Shattering The Myths Women In Academe:

Shattering the Myths Judith Glazer-Raymo, 2001-03-21 Winner of the Outstanding Publication Award of the Post secondary Education Division of the American Educational Research Association In Shattering the Myths Judith Glazer Raymo uses a critical feminist perspective to examine women's progress in higher education since 1970 She contrasts the activism of the 1970s the passivity of the 1980s and the ambivalence and antipathy demonstrated toward feminism in the 1990s These waves of change she explains were brought about by external forces by generational differences among women and by intellectual and ideological struggles within the women's movement and the larger academic culture In tracing three decades of women's progress in the academy the author provides data from a variety of sources on women's rank salary employment status and education The book also draws on the experience of women faculty and administrators as they articulate and reflect on the social economic political and ideological contexts in which they work and the multiple influences on their professional and personal lives Academe American Association of University Professors, 2009 Women in Academic Leadership Susan J. Bracken, Jeanie K. Allen, Diane R. Dean, 2023-07-03 Colleges and universities benefit from diversity in their leadership roles and profess to value diversity of thought of experience of person Yet why do women remain under represented in top academic leadership positions and in key positions along the academic career ladder Why don't they advance at a rate proportional to that of their male peers How do internal and external environmental contexts still influence who enters academic leadership and who survives and thrives in those roles Women in Academic Leadership complements its companion volumes in the Women in Academe series provoking readers to think critically about the gendered nature of academic leadership across the spectrum of institutional types It argues that leadership the academy and the nexus of academic leadership remain gendered structures steeped in male oriented norms and mores Blending research and reflection it explores the barriers and dilemmas that these structures present and the professional strategies and the personal choices women make in order to successfully surmount them The authors pose questions about how women leaders negotiate between their public and private selves They consider how women develop a vital sense of self efficacy along with the essential skills and knowledge they need in order to lead effectively how they cultivate opportunity and how they gain legitimacy and maintain authenticity in a male gendered arena For those who seek to create an institutional environment conducive to equity and opportunity this book offers insight into the pervasive barriers facing women of all colors and evidence of the need for a more complex multi dimensional view of leadership For women in academe who seek to reach their professional potential and maintain authenticity it offers encouragement and a myriad of strategies for their growth and development Critical Approaches to Women and Gender in Higher Education Pamela L. Eddy, Kelly Ward, Tehmina Khwaja, 2017-01-12 This volume provides a critical examination of the status of women and gender in higher education today Despite the increasing numbers of women in higher education gendered structures continue to hinder women's advancement in academia This book goes beyond the numbers to examine the issues facing those members of academia with non dominant gender identities The authors analyze higher education structures from a range of perspectives and offer recommendations at individual and institutional levels to encourage activism and advance equality in academia Mainstreaming Gender in Hong Kong Society Fanny M. Cheung,Eleanor Holroyd,2009 This volume demonstrates the importance of gender mainstreaming in examining social issues and making decisions that affect women and men In so doing the essays of the book enrich our understanding of the social structures and trends within contemporary Hong Kong society and at the same time restate the need for gender sensitive perspectives in policy making Measuring Glass Ceiling Effects in Higher Education: Opportunities and Challenges Jerlando F. L. Jackson,Elizabeth M. O'Callaghan,Raul A. while others falter their academic pursuits stalled What contributes to these different outcomes Drawing on interviews with seventy eight professors in diverse disciplines and fields at five major American research universities Anna Neumann describes how tenured faculty shape and disseminate their own disciplinary knowledge while attending committee meetings grading exams holding office hours administering programs and departments and negotiating with colleagues By exploring the intellectual activities pursued by these faculty and their ongoing efforts to develop and define their academic interests Professing to Learn directs the attention of higher education professionals and policy makers to the core aim of higher education the creation of academic knowledge through research teaching and service Community College Leadership Pamela L. Eddy, 2023-07-03 Two year colleges are facing major change The majority will undergo a turnover in college presidencies in the next ten years at a time when they are being asked to be engines for economic growth enable more students and a greater diversity of students to gain 21st century qualifications and provide a pathway to higher degrees all with reduced state and local funding Recognizing that future community college leaders at all levels will manage increasingly complex organizations and face very different challenges than their predecessors this book provides a multidimensional model of leadership suited to these new demands and environments The model addresses issues of leader cognition race and gender the importance of culture and the need for more collaborative modes of communication and decision making to frame and implement change It recognizes that there is no longer any one way to lead and that the next generation of leaders will be more diverse possess experience and qualifications from a wider variety of careers and follow new pathways to their positions Leaders in the future will possess a cultural competency that is fostered by being lifelong learners Through over 75 individual interviews with leaders and campus members Eddy is able to provide examples of the model s components in practice and to illuminate which experiences proved the most relevant for these leaders on their route to upper administration She shows how her model intersects with the leadership competencies defined by the American Association of Community Colleges and proposes strategies for future leadership development This book is intended for anyone considering a leadership position at any level in a community college for college administrators and boards responsible for leadership development programs and for individuals in corresponding organizations who conduct training programs for aspiring leaders Likewise those employed at four year universities may find value in the model as a developmental tool The Sociology of Higher Education Miriam David, Rajani Naidoo, 2013-09-13 The Sociology of Higher Education Reproduction Transformation and Change in a Global Era provides an exciting and conceptually rich approach to the sociology of higher education It offers innovative perspectives on the future of universities within the new and emerging research sub field of the sociology of global higher education The twenty first century has witnessed wide ranging structural and ideological transformations in higher education which have created both a sense of opportunity as well as crisis and loss in the urgent debates around the legitimate roles of the university in the 21st century The chapters represent a diverse and vibrant field
