pursued The playwright questions the relegation of woman to the domestic space the arbitrary distribution of duties between men and women and patriarchally determined codes of conduct imposed upon woman His foregrounding of women as the force behind what he calls Creative Evolution achieves a kind of feminisation of the life force the central theme in his plays

Fabianism and Culture Ian Britain, 2005-10-20 This book is an attempt to remedy the neglect of the cultural and aesthetic aspects of English socialism in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries An outstanding symptom of this neglect is the way in which the Fabian Society and its two leading lights Sidney and Beatrice Webb have usually been depicted as completely indifferent to art and to the artistic ramifications of socialism Most commentators have painted Fabian socialism as a narrowly utilitarian programme of social and administrative reform preoccupied with the mechanisms of politics and largely oblivious of wider more human issues One of the basic aims of the book is to question this bleakly philistine image by showing the basis of the Fabians beliefs in romanticism as well as utilitarianism

The Writer Writing Francis-Noël Thomas, 2014-07-14 In an age of authorless contextless deconstructed texts Francis No l Thomas argues that it is time to re examine a fundamental but neglected concept of literature writing is an action whose agent is an individual Addressing both general readers and scholars Thomas offers two cases Bernard Shaw s Saint Joan and Marcel Proust s A la recherche du temps perdu read against the background of the authors large eccentric and surprisingly similar claims about their texts as acts He examines what happens when we take these claims seriously enough to find out why the authors made them in the first place and what bearing they have on the texts themselves Originally published in 1993 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
