Flash of Eden Paul Ferrara, 2007-11-26 REVIEWS MUST read May 6 2008 By G P See all my reviews This is definitely a must read for anyone Doors fan or not It's one of the best bios I've read No fluff here Paul tells it like it is and has had an amazing life His time with the Doors is well documented but he doesn't get enough credit for being THE Doors official photographer and filmmaker You'll read about his time spent with the Doors not to mention being one of Morrison's pals Be prepared to read stories you've never read before Even if you're not a Doors fan the book is still a great read Paul's life was and still is interesting to say the least You'll be amazed at some of the people Paul knows and worked with Everything is covered here including his adventures in Thailand his ranch in New Mexico and his career in the movie industry I give this book two thumbs up Check it out I read Paul's book and it was a big surprise As a huge Doors fan I'm aware of his well known photographic and film work for the band and his close relationship with them mainly with Jim and Ray since the UCLA Days In the meantime there are lots of details in this book who will delight the fans details of journeys partnership work and so on But Paul's life was much more than Jim and the boys momento Jim and the blue lady at the book's cover is just one of the highlights of the all experience Hold your breath you will be on board of a fantastic trip into childhood family friends girls party cinema music sex drugs and rock n roll cars jail joy death love etc Rui Flash Point Christy Warren, 2025-07-30 For twenty five years paramedic and firefighter Christy Warren put each tragic traumatizing call she responded to in a box and closed the lid One day however the box got too full and the lid blew open and she found herself unable to close it again Her brain locked her inside a movie theater in which film after film of gut wrenching scenes from her career played over and over again she found herself incapable of forgiving herself for what happened at one call in particular Caught in a loop of shame anger irritability and hypervigilance classic signs of PTSD she began to spiral even to the point of considering suicide and yet still she was reluctant to seek help In the end it took almost losing her marriage to force Christy into action but once she began to reach out she found a whole army of folks waiting and ready to help her The team of people supporting her eventually grew to include an EMDR therapist a psychiatrist her peers at a trauma retreat and a lawyer who made the case for medical retirement and workers compensation Along the way Christy learned the vital truths that made it possible to keep going even in her darkest moments that post traumatic stress was literally a brain injury that suicide and alcohol were not the only ways out that asking for help was a sign of strength not weakness and that although it was ultimately up to her to do the work to change the dialogue in her head she was not alone
