edited volume focuses on different and complementary perspectives on children's spirituality in diverse and changing contexts. Chapters cover topics such as the study of children's spirituality as a natural form of human awareness, a proposed pluricultural approach, the potential contributions of psychoanalytic tradition and cognitive psychology, possible influences of tradition's multidisciplinary and perceptions on understanding children's spiritual experiences, Christian perspectives on children's spirituality in relation to living and dying in Quebec, Canada, Finnish pre-adolescents' perceptions of religion and spirituality, using technology specifically tablets as a component for understanding children's spirituality and cyber spirituality. This volume will be an invaluable resource for researchers and postgraduate students majoring in education studies, life and moral and spiritual education, and those majoring in psychology and religious studies. Story, Formation, and Culture Benjamin D. Espinoza, 2018-10-15. Story Formation and Culture brings together a myriad of scholars, researchers, and ministry leaders into conversation about how we can effectively nurture the spirituality of children. Built around the three themes of story, formation, and culture, this volume blends cutting-edge research and insights with attention to how we can bring theory into practice in our ministries with children. The work of children's spiritual formation is often a marginalized component in the church's overall ministry. This volume seeks to equip pastors, leaders, and scholars with cutting-edge research and practices that effectively strengthen their ministries with children. The Routledge International Handbook of the Place of Religion in Early Childhood Education and Care Arniika Kuusisto, 2022-05-29. Understanding the place of religion in Early Childhood Education and Care is of critical importance for the development of cultural literacy and plays a key role in societal coherence and inclusion. This international handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the place of religion in the societal educational arenas of the very youngest children across the globe. Drawing together contributions from leading international experts across disciplinary backgrounds, it offers a critical view of how to approach the complexities around the place of religion in Early Childhood Education and Care. Through its four parts, the book examines the theoretical, methodological, policy, and practice perspectives and explores the complex intersections of transmission of cultural heritage and national values with the diverse, changing societal contexts. Each chapter contributes to an increased understanding of how the place of religion in Early Childhood Education and Care can be understood across continents, countries, and educational systems. The Routledge International Handbook of the Place of Religion in Early Childhood Education and Care is an essential resource for academics, researchers, students, and practitioners working in Early Childhood Education, Sociology of Childhood, Religious Education, and other related fields. International Handbook of Education for Spirituality, Care and Wellbeing Marian de Souza, LESLIE J. FRANCIS, James O'Higgins-Norman, Daniel G. Scott, 2009-10-13. Acknowledging and understanding spiritual formation is vital in contemporary education. This book explores the dynamic relationship between education and wellbeing. It examines the theory underpinning the practice of education in different societies where spirituality and care are believed to be at the heart of all educational experiences. The book recognizes that regardless of the context or type of educational experience education is a caring activity in which the development of the whole person body mind and spirit is a central aim for teachers and educators in both formal and informal learning The chapters in this handbook present and discuss topics that focus on spirituality as an integral part of human experience and consequently essential to educational programs which aim to address personal and communal identity foster resilience empathy and compassion and promote meaning and connectedness
