Our World Herbert Sherman Houston, 1924 Generation Share Matofska, Benita, Sheinwald, Sophie, 2020-05-26
Generation Share takes readers on a journey around the globe to meet the people who are changing and saving lives by building a Sharing Economy Through stunning photography social commentary and interviews with 200 change makers Generation Share showcases extraordinary stories demonstrating the power of Sharing From the woman transforming the lives of slum girls in India to the UK entrepreneur who has started a food sharing revolution you ll discover the creators of a life saving human milk bank a trust cafe and a fashion library who are changing the world A collaboration between speaker social innovator and global Sharing Economy expert Benita Matofska and photographer Sophie Sheinwald Generation Share brings to life the phenomenon causing the most significant shift in society since the Industrial Revolution Sharing Democracy Michael L. Ferguson, 2012-10-18 Democratic theorists frequently assume that the people must have something in common or else democracy will fail This produces an ironically anti democratic tendency to emphasize the passive possession of commonality Sharing Democracy counters this tendency with a radical vision of democracy grounded instead in the active exercise of political freedom Philosophical Papers Calvin O. Schrag, 1994-01-01 Insofar as three nineteenth century philosophers in particular Marx Kierkegaard and Nietzsche figured so decisively in the shaping of twentieth century continental thought they too become part of the wider story being told Documentarity Ronald E. Day, 2019-10-01 A historical conceptual account of the different genres technologies modes of inscription and innate powers of expression by which something becomes evident In this book Ronald Day offers a historical conceptual account of how something becomes evident Crossing philosophical ontology with documentary ontology Day investigates the different genres technologies modes of inscription and innate powers of expression by which something comes into presence and makes itself evident He calls this philosophy of evidence documentarity and it is through this theoretical lens that he examines documentary evidence and documentation within the tradition of Western philosophy largely understood as representational in its epistemology ontology aesthetics and politics Day discusses the expression of beings or entities as evidence of what exists through a range of categories and modes from Plato s notion that ideas are universal types expressed in evidential particulars to the representation of powerful particulars in social media and machine learning algorithms He considers among other topics the contrast between positivist and anthropological documentation traditions the ontological and epistemological importance of the documentary index the nineteenth century French novel s documentary realism and the avant garde s critique of representation performative literary genres expression as a form of self evidence and the post documentation technologies of social media and machine learning described as a posteriori real time technologies of documentation Ultimately the representational means are not only information and knowledge technologies but technologies of judgment judging entities both descriptively and prescriptively Today's Menu: Feeding on God's Word Laura Russell Simpson, 2019-08-31 The different stages in her life and in different situations As a result she came to the conclusion that life is a journey worth fighting for Life is not perfect and people should not pretend that it is Some have to work harder than others in order to facilitate their journey through life Challenges such as bullying growing pains dropping out of school dealing with a failed relationship or marriage loss of income or job job reassignment drug abuse alcoholism getting older and disease are just a few of the struggles that we may experience at different points in life At times we may have to put up a good fight and not give up by overcoming obstacles that may interfere with the quality of life the life God wants for us that will ultimately lead us to eternal life No matter what age one may be or what obstacles come our way we should never stop dreaming
