Architectural Practice David Chappell, 2008-04-15 Architects and contract administrators spend a great deal of time writing letters of various types. Many of them are routine and repetitive in character but they require proper consideration if potentially dangerous liability situations are to be avoided. This book provides some 285 standard letters for use at all stages of project administration. To assist the user they are grouped into sections which correspond with the RIBA Plan of Work; the aim is to cover all the common situations encountered in practice. The book has been revised to take account of the latest contract revisions and many letters have been added. Unless otherwise stated all letters are suitable for use with JCT 98 WCD 98 IFC 98 MW 98 GC Works 1 1998. The latest edition also takes account of the three new RIBA Standard Forms of Agreement for Appointment of an Architect SFA 99 CE 99 and SW 99. Although primarily written for architects and contract administrators the book will also be of use to project managers and employers' agents under WCD 98. Contractors will also find much of interest.

Building the European Union Koen Lenaerts, Nuno Piçarra, Carla Farinhas, Alessandro Marciano, Frédérique Rolin, 2021-09-23 This book charts the evolution of EU law both internal market and institutional law through the jurisprudence of one of its leading jurists. Few have as close an eye witness view of the evolution of European Union law as judges at the ECJ. They not only observe however but actively work towards its development. This collection assesses the momentous contribution to European Union law made by Jos Lu s da Cruz Vila a. Taking those areas of law which were directly shaped by his judgments: institutional law, internal market, free movement of persons and judicial review, leading scholars assess his legacy. Through this prism the story of EU law can be charted.

Architect's Legal Handbook Anthony Speaight, 2012-07-26 The Architect's Legal Handbook is the established leading textbook on law for architectural students and most widely used reference on the law for architects in practice. This eighth edition includes all the latest developments in the law that affect an architect's work. A key addition is a greatly expanded section on adjudication, a topic that has become hugely important in the last few years. The book also builds on the comprehensive coverage of all UK law with editors for Scotland and Northern Ireland expanding their sections.
