Lost Films Of Laurel And Hardy 8:

Laurel and Hardy Wes D. Gehring, 1990-06-27 This book presents a combined biographical critical and bibliographical estimate of Laurel and Hardy's significance in film comedy the arts in general and as popular culture icons The book features biographical information on the public and private lives of Laurel and Hardy a critique of four broad influences of Laurel and Hardy and a bibliographical essay assessing key reference materials and locating research collections open to the student and or scholar

Reel Bad Arabs Jack G. Shaheen, 2012-12-31 A groundbreaking book that dissects a slanderous history dating from cinema's earliest days to contemporary Hollywood blockbusters that feature machine gun wielding and bomb blowing evil Arabs Award winning film authority Jack G Shaheen noting that only Native Americans have been more relentlessly smeared on the silver screen painstakingly makes his case that Arab has remained Hollywood's shameless shorthand for bad guy long after the movie industry has shifted its portrayal of other minority groups In this comprehensive study of over one thousand films arranged alphabetically in such chapters as Villains Sheikhs Cameos and Cliffhangers Shaheen documents the tendency to portray Muslim Arabs as Public Enemy 1 brutal heartless uncivilized Others bent on terrorizing civilized Westerners Shaheen examines how and why such a stereotype has grown and spread in the film industry and what may be done to change Hollywood's defamation of Arabs

The Moviegoing Experience, 1968-2001 Richard W. Haines, 2010-06-28 The experience of going to the movies be it a single screen theater twin multiplex or drive in is affected by many different factors that have shifted over the years Just as movies emerged from silent to talking black and white to color there has invariably been change in the way movies are made copied distributed and viewed This change in the moviegoing experience for better or for worse is worth studying This work examines the American moviegoing experience from 1968 to 2001 the way in which movies are made and regulated including the demise of the Production Code and the emergence of the ratings system as well as changes in lighting cinematography and coloring techniques The projection practices of the past and present during and after the presence of the Projectionists Union and the advent of the platter which allowed for automated projection are discussed How home video and cable affected the content of films after the eighties and the history of computerized special effects leading to the development of digital cinema projection are included The work also covers the changing types of venues over the last third of a century and other aspects that affect positively or negatively the entire moviegoing experience

New York Magazine, 1987-08-03 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1987-08-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Annotated Abbott and Costello Matthew Coniam, Nick Santa Maria, 2023-01-11 Abbott and Costello were the most popular comedians of the 1940s with burlesque inspired routines that enthralled audiences on both radio and television Oddly their films have not received the same level of attention from critics and writers as those of other comedy teams This book is a scene by scene film by film guide to their movies making a compelling case for their inclusion at the very top of comic artists Featuring new research and some surprising revelations the book introduces newcomers to the delights of this uproarious team and provides confirmed fans with the ultimate companion to their work Also included is a foreword by John Landis the celebrated director and Abbott and Costello devotee Class, Language, and American Film Comedy Christopher Beach, 2002-02-11 This book examines the evolution of American film comedy through the lens of language and the portrayal of social class Christopher Beach argues that class has been an important element in the development of sound comedy as a cinematic form With the advent of sound in the late 1920s and early 1930s filmmakers recognized that sound and narrative enlarged the semiotic and ideological potential of film Analyzing the use of language in the films of the Marx Brothers Frank Capra Woody Allen and the Coen brothers among others Class Language and American Film Comedy traces the history of Hollywood from the 1930s to the present while offering a new approach to the study of class and social relationships through linguistic analysis Lost and Othered Children in Contemporary Cinema Debbie C. Olson, Andrew Scahill, 2012-05-18 Children have been a part of the cinematic landscape since the silent film era yet children are rarely a part of the theoretical landscape of film analysis Lost and Othered Children in Contemporary Cinema edited by Debbie C Olson and Andrew Scahill seeks to remedy that oversight Throughout the over one hundred year history of cinema the image of the child has been inextricably bound to filmic storytelling and has been equally bound to notions of romantic innocence and purity This collection reveals however that there is a body of work that provides a counter note of darkness to the traditional portraits of sweetness and light Particularly since the mid twentieth century there are a growing number of cinematic works that depict childhood as a site of knowingness despair sexuality death and madness Lost and Othered Children in Contemporary Cinema challenges notions of the innocent child through an exploration of the dark side of childhood in contemporary cinema The contributors to this multidisciplinary study offer a global perspective that explores the multiple conditions of marginalized childhood as cinematically imagined within political geographical sociological and cultural contexts A Companion to Literature, Film, and Adaptation Deborah Cartmell, 2014-08-25 This is a comprehensive collection of original essays that explore the aesthetics economics and mechanics of movie adaptation from the days of silent cinema to contemporary franchise phenomena Featuring a range of theoretical approaches and chapters on the historical ideological and economic aspects of adaptation the volume reflects today s acceptance of intertextuality as a vital and progressive cultural force Incorporates new research in adaptation studies Features a chapter on the Harry Potter franchise as well as other contemporary perspectives Showcases work by leading Shakespeare adaptation scholars Explores fascinating topics such as unfilmable texts Includes detailed considerations of Ian McEwan s Atonement and Conrad s Heart of Darkness The DVD-laser Disc Newsletter
