Larson,2013-01-11 Coping With Loss describes the many ways in which people cope with the death of someone they love Most earlier books on bereavement have fallen into two categories distillations of the clinical experience of individual therapists or collections of chapters reporting the results of empirical studies Each category is valuable but has tended to serve a narrow group of readers practitioners with particular theoretical orientations or researchers in quest of the latest findings Coauthored by a leading research psychologist and an experienced therapist who specializes in bereavement education and intervention this book is different The authors weave together the strands of theory research and clinical wisdom into a seamless and readable narrative While they discuss previous work they also present new data never before published from one of the largest studies of bereaved people ever conducted the Bereavement Coping Project Unlike most studies to date which focused on only one type of bereaved group usually widows or widowers the Bereavement Coping Project examined the experiences of several different groups during the first 18 months after the death The groups included those who had lost a spouse a parent an adult sibling or a child and those who had lost their significant other to cancer or cardiovascular disease on one hand as opposed to the stigmatized disease of AIDS on the other The book begins with a critical overview of theories of bereavement succeeding chapters explore in depth the impact of specific types of loss the impact of particular coping strategies on recovery the impact of social supports and religion and the special cases of children and of people who seem to grow and change for the better after a loss A final chapter considers implications for intervention with bereaved people Each chapter is richly illuminated with real life examples throughout and ends with a section called Voices in which bereaved people describe their various attempts to cope in their own words

Insightful and informative Too Much Loss: Coping with Grief Overload Alan Wolfelt, 2020-09-01 Grief overload is what you feel when you experience too many significant losses all at once in a relatively short period of time or cumulatively In addition to the deaths of loved ones such losses can also include divorce estrangement illness relocation job changes and more Our minds and hearts have enough trouble coping with a single loss so when the losses pile up the grief often seems especially chaotic and defeating The good news is that through intentional active mourning you can and will find your way back to hope and healing This compassionate guide will show you how Midwives Coping with Loss and Grief Doreen Kenworthy, Mavis Kirkham, 2019-01-22 The experience of stillbirth and other losses in pregnancy at what is usually a time of great joy is tragic for everyone involved including midwifery professionals Although research increasingly shows how profound the effects of loss can be few studies have explored the effects of pregnancy loss which often leads to other personal and professional traumas such as loss of autonomy or a workplace on midwives This in depth investigation uses a phenomenological approach to capture midwives experiences of loss and grief in their own words and encompasses both pregnancy loss and wider professional and personal issues It then makes recommendations to enhance midwives resilience and ability to cope appropriately whilst giving maximum support to their clients Reflections on the emerging implications for midwifery education and practice further broaden the scope of the analysis The insights in this book will be of great use to midwifery managers and supervisors They will also help midwives to nurture themselves their colleagues and their clients at a time when pressures on the service can leave support lacking The devastating experience of losing a baby for women and their families is something that as midwives we strive to understand in order to provide appropriate practical and emotional support Doreen and Mavis encourage us to consider how we are affected by the grief of others at a deeply personal level Ultimately the message in this book is one of hope through reflection and the sharing of experiences midwives who have been with women whose babies have died can regain their personal strength and learn to re shape memories in ways that contribute to personal growth and understanding A From the Foreword by Nicky Leap      Coping With Grieving and Loss Sandra Giddens,Owen Giddens,2002-12-15 Explains the stages of grieving and how to cope with loss and death including where to go for help      Spirituality and Coping with Loss Wendy Greenstreet,2017-04-28 Spirituality and Coping with Loss End of Life Healthcare Practice describes a research study that reflects nurses experience of the nature of loss encountered in end of life care settings as well as the ways in which spirituality is a resource in coping in these situations Key findings indicate how nurses spiritual development impacts their proficiency in spiritual care These findings will be of interest to nurses and nurse educators as well as other healthcare professionals      Coping with Loss Susan Nolen-Hoeksema,Judith Larson,1999 Most earlier books on bereavement have fallen into two categories distillations of the clinical experience of individual therapists or collections of chapters reporting the results of empirical studies Each category is valuable but has tended to serve a narrow group of readers practitioners with particular theoretical orientations or researchers in quest of the latest findings Coauthored by a leading research psychologist and an experienced therapist who specializes in bereavement education and intervention this book is different The authors weave together the strands of theory research and clinical wisdom into a seamless and readable narrative      Coping with Grief: Surviving the Unexpected Loss of a Child Rick Larnerd,2019-04-10 As parents nearly all mothers and fathers form a bond with their offspring at the moment of birth As we parents know children do not come with instructions however The business of raising them to become productive members of society is a roller coaster of ups and downs This series of trials and errors helps to define and solidify the parental bond When that bond is severed by loss the ensuing chaos sends a grieving parent into a tailspin When that loss is unexpected and there is no time to prepare the grief can be particularly debilitating Parents are not supposed to outlive their children Just as children do not come with instructions for their raising there are no instructions for how to deal with the grief which consumes us when we lose one How can one survive the crippling effects of this tragedy The enormity of that tragedy is compounded when more than one child is unexpectedly lost As you read my story of the loss of two of my three children I hope this survivor s perspective will help to shed light on a very complex and personally unique emotion and serve as an inspiration for others experiencing the same grief With belief in God the love of family support of friends compassion from strangers and the passage of time it truly is possible to overcome the debilitating effects of grief

Mending Hearts: Mothers' Stories of Loss, Coping, and Healing Donte Torres, In Mending Hearts Mothers Stories of Loss Coping and Healing readers are invited to delve into the raw and emotional experiences of mothers who have had to navigate the overwhelming journey of losing a spouse or partner Through intimate and honest accounts these women share the challenges they faced the emotions they felt and the ways in which they coped with their grief From the initial shock and devastation to the long process of healing these stories showcase the resilience and strength of the human spirit in the face of unimaginable loss The book also explores the experiences of mothers who have endured the heartbreaking loss of a child Through their poignant narratives readers gain insight into the depths of parental grief and the complexities of navigating life after such a profound loss These mothers share their unique coping mechanisms their struggles with guilt and anger and the ways in which they eventually found solace and healing Their stories serve as powerful testaments to the enduring bond between parent and child even in the face of tragedy Drawing upon the shared experiences of these courageous mothers Mending Hearts offers a compassionate and supportive look at grief loss and the long journey to healing Through moments of despair and moments of triumph these women s stories are intertwined with themes of love hope and the unwavering strength of the maternal instinct This poignant collection serves as a beacon of light for anyone facing their own journey through grief offering comfort understanding and a sense of solidarity in the face of life s greatest challenges

Brothers and Sisters: Coping with Grief and Loss Barbara Snook,2018-07-10 When a family member dies often the response of children is overlooked or underestimated This very important book makes tangible the range of emotions felt but not completely understood by children for the loss of a parent or sibling It offers welcome channels of response that can help survivors to not only understand their feelings but also come to grips with the loss and get on positively with their lives Barbara Snook offers insights into a range of people s experiences with the loss of a family member It normalizes the variety of experiences of grieving that it is not a linear process not something to get over rather the impacts are lifelong and require developing ways to live with the grief Pauline Brown registered psychologist This book is like a cocoon It is beautiful from start to finish The growth and transformation about such grief is anticipated and transparent yet mesmerising through its entire unfolding It holds the reader in the same way that siblings who have lost and actually anyone who has lost a loved one need to be held and need to be seen as they transit their own unique process Jenni van der Schoot psychotherapist I recognise myself in the pages written by the brave contributors to this book as will other readers who struggle with the complex and conflicting emotions of losing a loved sibling Realising that others also struggle with grief and have feelings of guilt is a repeated thread in the stories that weave readers together giving them the realisation that they are not the odd one out but that their reactions are normal in a heart rending situation Tilly Brasch author of No Middle Name

Coping with Loss Joseph V. Palazzola,2013-07 Life is filled with many experiences that young people must cope with each day One of the most severe situations they will encounter is the death or loss of a parent relative or close friend To help teenagers cope with their grief author Joseph V Palazzola has written a workbook to help ease the pain and get youngsters through the seven stages of grief By using various learning strategies that rely on making personal connections participants can realize true understanding of the grieving process Joe is a former educator who has taught in the public schools and at college level His first wife died at a young age and he was left to raise their son Chris who was 15 at the untimely death of his mother Joe and Chris never really dealt with the loss of their loved one together They silently grieved alone They were coping but not addressing the issue of their mutual loss Six years after the death of his mother while a college student Chris was killed in an industrial accident Twenty years after the death of Chris Joe has written a workbook that will help teenagers cope with the pain of losing a loved one Joe realized how difficult it was for Chris so he wrote this workbook of activities He includes many strategies and concepts that he used in his teaching career and information he imparted to his graduate students This book will help ease the hopelessness and despair in a healthy and logical way A Detroit area native Joseph V Palazzola has retired from teaching and now resides in Vero Beach Florida This is his third book Publisher s website <http://sbpra.com/JosephVPalazzola>

Lessons of Loss Robert A. Neimeyer, 2006-01-01 Loss can have many meanings from loss of family or friends loss of something valued a loss of an ability This book discusses those losses how we react to them and how we can adapt to them It explores both the common themes and challenges that characterise the human experience of loss Coming to Grips with Loss Kate Cummings, 2015-11-02 Coming to Grips with Loss is a theory that depicts how people heal from any type of significant loss The strength of this theory is that it is grounded in data gathered from people who experienced a myriad of losses of loved ones physical and mental abilities homes careers material goods as well as safety security and other aspects that people hold dear The theory is written in a very deliberate manner that is non pathologizing relevant to a wide array of audiences and is transferable to various fields of study It explains what people say they go through on their way from the initial discovery assessing the possible impact experiencing related feelings and choosing coping actions that can either move one closer or farther away from healing It offers a road map to recovery for those in helping relationships business managers community leaders and people involved in self care Most importantly it offers a perspective that normalizes the grief process and offers hope that healing is possible Life Crises and Experiences of Loss in Adulthood Leo Montada, Sigrun-Heide Filipp, Melvin J. Lerner, 2014-01-14 A result of a conference at the University of Trier Germany this volume mirrors its goals to provide an overview of recent advances in research on critical life events and the losses associated with them to collect and stimulate new perspectives for the analysis of these events to compare the psychology of victims experiencing stress and losses with the psychology of observers in their reactions to victims Designed to prevent developmental psychological myths in the area of life crises this collection questions on an empirical basis the adequacy of several widespread generalizations At the same time its contributors attempt to draw paths to conceptualizations and theories in general psychology and social psychology which promise to be helpful in analyzing and interpreting phenomena in the field of life crises     The Healing Journey: Navigating Loss and Grief When Your Pet Passes Pasquale De Marco, 2025-03-22 In the tapestry of human existence our relationships with animals and particularly with our pets hold a special place These cherished companions enrich our lives with unconditional love unwavering loyalty and boundless joy They become integral members of our families confidants of our secrets and sources of solace during life's inevitable storms Yet when the time comes for our beloved pets to depart from this mortal realm we are left grappling with an immense void a profound sense of loss that can shake us to our core The pain of losing a pet is a unique and deeply personal experience one that can leave us feeling bereft disoriented and alone This book offers a compassionate and insightful guide to navigating the complex emotions that accompany the loss of a beloved pet Through the sharing of personal stories expert insights and practical advice this book illuminates the path toward healing and recovery Readers will find solace and understanding as they explore the intricacies of the human animal bond the grieving process and the myriad ways in which we can cope with this profound loss They will learn the importance of acknowledging and expressing their grief of seeking support from loved ones and professional counselors and of engaging in self care practices that nurture their physical and emotional well being As they journey through the labyrinth of grief readers will discover the resilience of the human spirit the enduring power of love and the transformative nature of time They will learn to honor the memory of their departed companions to find solace in the lessons they taught them and to embrace the possibility of joy and fulfillment in their lives once again With empathy wisdom and practical guidance this book provides a lifeline for those who are grieving the loss of a beloved pet It offers a roadmap for healing a beacon of hope amidst the darkness of loss and a testament to the enduring power of love If you like this book write a review
