Look Out For Liza:

Liza's England Pat Barker, 2001-04-07 The story of a woman who survives a divorce bringing up children by herself and a war only to see the community disintegrate in the name of progress She now fights her last battle Ainslee's, 1910

A Privateer's Promise Marcia E. Barss, 2022-01-04 Liza is the nine year old daughter of Joseph Barss Jr captain of the privateer schooner Liverpool Packet Her father promised she could sail with him sometime but he won't take her when he's privateering chasing and capturing American merchant ships during the War of 1812 Boys her age go to sea on sailing ships but everyone says it's not for girls Liza's determination to find a way to sail on a merchant ship may get her into a lot of trouble Will she risk the danger for the thrill of sailing During the War of 1812 privateer ships sailing out of Liverpool were licensed by the governor of Nova Scotia to capture American merchant ships along the North Atlantic coast The privateers helped defend the coast provided information for the Royal Navy and disrupted the Americans supply line by capturing their merchant ships The captured ships were brought to Halifax where the ship and its cargo were auctioned off In A Privateer's Promise family life in the early nineteenth century is described through the eyes of a privateer's young daughter When privateers were on voyages for months at a time their families managed the challenges of daily living while always thinking of the men at sea and hoping for their safe return Strange Fruit Kathy A. Perkins, Judith L. Stephens, 1998-01-22 These lynching dramas may not present the picture that America wants to see of itself but these visions cannot be ignored because they are grounded not only in the truth of white racism's toxic effect on our national existence but also in the truth that there exists a contesting collective response that is part of an on going and continually building momentum Theatre Journal A unique powerful collection worthy of high school and college classroom assignment and discussion Bookwatch This anthology is the first to address the impact of lynching on U S theater and culture By focusing on women's unique view of lynching this collection of plays reveals a social history of interracial cooperation between black and white women and an artistic tradition that continues to evolve through the work of African American women artists Included are plays spanning the period 1916 to 1994 from playwrights such as Angelina Weld Grimké Georgia Douglas Johnson Lillian Smith and Michon Boston Once
