Retreat Of Representation:

The Retreat of Representation Martha B. Helfer, 1996-03-28 Examines the notion of Darstellung representation in the critical discourse of German Idealism and Romanticism paying particular attention to Kant Fichte Novalis and Kleist

Imagination and Postmodernity Patrick L. Bourgeois, 2013-09-05 Imagination and Postmodernity addresses the role of the imagination in philosophy today By focusing on philosophy at the boundary of reason with constant reference to Kant's view of the boundary limit it is possible to advance a viable alternative to deconstructing the imagination Patrick L Bourgeois puts forth the claim that by refocusing the imagination in the postmodern conversation a far reaching contemporary position can be reached that reestablishes the position of the humanities as central against the anti humanism of deconstruction This work addresses some of the challenges and problems that emerge in conflicting positions within contemporary philosophy including a concentration on the role of the imagination in the work of Paul Ricoeur in contrast and in opposition to its role in such postmodern thinkers as Derrida and Lyotard This treatment requires going back to the role of the imagination in the period of Kant and his immediate followers in order to clarify the various ways of seeing the imagination then and now for the role today is anticipated in the nineteenth century Finally this work as a creative appropriation of the position of Paul Ricoeur presents a role for the imagination today that is more encompassing than most thinkers allow for Law and Sacrifice

Johan Van der Walt, 2014-06-11 In the wake of apartheid Law and Sacrifice draws on the uniquely expansive protection of fundamental rights now entrenched in the South African Constitution to outline a new theory of law The South African Constitution not only protects the rights of people against abuses of power by the state but also against abuses of power by private legal subjects Drawing upon the work of contemporary thinkers such as Martin Heidegger Hannah Arendt George Bataille Jacques Derrida Emmanuel Levinas and Jean Luc Nancy the author elicits the radical democratic potential of this horizontal notion of rights Johan van der Walt argues that apartheid must be understood as more than a racist abuse of power and here he articulates its sacrificial logic It is in going beyond this logic he maintains that the truly democratic potential of the South African Constitution can be understood in a radical formal and substantive equality that offers the legal basis for rethinking a post apartheid future Combining a rigorous theoretical understanding with a subtle political engagement Law and Sacrifice is a dazzling interrogation of the limits and possibilities of democratic pluralism It will be of interest to political and legal theorists as well as to those who are concerned with South African law and politics Reading Ricoeur David M. Kaplan, 2008-07-24 In Reading Ricoeur fourteen well known scholars interpret evaluate and criticize the works of Paul Ricoeur one of the twentieth century's most important and far reaching philosophers The contributors discuss Ricoeur's entire philosophical career from his existentialist phenomenology of the 1940s and 50s his hermeneutics and critique of structuralism in the 1960s and 70s his narrative and moral philosophy of the 1980s his political and legal philosophy of the 1990s his recent work on memory forgiveness and recognition as well as his enduring interests in religious language and the problem of evil The contributors not only explain the central concepts and structures of Ricoeur's philosophy but they also bring him into dialogue with his contemporaries including Sartre Heidegger Gadamer Habermas Rawls and Lyotard Reading Ricoeur demonstrates the central role of Paul Ricoeur in the development of twentieth century philosophy

Witnessing Sadism in Texts of the American South

Claire Raymond, 2019-10-28 Looking at works by Carrie Mae Weems Toni Morrison Emily Dickinson Flannery O Connor Dorothy Allison Carson McCullers and Zora Neale Hurston Claire Raymond uncovers a pattern of femininity constructed around representations of sadistic violence in American women's literature and photography from the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Dickinson's poetry is read through its relationship to the Southern Agrarian critics who championed her work While the representations of violence found in Carrie Mae Weems's installation From Here I Saw What Happened and I Cried Morrison's Beloved Dickinson's poetry O Connor's A View of the Woods and A Good Man Is Hard to Find Allison's Bastard Out of Carolina McCullers Ballad of the Sad Caf and Hurston's Mules and Men are diverse in terms of artistic presentation all allude to or are set in the antebellum and Jim Crow South In addition all involve feminine characters whose subjectivity is shaped by the practice of seeing acts of violence inflicted where there can be no effective resistance While not proposing an equivalence between representing violence in visual images and written text Raymond does suggest that visual images of violence can be interpreted in context with written evocations of violent imagery Invoking sadism in its ethical sense of violence enacted on a victim for whom self defense and recourse of any kind are impossible Raymond's study is ultimately an exploration of the idea that a femininity constructed by the positioning of feminine characters as witnesses to sadistic acts is a phenomenon distinctly of the American South that is linked to the culture's history of racism

Space, Politics, and Cultural Representation in Modern China Enhua Zhang, 2016-12-08 Regarding revolution as a spatial practice this book explores modes of spatial construction in modern China through a panoramic overview of major Chinese revolutionary events and nuanced analysis of cultural representations Examining the relationship between revolution space and culture in modern China the author takes five spatially significant revolutionary events as case studies the territorial dispute between Russia and the Qing dynasty in 1892 the Land Reform in the 1920s the Long March 1934-36 the mainland Taiwan split in 1949 and the Cultural Revolution 1966-76 and analyses how revolution constructs conceives and transforms space Using materials associated with these events including primarily literature as well as maps political treatises historiography plays film and art the book argues that in addition to redirecting the flow of Chinese history revolutionary movements operate in and on space in three main ways maintaining territorial sovereignty redefining social relations and governing an imaginary realm Arguing for reconsideration of revolution as a reorganization of space as much as time this book will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese culture society history and literature

Containing Community Greg Bird, 2016-09-21 Analyzes the role of community in the writings of Giorgio Agamben Roberto Esposito and Jean Luc Nancy Community has been both celebrated and demonized as a fortress that shelters and defends its members from being exposed to difference Instead of abandoning community as an antiquated model of relationships that is ill suited for our globalized world this book turns to the writings of Giorgio Agamben Roberto Esposito and Jean Luc Nancy in search for ways to rethink community in an open and inclusive manner Greg Bird argues that a central piece of this task is found in how each philosopher rearticulates community not as something that is proper to those who belong and improper to those who are excluded or where inclusion is based on one's share in common property We must return to the forgotten dimension of sharing not as a sharing of things that we can contain and own but as a process that divides us up and shares us out in community with one another This book traces this problem through a wide array of fields ranging from biopolitics

communitarianism existentialism phenomenology political economy radical philosophy and social theory
