Shanghai Alley:

Asian Alleyways Marie Gibert-Flutre, Heide Imai, 2025-10-01 Asian Alleyways An Urban Vernacular in Times of Globalization critically explores Global Asia and the metropolization process specifically from its alleyways which are understood as ordinary neighbourhood landscapes providing the setting for everyday urban life and place based identities being shaped by varied everyday practices collective experiences and forces Beyond the mainstream standardising vision of the metropolization process Asian Alleyways offers a nuanced overview of urban production in Asia at a time of great changes and will be welcomed by an array of scholars students and all those interested in the modern transformation of Asian cities and their urban cultures Western Queers in China David Emil Mungello, 2012 This unique work examines the role played by sexuality in the historical encounter between China and the West Distinguished historian D E Mungello focuses especially on Western homosexuals who saw China as a place of escape from the homophobia of Europe and North America His groundbreaking study traces the lives of two dozen men many previously unknown to have same sex desire who fled to China and in the process influenced perceptions of Chinese culture to this day This escapism engendered casual sexual encounters serious friendships and substantive intellectual rela Chinatown Vancouver Donna Seto, 2025-05-01 An Indigo Best Book of 2025 A colourful illustrated history of the buildings in Vancouver's Chinatown celebrating the richness diversity and vibrancy of the Chinese community Buildings are more than just bricks and mortar they are keepers of secrets and history With more than seventy vibrant illustrations writeups on the buildings interviews with community members and select archival photographs Chinatown Vancouver celebrates the invaluable contributions of the Chinese to Canada The colourful illustrations portray Chinatown during its thriving days as a commercial hub when iconic businesses such as Cathay Importers Ho Inn Restaurant Ming Wo Cookware and Ho Ho Restaurant were pillars in the community Early Chinese settlers in Vancouver demonstrated immense resilience and perseverance in creating a self sustaining safety net to weather racial hostility discrimination and segregation from broader Canadian society The protection of cultural sites like Chinatown helps us understand our connection to place the past and the future In showcasing the unique architecture Chinatown Vancouver honours the neighbourhood as an irreplaceable living heritage site and cultural asset for all Canadians The People's Doctor Edgar A. Porter, 1997-01-01 The young George Hatem journeyed to Shanghai in 1933 to practice medicine and see the sights The deplorable health and social conditions he found there caused his sympathies to veer quickly to the revolutionary efforts of the Chinese Communist party and before long he joined the underground Party members in conspiratorial meetings and activities In 1936 he left Shanghai on a secret Province after completing the Long March For the next 14 years Hatem served the Communist troops as physician and adviser He took the name Ma Haide and became the first foreigner admitted into China's Communist Party After the Communist victory in 1949 he became the first foreigner granted citizenship in the People's Republic Over the next 40 years his reputation grew as one of the leading public health physicians in the world Until his death in 1988 he showed absolute allegiance to the Party Few foreigners have been accepted into Chinese society as readily as he and certainly none have had such intimate access to 20th century China s most powerful figures

Narrating Architecture James Madge,Andrew Peckham,2006-09-27 This anthology brings together the best and most interesting papers from the first ten years of The Journal of Architecture published together for the first time in a single volume Covering a wide range of topics of central importance to architecture today the papers also address the related topics to which architecture and architectural studies are inextricably linked The invited authors draw on sociology philosophy cultural studies and the sciences to round out the collection and highlight the breadth and vitality of modern architectural studies offering perspectives from different disciplines as well as different corners of the globe

Technologies for Active Aging Andrew Sixsmith,Gloria Gutman,2013-05-16 The challenge of population aging requires innovative approaches to meet the needs of increasing numbers of older people Emerging information and communication technologies ICTs such as pervasive computing and ambient assistive technology have considerable potential for enhancing the quality of life of many older people by providing additional safety and security while also supporting mobility independent living and social participation The proposed book will be a landmark publication in the area of technology and aging that will serve as a statement of the current state of the art and as a pointer to directions for future research and emerging technologies products and services

The Cultural Revolution in the Provinces Ezra Vogel,Margie Sargent,Vivienne B. Shue,Thomas Jay Mathews,Deborah S. Davis,2020-03-17 Four case studies all revisions of papers originally prepared for a seminar on Chinese Communist society held in the spring of 1970 at the East Asian Research Center Harvard University

Edgar Snow John Maxwell Hamilton,2003-09-25 Edgar Snow 1905 1972 was one of the most notable Western journalists to report on China in both the revolutionary and postrevolutionary periods He first became famous in the mid 1930s when he broke through a Nationalist blockade and reached the Communists in northwest China For nearly a decade no foreign reporter had seen the Communists who were widely regarded as a ragtag bandit army Snow took them seriously as a national movement His reporting in the now famous book Red Star over China was major news even to the Chinese thousands of whom joined the Communists after reading it It has remained a seminal reference on the early Chinese Communist movement In this award winning biography journalist John Maxwell Hamilton follows Snow from his birth in Kansas City to his rise as a celebrated foreign correspondent for the Saturday Evening Post his ostracism during the cold war and his role as a singular journalistic bridge between Communist China and the United States With a new preface by the author this revealing portrait of the widely misunderstood Snow firmly establishes him as a model for the kind of committed reporting that is crucial to understanding our interdependent world

Grit Adam Li Ma,2023-08-03 What makes a 9 year old boy remember something deeply It must be a dramatic event or a tragedy What will he become What kind of life will he go through This author has experienced it all This book describes the ups and downs that he Mr Adam Ma Ma Li in Chinese and his family have faced for more than half a century Through a series of memories and stories coupled with the author's reflections and insights it illustrates not only the earth shaking changes that China experienced but also the development of manufacturing globalization in the past fifty years Through the Reform and Opening Up movement China entered the world with various progressions and developments in the process of cultural exchange and economic integration The author has witnessed huge historic changes and reflects the changing of times in his stories like a drop of water reflecting the world The book not only contains life stories but also an understanding of cultural differences as well as leadership concepts related to the author's actual business practices From an idealist to a business manager a communist to a capitalist and self-scarification to self-development the author has called his journey The Way to Home A wandering child going back into God's House The White Angel John MacLachlan Gray, 2017-09-09 Vancouver is in an uproar over the death by gunshot of a Scottish nanny Janet Stewart An almost deliberately ham-handed police investigation has Constable Hook suspecting a cover-up The powerful United Council of Scottish Societies is demanding an inquiry The killing has become a political issue with an election not far away The city is buzzing with rumours Miss Stewart's fellow nannies have accused the Chinese houseboy of murder capitalizing on a wave of anti-Chinese propaganda led by the Asian Exclusion League and enthusiastically supported by the sensational press not to mention the Ku Klux Klan which has taken up residence in upper-class Shaughnessy The White Angel is a work of fiction inspired by the cold case of Janet Smith who on July 26 1924 was found dead in her employer's posh Shaughnessy Heights mansion A dubious investigation led to the even more dubious conclusion that Smith died by suicide After a public outcry the case was re-examined and it was decided that Smith was in fact murdered but no one was ever convicted though suspects abounded from an infatuated Chinese houseboy to a drug smuggling ring devil worshippers from the United States or perhaps even the Prince of Wales For Vancouver the killing created a situation analogous to lifting a large flat rock to expose the creatures hiding underneath An exploration of true crime through a literary lens The White Angel draws an artful portrait of Vancouver in 1924 in all its opium-hazed smog-choked rain-soaked glory accurate insightful and darkly droll
