Violence and the Cultural Politics of Trauma Jane Kilby, 2007-04-18 During the late 1970s and 1980s speaking out about the traumatic reality of incest and rape was a rare and politically groundbreaking act Today it is a ubiquitous feature of popular culture and its political value uncertain In Violence and the Cultural Politics of Trauma Jane Kilby explores the complexity and consequences of this shift in giving first hand testimony by focusing on debates over recovered memory therapy and false memory syndrome the spectacle of talkshow disclosures discourses of innocence and complicity as well as the aesthetics and affect of shock In counterpoint to the frequently cynical readings of personal narrative politics Kilby advances an alternative reading built around the concept of unrepresentability Key to this intervention is the stress placed by Kilby on the limits of representing sexually traumatic experiences and how this requires both theoretical and methodological innovation Based on close readings of survivor narratives and artworks this book demonstrates the significance of unrepresentability for a feminist understanding of sexual violence and victimisation The book will of interest to those working in the areas of Cultural Literary Media and Women s Studies as well as Memory and Trauma Studies

Key Features Provides a topical discussion of the debates generated by a mass culture of speaking out about violence and victimisation Offers an interdisciplinary case study analysis of survivor testimony Applies cutting edge developments in trauma and testimony theory to a feminist analysis of women s incest testimony Makes accessible the significance of unrepresentability for a cultural politics of trauma

The Healing Flow: Artistic Expression in Therapy Martina Schnetz, 2004-10-15 Drawing on her extensive experience as a creative arts therapist Martina Schnetz puts forward a new approach to the process of art in healing She explores the dialogue between the internal world external images and words shaping a new vocabulary for creative arts therapists The Healing Flow Artistic Expression in Therapy is a theoretical and experiential account of the author s work with survivors of childhood trauma and post traumatic stress Case studies are presented in this model Through providing deeper insight into the creative processes participants recover meaningful patterns in their lives and restore connectedness between themselves and the world

Creativity and the Dissociative Patient Lani Elaine Gerity, 1999 Lani Gerity shows in this book that puppet making incorporating both art and narrative provides an ideal vehicle for therapeutic work It is particularly valuable in the treatment of dissociative patients whose symptoms may include disturbances in body image a dissociated sense of self a disrupted sense of history and causality and a feeling of alienation from the self Lani Gerity explores the application of this in the context of object relations theory She shows the creative process working on many levels for dissociative individuals and groups Making puppets three dimensional representations of the human body helped one patient to integrate her sense of her body image and herself Using puppets and creating narratives about them encourages patients to build communities and to release themselves from the hold of the trauma of their pasts Descriptions and analyses of Gerity s work with dissociative patients in the US and Canada is underpinned by a theoretical framework which encompasses theories from the arts therapies and from psychiatry

Lesbian Couples D.Merilee Clunis,G. Dorsey Green,2004-12-21 Written by two experienced lesbian therapists Lesbian Couples covers a range of topics from marriage to money to conflict resolution and presents a variety of helpful examples and problem solving techniques drawing from research done on lesbian couples over the past decade

Feminism and Method Nancy A. Naples,2013-10-16 Naples draws on different research topics such as welfare poverty sexual identity and sexual abuse to illustrate some of the most salient dilemmas of feminist research the debate over objectivity the paradox of discourse the dilemma of standpoint and the challenges of activist research By linking important feminist theoretical debates with case studies Naples illustrates the strategies she developed for resolving the challenges posed be postmodern Third World postcolonial and queer studies

The Complete Handbook for College Women Carol Weinberg,1994-07-01 Increasingly college is portrayed as posing as many perils for young women as it does opportunities and challenges The cover of The New York Times Magazine tells us that Crime Turns The Campus into an Armed Camp at the same time that dozens of schools experience painful racial upheavals Date rape eating disorders drugs and alcohol hate crimes the recent firestorm over political correctnessall have combined recently to make college seem a daunting even threatening experience This need not be so says Carol Weinberg and in The Complete Handbook for College Women she provides concrete incisive advice to help young women make the most of their college experience Away from home for the first time in an unfamiliar environment paired with a stranger as a roommate the college student faces a number of imposing academic and social challenges As an experienced college administrator who has spent over twenty years working with students at a range of colleges Weinberg is an ideally suited guide to help young women navigate their way through what may well be the most formative experience of their lives Written in a straight forward personable manner The Complete Handbook for College Women is must reading for both college bound women and students already at school as well as a valuable guide for administrators parents and anyone involved with higher education Issues discussed include first arrival and issues of independence and responsibility family ties and loneliness assertiveness and conflict resolution physical and emotional health eating disorders alcohol and drugs codependency sexuality sexual harassment sexual abuse rape and personal safety and the many components of living in a diverse environment such as ethnicity religion sexual orientation class disability age and appearance
