Shaping A Theological Mind Theological Context And Methodology:

Shaping a Theological Mind Darren C. Marks, 2017 Rarely do theological thinkers have the opportunity to present their own self understanding of both their context and their methodology and the inter relation of the two This book gives leading theological minds from North America Great Britain and Europe an opportunity to explore the shaping of their theological minds in regard to context and methodology Asking why theology each contributor explores their sense of call to the Christian faith the purpose of their theological journey and reflects on his or her context and theology Cutting across denominational gender disciplinary Shaping a Theological Mind Darren C. Marks, 2017-07-05 Rarely do theological thinkers have the opportunity to present their own self understanding of both their context and their methodology and the inter relation of the two This book gives leading theological minds from North America Great Britain and Europe an opportunity to explore the shaping of their theological minds in regard to context and methodology Asking why theology each contributor explores their sense of call to the Christian faith the purpose of their theological journey and reflects on his or her context and theology Cutting across denominational gender disciplinary international and generational boundaries to explore shifts in theology and methodology this book provides a diagnostic tool for examining where theology has come from and a compass to where theology is headed Contributors include James H Cone Edward Farley Colin E Gunton Alister E McGrath Wayne A Meeks John Milbank Jürgen Moltmann Gerald O Collins Rosemary Radford Ruether Kathryn Tanner Keith Ward and John Webster

Shaping a Global Theological Mind Darren C. Marks, 2008 Theological thinkers are placed into contexts which inform their theological tasks but that context is usually limited to a European or North American centre usually ignoring minorities and lesser mainstream theologies even in that context This work focuses on the shift of Christian theological thinking from the North Atlantic to the Global South even within the North Atlantic Church and Academy It gives a Global perspective on theological work method and context Theologians from North America Great Britain and Europe Africa Asia Central and South America comment on how their specific context and methodology manifests organizes and is prioritized in their thought so as to make Christian theology relevant to their community By placing the Global South alongside the newly emerging presence of non traditional Western forms such as Pentecostal Aboriginal and Hispanic theologies and theologians a clearer picture of how Christian theology is both enculturated and still familial is offered

Colin Gunton's Trinitarian Theology of Culture Andrew Picard, 2024-06-27 Whilst upholding some of the criticisms of Colin Gunton's work this incisive book argues that there is a Hauptbriefe in Gunton reception that assumes his early classic works The One the Three and the Many and The Promise of Trinitarian Theology 1st ed are definitive of his project and fail to engage adequately with the progressions in Gunton's later thought Instead this book offers a fresh reading of Gunton by giving greater prominence to his later writings which are centred in the mediation of the Son and the Spirit in creation Andrew Picard argues that Gunton's trinitarian theology of culture emerges from his later trinitarian theology of mediation creation Christology pneumatology and ecclesiology Exploring these doctrinal foci enables an understanding of Gunton's account of faithful human culture as embodied worship a living sacrifice of praise which contributes to the divine redemption and perfection of creation It is the church's particular calling to embody such praise through its visible life in community The study concludes by intersecting Gunton's theology with the social sciences to critique ableism and consider the politics of the church's belonging in community T&T Clark Handbook of Colin Gunton Andrew Picard, Murray Rae, Myk

Habets, 2021-01-14 The T T Clark Handbook of Colin Gunton is a theological companion to the study of Gunton's theology and a resource for thinking about Gunton's importance in modern theology Each of the essays brings Gunton's depth to a broad range of contemporary theological concerns The volume unveils cutting edge Gunton scholarship for a new generation and at the same time enables readers to see the timely significance of Gunton today Each of the essays not only introduces readers to key themes in the Gunton corpus but also provides readers with fresh interpretations that are fully conversant with the contemporary theological problems facing the church Designed as both a guide for students and a reference point for scholars the companion seeks both to outline the frameworks of key Gunton debates while at all times pushing forward fresh interpretative strategies concerning his thought Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A.

Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women's education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church's founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education How to

Read Theology for All Its Worth Karin Spiecker Stetina, 2020-09-15 The Guide You Need to Read Theology Well Too many Christians avoid reading theology for fear they won't understand it or out of a misconception that it's only meant for the academic elite Similarly students in introductory theology classes can feel overwhelmed by the concepts and terminology they encounter Yet theology can be read with enjoyment and discernment In How to Read Theology for All Its Worth professor author and devoted reader Karin Stetina introduces students to the basic skills of intelligent reading applied especially to theological works Anyone who d like to read theology well whether a formal student or interested layperson will benefit from the simple steps Stetina outlines Steps include Identifying genre Becoming acquainted with the author and the context out of which he or she wrote Determining a thesis and main arguments How to Read Theology for All Its Worth will equip readers not only to understand theology but also to insightfully engage authors ideas With the basic tools in hand everyone can read with confidence and enjoy conversations with theological works Jurgen Moltmann and Evangelical Theology Sung Wook Chung,2012-04-23 Jurgen Moltmann is now regarded as one of the most influential theologians since Karl Barth However evangelical engagement with Moltmann has been hesitant and deficient This book fills the gap Ten respected evangelical theologians engage with Moltmann s theology in a mature dynamic and critical manner seeking to appropriate from it in a discerning manner The contributors include Sung Wook Chung Kurt Anders Richardson Veli Matti Karkainen Stephen N Williams and Timothy Bradshaw This book is an excellent demonstration of intellectual confidence and respectability of robust evangelical theology John Webster Jordan Senner,2021-12-16 Jordan Senner captures the systematic shape logic and development of his thought from the vantage point of the God creature relation Webster s development is depicted in terms of three phases Christocentric Trinitarian and Theocentric culminating in a conceptual analysis of three key aspects of his mature theology his doctrine of divine perfection theory of mixed relations and concept of dual causality Senner illustrates this heuristic framework for interpreting Webster s theology through an exploration of different aspects of his account of the God creature relation Christology hypostatic relation ecclesiology redemptive relation bibliology communicative relation and theological theology rational relation This volume not only provides a dynamic introduction to Webster s theology as a whole but it also includes fascinating forays into the complexities of Webster s engagement with Barth and Aquinas raising interesting questions for constructive theological dialogue that is neither straightforwardly Protestant nor Catholic The Freedom of Christian Theology Piotr J. Malysz,R. David Nelson,2024-12-15 Eberhard J ngel 1934 2021 belongs to the most creative wide ranging rigorous and demanding voices in twentieth century Protestant theology Over a long and distinguished career J ngel grappled with topics such as revelation responsible talk about God God s triunity Christology the nature of theological language analogy divine and human freedom love atheism and theological approaches to the state In all this he had followed perceptively yet critically in the footsteps not only of Martin Luther but also of G W F Hegel Dietrich Bonhoeffer Rudolf Bultmann Martin Heidegger and Karl Barth Despite the diversity of their own backgrounds and interests the contributors to The Freedom of Christian Theology New Studies in Dialogue with Eberhard J ngel all share the conviction that J ngel s legacy lends itself to the same kind of constructive engagement that Jüngel himself practiced. The essays offered here bring Jüngel's many-sided contributions to bear on the theological, philosophical, and social challenges of today. Each is an attempt to grapple in the spirit of Eberhard Jüngel with the mysteries of today's world, which no less demand analytical care and penetrating insight. As an ongoing conversation with Jüngel, the essays model the freedom and joy of Christian theology to reflect on the world's complexities out of the riches of the Christian tradition.
