combination of food and humor two subjects everyone will enjoy As a single parent the author raised his children from the

both are adults now and still alive which only attests to culinary skills or luck The Cat Sanctuary Patrick Gale,2016-07-05 Bestselling British author Patrick Gale casts an empathetic and ferocious eye on the domestic wounds inflicted by families and lovers in this dark comedy One minute Deborah Curtis s husband Julian is alive a handsome figure leaving their rented house in an African principality kissing his wife goodbye in the early morning sunshine The next moment he s dead the ground shaking in the aftermath of a deafening explosion Months later Deborah is still recovering from the assassination of her spouse and the collateral damage to her own body and soul Bestselling author Judith Lamb is living with her partner of eight years in an isolated farmhouse on the Cornish moors struggling with her latest novel Her American lover the tall statuesque Joanna Verdura is currently on assignment in Seneca After reading about a diplomat killed by a car bomb meant for someone else Joanna feels a strong compulsion to visit the dead man s widow After all Deborah is Judith s younger sister Although she has been estranged from Judith for years Deborah doesn t resist when Joanna whisks her off to Cornwall to grieve in peace far from the political spotlight But Joanna has unleashed a demon the sisters buried past As old unresolved wounds bleed into the present a history of abuse comes to light Forced to confront painful memories the women s secrets and lies collide in a shattering unbearably moving climax in a cat sanctuary From the bestselling author of Notes from an Exhibition told in the very different voices of its three female characters The Cat Sanctuary is an ultimately redemptive tale about family and forgiveness and the love and steadfast devotion needed to find grace The British Library General
