Garrett,Imogen Adkins,2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God s glory Several chapters have been co written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality

The ministry ,1899 Unnatural Death Philip G. Porter,2025-10-14 In Unnatural Death Philip Porter demonstrates sin and death to be intimate with one another because of sin creation is held in thrall by death Demonstrating the intimacy of sin and death matters because Christians should take natural science seriously while also affirming essential doctrinal claims such as The last enemy to be destroyed is death 1 Cor 15 26 Death is not benign and this book provides a robust theological grammar of scriptural interpretation of voluntary and natural evils and of time and eternity which allows Christians to claim that the damage done by death originates in creaturely sin Porter argues that using Augustine s theory of the rationes seminales makes available new descriptive possibilities in the theology of creation One way to understand this work is as a speculative picture of creation that accounts for death on evolutionary timescales without attempting to naturalize it It offers this picture by showing how the angelic fall can account for the presence of death in creation This work does not offer a theodicy Instead it provides an analysis of the angelic fall that shows how God works through creaturely freedom to bring about goods that neither justify nor make sense of evil
