Mary Nash, Bruce Stewart

Sharing The Darkness The Spirituality Of Caring:

Sharing the Darkness Sheila Cassidy, 1991 How can one enter into another's suffering without being overwhelmed drained useless The author deals frankly with her own experiences of burn out Again and again however she describes the experience of grace and forgiveness where she finds her humanity affirmed and redeemed through the gift of those she serves Meditates on the mystery of our wounded humanity trying to wrest meaning and a spirituality of caring out of the reality of suffering Sharing the Darkness: the Spirituality of Caring SHEILA. CASSIDY, 2020-01-30 Warm honest and highly personal Sharing the Darkness meditates on the mystery of our wounded humanity trying to wrest meaning and a spirituality of caring out of the reality of suffering With unforgettable portraits of courage love and grace in its human form Sheila Cassidy interweaves her own story and those of her patients with moving reflection on the gospels What she ultimately shows is that the way to God is not different from the way to our own humanity Spirituality and Social Care Mary Nash, Bruce Stewart, 2002 This comprehensive and much needed resource is for professionals and students in social care who are required to engage with the spiritual dimension of their therapeutic work with clients The authors show how they have developed ways of applying their own and their clients spirituality in their practice Dying, Death and Grief Brenda Mallon, 2008-07-21 This book's strengths are Brenda Mallon's clinical wisdom experience and insights and the practical constructive down to earth way in which she conveys these to her readers This will appeal to many who are searching for guidance in the difficult task of providing support for the bereaved Bereavement Care Spring 2010 This is a well written book that makes a very useful addition to the field Therapy Today February 2009 A refreshing down to earth text that examines theory and research without becoming an academic tome It is comprehensive focused on practice and contains important insights for developing the essential skills required to provide effective bereavement care Dr John Costello Head of Primary Care University of Manchester Brenda Mallon gives the term grief counselling definition in a way no one has done before If you are new to counselling the bereaved this book is the best introduction I have seen If you are an experienced grief counsellor this should be the next book you read Professor Dennis Klass Webster University Dying Death and Grief is written for anyone who provides support to adults following bereavement Whether in a professional or voluntary capacity bereavement care requires empathy judgement and skill to ensure your response matches the needs of the person you are helping Recognizing that we all experience bereavement differently this book introduces theory and skills which can be used in any context to address a wide range of needs The author explains the theoretical background to attachment and loss and the core skills needed to support people who have been bereaved Case studies and personal accounts illustrate key points and exercises help you examine your own experiences and attitudes in relation to loss The book also takes into account topics frequently overlooked in other texts such as sexuality spiritual responses to loss cultural influences and diversity as well as the nature of chronic and disenfranchised grief Dying Death and Grief is designed for use on a wide range of training and academic courses that prepare practitioners to work with the bereaved Professionals in a range of settings including hospitals and in the community as well as volunteers and be frienders in hospices and nursing homes will find this a useful source of guidance Brenda Mallon is a counsellor trainer and author who specialises in bereavement care She is vice chair of The Grief Centre Manchester Area Bereavement Forum Why Have you Forsaken Me? John E Colwell,2014-08-08 In this powerful book on the experience of desolation John Colwell focuses on Psalm 22 read in the light of his own struggle with bi polar disorder and the Christian belief that God the Son suffered in his humanity to offer existential theological reflections on the experience of God forsakenness My concern in writing this book and reading this psalm is to reflect on the felt experience of God forsakenness my own and that of Christ in the light of this psalm to explore the theological and spiritual significance of this felt experience for myself for Christ for Christians generally If this exploration proves to be helpful to me or to others then obviously I am glad but I am not writing this book to be helpful but rather to be truthful and perhaps hopeful This is a personal journey of reflection with a psalm which I invite you the reader to share if you will The Palgrave Handbook of Prison Ethnography Deborah H. Drake,Rod Earle,J. Sloan,2016-01-12 The Palgrave Handbook of Prison Ethnography provides an expansive overview of the challenges presented by qualitative and particularly ethnographic enquiry The chapters reflect upon the means by which ethnographers aim to gain understanding make sense of what they learn and the way they represent their finished work The Handbook offers urgent insights relevant to current trends in the growth of imprisonment worldwide In an era of mass incarceration human centric ethnography provides an important counter to quantitative analysis and the audit culture on which prisons are frequently judged The Handbook is divided into four parts Part I About Prison Ethnography assesses methodological theoretical and pragmatic issues related to the use of ethnographic and qualitative enquiry in prisons Part II Through Prison Ethnography considers the significance of ethnographic insights in terms of wider social or political concerns Part III Of Prison Ethnography analyses different aspects of the roles ethnographers take and how they negotiate their research settings Part IV For Prison Ethnography includes contributions that convincingly extend the value of prison ethnography beyond the prison itself Bringing together contributions by some of the world s leading scholars in criminology and prison studies this authoritative volume maps out new directions for future research It will be an indispensable resource for practitioners students academics and researchers who use qualitative social research methods to further their understanding of prisons Dying to Live Carter Marian,2015-04-21 This is a key resource for reflective practitioners who want to explore subjects such as death dying bereavement and funerals from a theological perspective The book engages readers to reflect theologically on issues of loss grief healing the search for meaning and joy Such theological reflection is vital for the development of good and grounded pastoral practice The Saints' Guide to Happiness Robert Ellsberg,2003-11-01 Eloquent and delightfully readable Catholic convert Ellsberg makes the spiritual struggles of sanctified men and women accessible and relevant Publishers Weekly In All Saints published in 1997 and already a classic of its kind Robert Ellsberg told the stories of 365 holy people with great vividness and eloquence In The Saints Guide to Happiness Ellsberg looks to the saints to answer the questions What is happiness and how might we find it Countless books answer these questions in terms of personal growth career success physical fitness and the like The Saints Guide to Happiness proposes instead that happiness consists in a grasp of the deepest dimension of our humanity which characterizes holy people past and present The book offers a series of lessons in the life of the spirit the struggle to feel alive in a frenzied society the search for meaningful work real friendship and enduring love the encounter with suffering and death and the yearning to grasp the ultimate significance of our lives In these lessons our guides are the saints historical figures like Augustine Francis of Assisi and Teresa of Avila and moderns such as Dorothy Day Flannery O Connor and Henri J Nouwen In the course of the book the figures familiar from stained glass windows come to seem exemplars not just of holy piety but of life in abundance the quality in which happiness and holiness converge If you've been thirsting for a more authentic life this is your book In these pages are living templates which spark recognition Sister Helen Prejean CSJ author of Dead Man Walking
