Nurturing Social Capital In Excluded Communities A Kind Of Higher Education:

Nurturing Social Capital in Excluded Communities Julia Preece, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2000. Emanating from a two year action research project aimed at devising higher education courses for excluded social groups, this book examines ways in which UK higher education can be accessed and valued by adults who have previously been excluded. It also explores the topical argument that education contributes to building social as well as human capital, a necessary feature of citizenship and sustainable communities.

Social Capital Mudit Kumar Singh, 2024-03-07 Providing practical recommendations for leveraging social capital for social good, this is a valuable thought provoking and timely exploration of the multifaceted concept of social capital in the context of the digital revolution.

Inquiry into the Future of Lifelong Learning in the UK Peter Jarvis, 2014-06-11 This volume offers a comprehensive international response to the National Institute of Adult Continuing Education (NIACE) s inquiry into the future of lifelong learning in the UK. The book focuses upon some of the main themes of the inquiry and analyses them from very broad perspectives undertaken by some of the world s leading scholars. It provides an excellent introduction to significant debates about lifelong learning such as ecology, migration, morality, happiness and poverty. Each chapter raises issues of policy and practice with clear areas of discussion, thus assisting readers in truly engaging with the issues. The final chapter contains a response by Tom Schuller, one of the NIACE s inquiry authors. This book is essential reading for students of lifelong learning, especially educational policy makers. This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Lifelong Education.

The Theory and Practice of Teaching Peter Jarvis, 2006-08-21 An introduction to the techniques, contemporary theories and methods of teaching, from facilitating problem based learning to the role of the lecture, this book explores the issues that underpin interpersonal methods of teaching and offers genuine insights. It will help teachers at all levels to understand the techniques that they can use in different situations and will enable them to develop more effective teaching practice. This fully updated second edition contains new material on moderating teaching online and its implications for teaching theory issues surrounding discipline and teaching and the ethical dimensions of teaching. Additional topics include the nature of teaching, the ethics of the teaching and learning relationship, the relationship between learning theory and the theory of teaching, teaching methods including didactic, Socratic and experiential, and monitoring the issues of assessment of learning. The Theory and Practice of Teaching will be of interest to anyone wanting to develop a deep understanding of the key themes and latest developments in teaching and is an ideal companion volume to The Theory and Practice of Learning.

The Theory & Practice of Teaching Peter Jarvis, 2002 This text will introduce teachers to the approaches, techniques, theories and methods of teaching. It looks in detail at the teaching techniques that can be called upon at different times and in different situations and how they can be used.

Learning Democracy and Citizenship Michelle Schweisfurth, Lynn Davies, Clive Harber, 2002-01-01 In recent years there has been a shift in discourse internationally towards a greater recognition of the importance of democratic governments and institutions and an explicit support for the development of democracy and citizenship through education This book celebrates this shift with a diverse range of contributions How democracy and citizenship are conceived practised and researched in different national and educational contexts is explored in this collection which brings together commentary from schoolchildren and international experts researchers and practitioners writers from the south and the north and from established and new democracies This volume will be appreciated by anyone with an interest in learning more about education citizenship and democracy

Precariousness, Community and Participation Matthew Johnson, 2018-12-07 This book attempts to explore the effects of neoliberalism on particular forms of community Guy Standing 2011 has popularised the notion of precariousness to describe the unpredictable neoliberal conditions faced by radically different people throughout the world Members of Standing's precariat lack occupational identities treat work and other moneymaking activities instrumentally are focused on the short term and have no shadow of the future hanging over their actions leaving little incentive to sustain long term relationships and productive but unpaid social activities This issue presents an interdisciplinary account of the challenges faced by communities at a time in which neoliberalism seems unchecked and uncheckable by the rise of nationalist populism At points responses are presented but it is perhaps reflective of the general sense of helplessness of those committed to tackling neoliberalism that the final article highlights serious deficits in an approach commonly presented as a practicable response basic income In the spirit of participation each article is accompanied by a reply by a non academic as well as an academic This ought not to be seen as tokenism the experience of the project has been that discussions can be advanced much more effectively through engagement with community members and professionals The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Global Discourse

The Challenge to Scholarship Gill Nicholls, 2005-06-24 This book is a lively and engaging investigation that seeks to establish what it means to be a scholar and the value of scholarship

Learning Partnerships for Social Inclusion Stephen O'Brien, Máirtín Ó Fathaigh, 2007 In education in Ireland more diverse groups than ever are accessing learning routes that hitherto remained obstructed This book explores ways in which the ideal of educational inclusion manifests itself in authentic policy and practice It seeks to integrate the lifelong learning debate across three significant educational sectors

Adult Learning, Citizenship and Community Voices Pam Coare, Rennie Johnston, 2003 This topical book examines the connections between theory and practice in citizenship learning Focusing on the experiences and views of a range of citizens many on the margins of society the contributors explore the significance and impact of particular forms of educational policies and provision in people's lives and the role adult learning can play in the development of citizenship Organised into three sections the book provides a theoretical overview and a framework for understanding the links between learning and citizenship This is followed by an exploration of the voices of different citizens as they seek to develop their lives and learning The final section brings together theory and practice and identifies ten Propositions for Practice in developing adult learning for citizenship primarily in community contexts Perceptions of Citizenship Responsibility Amongst Botswana Youth

Julia Preece,Dama Mosweunyane,2004 Botswana is widely regarded as a model African democracy Since independence in 1966 the country has enjoyed unparalleled peace and stability within the African continent It has also experienced unprecedented changes from being one of the ten poorest countries in the world to its current status as a middle income country However in spite of the advances of the last thirty years it still experiences high levels of poverty and inequality Perceived inhibitors to progress are attributed to the younger generation s erosion of traditional values and a collective reluctance to take pride in the nation This book offers an analysis of how the younger generation is reconciling globalisation influences with traditional cultural values and belief systems It argues that this generation does care about their country but has changed priorities It further recommends educational interventions that might nurture the bestow Botswana s cultural heritage whilst ensuring an active democratic citizenry that is relevant to modernity Learning Communities and Imagined Social Capital Jocey Quinn,2010-04-01 This volume critically explores themes of belonging learning and community drawing on a range of research studies conducted with adult learners in formal and informal contexts and employing interdisciplinary theory from education feminist theory cultural studies and human geography Dominant but simplistic and regulatory ideas and practices of learning community in higher education and lifelong learning are critiqued Instead Jocey Quinn argues that learners gain most benefit from creating their own symbolic communities and networks which help to produce imagined social capital A rich variety of empirical data is used to explore and demonstrate how such imagined social capital works
