Looking For A Rain God An Anthology Of Contemporary African Short Stories By:

Looking for a Rain God Nadežda Obradović,1990-01-01 Stories by writers from ten African nations deal with madness traditional customs political repression and clashes with modern values Looking for a Rain God Nadežda Obradović,1990

The Feminization of Development Processes in Africa James S. Etim,Valentine U. James,1999-04-30 Women have historically provided vision and leadership to African countries and are now being recognized as pivotal to the overall sustainable development of Africa In many cases however this recognition has not resulted in the empowerment of African women who still face great discrimination This edited volume explores the contributions women have made to all phases of development planning design construction implementation and operation and the obstacles they have had to face Besides analyzing the current situation and identifying trends the contributors also make recommendations for policy reform and for future planning Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi,2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature s development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors,2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources Global Cultures Elisabeth Young-Bruehl,1994-12-09 An anthology of 62 stories from around the non Euro American world providing new definitions of cultural diversity and commonality and an invaluable tool for teachers responding to the growing need for multicultural literature Over the past two decades sweeping political changes and burgeoning new technologies have resulted in communities being increasingly defined in global as well as regional and national terms Although the intellectual terra nova of world cultures remains largely uncharted this anthology of sixty two stories from around the non Euro American world provides what Elisabeth Young Bruehl calls an introductory map to the great wealth of literary works now being produced in at once the particular settings of the writers experiences and the global setting Young Bruehl finds that while the cultural diversity the stories exemplify is amazing so too is the similarity in thematic terms of the concerns that this diversity presents Thus she organized Global Cultures thematically to highlight and clarify how these worldwide cultures both converge and diverge A comprehensive general introduction outlines forces behind the transnational approach to literary study and chapter introductions contextualize each story Stories from India Cuba South Africa and Uruguay are connected by the theme of exile and immigration tales from Nigeria Guatemala Cameroon and Egypt share a theme of political violence and civil uprisings works from Taiwan Chile Jamaica and Syria describe commonalities of women facing effects of modernization prejudice war and immigration Global Cultures contributes to the fast growing body of contemporary short fictions newly available in English and is an invaluable resource to meet the need for multicultural literature

A Select Index to South African Literature in English, 1991
