wife Frances Fanny Elizabeth Appleton Longfellow reinvented himself as a creative artist transforming his loss and the nation's suffering in the Civil War and postwar period into compelling art. In this book Jeffrey Hotz interprets the distinct phases of Longfellow's late career exploring his narrative poetry translations personal lyrics religious poetry aesthetic verse and end of life vision of mortality as a journey. He considers Longfellow's friendships and family life publication strategies and literary reputation and the recurrent theme of longing for an ideal female figure in his poems and private life. Interweaving unpublished poems and poem fragments with interpretations of published collections Longfellow's Imaginative Engagement examines the poet's complex voice which captured the public's imagination making him America's most famous poet in the nineteenth century.
