Love And Hunger An Anthology Of New Fiction:

Keepers of the Code Robert Lecker, 2013-01-01 Robert Lecker explores the ways in which these anthologies contributed to the formation of a Canadian literary canon the extent to which this canon was tied to an ideal of English Canadian nationalism and the material conditions accounting for the anthologies production Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Love & Hunger Beverley Daurio, 1988 An anthology of cutting edge Canadian fiction featuring Margaret Atwood Wendell Block Robyn Marie Butt Heather Cadsby Pauline Carey Beverley Daurio Donald F Daurio Brian Dedora Janet Howarth Karl Jirgens Donna Lypchuk Carol Malyon Lesley McAllister David McFadden bpNichol Ted Plantos Robert Priest Jim Roberts Libby Scheier Lola Lemire Tostevin Yves Troendle Richard Truhlar and Marg Wilson International Books in Print, 1990 Canadian Book Review Annual, 1988 The Journal of Commonwealth Literature, 1989 Issues for 1965 include section Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature 1964 Canadian Books in Print, 2001

Canadiana, 1989 CM, 1989 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Edited by Butler Marian, Marian Butler, 2002-02 Containing more than 48000 titles of which approximately 4000 have a 2001 imprint the author and title index is extensively cross referenced It offers a complete directory of Canadian publishers available listing the names and ISBN prefixes as well as the street e mail and web addresses Who's Who of Canadian Women, 1999-2000 Gillian Holmes, 1999-06-01 Who's Who of Canadian Women is a guide to the most powerful and innovative women in Canada Celebrating the talents and achievement of over 3 700 women Who's Who of Canadian Women includes women from all over Canada in all fields including agriculture academia law business politics journalism religion sports and entertainment Each biography includes such information as personal data education career history current employment affiliations interests and honours A special comment section reveals personal thoughts goals and achievements of the profiled individual Entries are indexed by employment of affiliation for easy reference Published every two years Who's Who of Canadian Women selects its biographees on merit alone This collection is an essential resource for all those interested in the achievements of Canadian women Rampike, 1990 A Companion to the American Short Story Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2020-08-24 A COMPANION TO THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past two centuries Written by leading critics in the field and edited by two major scholars it explores a wide range of writers from Edgar Allen Poe and Edith Wharton at the end of the nineteenth century to important modern writers such as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald and Richard Wright Contributions with a broader focus address groups of multiethnic Asian and Jewish writers Each chapter places the short story into context focusing on the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles The Companion takes account of cutting edge approaches to literary studies and contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon embracing genres such as ghost and detective fiction cycles of interrelated short fiction and comic social and political stories The volume also reflects the diverse communities that have adopted this literary form and made it their own featuring entries on a variety of feminist and multicultural traditions This volume presents an important new consideration of the role of the short story in the literary history of American literature Handbook of the American Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Timo Müller, 2017-01-11 Increasing specialization within the discipline of English and American Studies has shifted the focus of scholarly discussion toward theoretical reflection and cultural contexts These developments have benefitted the discipline in more ways than one but they have also resulted in a certain neglect of close reading As a result students and researchers interested in such material are forced to turn to scholarship from the 1960s and 1970s much of which relies on dated methodological and ideological presuppositions The handbook aims to fill this gap by providing new readings of texts that figure prominently in the literature classroom and in scholarly debate from James s The Ambassadors to McCarthy s The Road These readings do not revert naively to a time before theory Instead they distil the insights of literary and cultural theory into concise introductions to the historical background the themes the formal strategies and the reception of influential literary texts and they do so in a jargon free language accessible to readers on all levels of qualification

Contemporary American Fiction Kenneth Millard, 2000 Millard leads the interpretation of post 1970 fiction by addressing particular authors and themes Books and Beyond Kenneth Womack, 2008-10-30 There s a strong interest in reading for pleasure or self improvement in America as shown by the popularity of Harry Potter and book clubs including Oprah Winfrey s Although recent government reports show a decline in recreational reading the same reports show a strong correlation between interest in reading and academic achievement This set provides a snapshot of the current state of popular American literature including various types and genres The volume presents alphabetically arranged entries on more than 70 diverse literary categories such as cyberpunk fantasy literature flash fiction GLBTQ literature graphic novels manga and anime and zines Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a definition of the genre an overview of its history a look at trends and themes a discussion of how the literary form engages contemporary issues a review of the genre s reception a discussion of authors and works and suggestions for further reading Sidebars provide fascinating details and the set closes with a selected general bibliography Reading in America for pleasure and knowledge continues to be popular even while other media compete for attention While students continue to read many of the standard classics new genres have emerged These have captured the attention of general readers and are also playing a critical role in the language arts classroom This book maps the state of popular literature and reading in America today including the growth of new genres such as cyberpunk zines flash fiction GLBTQ literature and other topics Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a definition of the genre an overview of its history a look at trends and themes a discussion of how the literary form engages contemporary issues a review of the genre s critical reception a discussion of authors and works and suggestions for further reading Sidebars provide fascinating details and the set closes with a selected general bibliography Students will find this book a valuable guide to what they're reading today and will appreciate its illumination of popular culture and contemporary social issues Encyclopedia of Romance Fiction Kristin Ramsdell, 2018-09-07 As the first encyclopedia solely devoted to the popular romance fiction genre this resource provides a wealth of information on all aspects of the subject Romance fiction accounts for a large share of book sales each year and contrary to popular belief not all of its readers are women roughly 16 percent are men This enormously popular genre continues to captivate people reading for pleasure and it also commands a growing amount of academic interest Included are alphabetically arranged reference entries on significant authors along with works themes and other topics The articles are written by scholars librarians and industry professionals with a deep knowledge of the genre and so provide a thorough understanding of the subject An index provides easy access to information within the entries and bibliographies at the end of each entry a general bibliography and a suggested romance reading list allow for further study of the genre The Mammoth Book of Best New Horror 13 Stephen
