Louis The Great King Of Hungary And Poland:

Louis the Great, King of Hungary and Poland Steven Béla Várdy, Géza Grosschmid, Leslie S. Domonkos, 1986 The History of Hungary and the Magyars Edwin Lawrence Godkin, 1853 The Oxford History of Poland-Lithuania Robert I. Frost, 2018-07-16 The history of eastern European is dominated by the story of the rise of the Russian empire yet Russia only emerged as a major power after 1700 For 300 years the greatest power in Eastern Europe was the union between the kingdom of Poland and the grand duchy of Lithuania one of the longest lasting political unions in European history Yet because it ended in the late eighteenth century in what are misleadingly termed the Partitions of Poland it barely features in standard accounts of European history The Making of the Polish Lithuanian Union 1385 1569 tells the story of the formation of a consensual decentralised multinational and religiously plural state built from below as much as above that was founded by peaceful negotiation not war and conquest From its inception in 1385 a vision of political union was developed that proved attractive to Poles Lithuanians Ruthenians and Germans a union which was extended to include Prussia in the 1450s and Livonia in the 1560s Despite the often bitter disagreements over the nature of the union these were nevertheless overcome by a republican vision of a union of peoples in one political community of citizens under an elected monarch Robert Frost challenges interpretations of the union informed by the idea that the emergence of the sovereign nation state represents the essence of political modernity and presents the Polish Lithuanian union as a case study of a composite state The modern history of Poland Lithuania Ukraine and Belarus cannot be understood without an understanding of the legacy of the Polish Lithuanian union This volume is the first detailed study of the making of that union ever published in English

The Late Medieval Age of Crisis and Renewal, 1300-1500 Clayton J. Drees, 2000-11-30 As part of a unique series covering the grand sweep of Western civilization from ancient to present times this biographical dictionary provides introductory information on 315 leading cultural figures of late medieval and early modern Europe Taking a cultural approach not typically found in general biographical dictionaries the work includes literary philosophical artistic military religious humanistic musical economic and exploratory figures Political figures are included only if they patronized the arts and coverage focuses on their cultural impact Figures from western European countries such as Italy France England Iberia the Low Countries and the Holy Roman Empire predominate but outlying areas such as Scotland Scandinavia and Eastern Europe are also represented Late medieval Europe was an age of crisis With the Papacy removed to Avignon the schism in the Catholic Church shook the very core of medieval belief The Hundred Years War devastated France The Black Death decimated the population Yet out of this crisis grew an age of renewal leading to the Renaissance The great Italian city states developed Humanism reawakened interest in the cultures of ancient Greece and Rome Dante and Boccaccio began writing in their Tuscan vernacular Italian artists became humanists and flourished As the genius of Italy began spreading to northern and western Europe at the end of the 15th century the age of renewal was completed This book provides thorough basic information on the major cultural figures of this tumultuous era of crisis and renewal The Angevin Dynasties of Europe 900-1500 Jeffrey Anderson, 2019-06-28 From their small county in the heart of France the lords of Anjou the Angevins produced dynasties that became kings of Jerusalem England Sicily Hungary and Poland from 900 1500 They were described by a contemporary as lords of the greatest part of the world Here is their extraordinary story including figures such as Geoffrey Plantagenet Empress Matilda Eleanor of Aquitaine Charles of Anjou Queen Johanna of Naples Louis the Great of Hungary and Saint Jadwiga of Poland The Archaeology and Material Culture of Queenship in Medieval Hungary, 1000-1395 Christopher Mielke, 2021-04-21 This book explores an alternate history of the power and agency of 30 Hungarian queens over 400 years by a rigorous examination of the material culture connected with their lives By researching the objects images and spaces it demonstrates how these women expressed and displayed their power Queens used material culture and space not only to demonstrate their own power to a wide international audience but also to consolidate their own position when it was weakened by external circumstances Both the public and private image of the queen factors significantly in understanding in her own role at the strongly centralized Hungarian court and moreover how her position and person strengthened and complemented that of the king The World in the Middle Ages Adolph Ludvig Køppen, 1854
