Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love, Violence and Masculinity Kopano Ratele, 2022-09-01 Using conversations, observations, and reflections, psychologist Kopano Ratele meditates on love, violence, and masculinity. This book seeks to imagine the possibility of a more loving masculinity in a society where structural violence, failures of government, and economic inequality underpin much of the violent behavior that men display. Enriched with personal reflections on his own experiences as a partner, father, psychologist, and researcher in the field of men and masculinities, Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love, Violence and Masculinity is Kopano Ratele's meditation on love and violence and the way these forces shape the emotional lives of boys and men. At the core of these critical and deeply insightful texts is the question of why men hurt women they love. Ratele contends that many men in our society suffer from a painful, unrecognized yet consequential love hunger that sets in during boyhood. This need for love may lie at the root of some of the male violence that damages the lives of women, children, and men themselves. Blending academic analysis and rigor in a readable narrative style, Ratele illuminates the complex nuances of gender, intimacy, and power in the context of the human need for love and care. While unsparing in his analysis of men's inner lives, Ratele lays out a path for addressing the hunger for love in boys and men. He argues that just as the beliefs and practices relating to gender, sexuality, and the nature of love are constantly being challenged and revised, so our ideas about masculinity and men's and boys' capacity to show genuine loving care for each other and for women can evolve.

Buddhist Reflections Lama Anagarika Govinda, 1993 Lama Govinda provides an exciting overview of contemporary Buddhist philosophy for the modern student. He shares his insights into Indian and Tibetan Buddhist traditions concerning the nature of reality, the development of consciousness, death and rebirth, faith and tolerance, and the significance of meditative and ritual practices. In depicting the Tantric Buddhist approach that utilizes ancient mantras and mandalas to produce meditative absorption in a unified experience of sound, color, and form Lama Govinda pays homage to a spiritual edifice of great beauty and complexity Lama Govinda invokes a multidimensional vision of Buddhist understanding that includes the rational perspectives of modern science and psychology but goes far beyond them In building a conceptual bridge between Eastern mysticism and Western philosophy he discusses the work of Assagioli Teilhard de Chardin and von Durkheim among others There are also chapters of concern to Western society such as the expansion of consciousness through drugs and the nature of attachment and suffering in love relationships the material presented here was gathered from lectures and articles written by Lama Govinda shortly before his death in 1985 providing readers a close look at his warmth and lovingness

Conclusion The Angel in the House Coventry Patmore, 2019-11-19 Coventry Patmore's The Angel in the House is a seminal poem that encapsulates the Victorian ideal of femininity and domesticity. Written in a melodic style characterized by its intricate rhyme schemes and lyrical quality, the poem delves into the roles women were expected to embody during the 19th century. It juxtaposes the angelic qualities of selflessness, virtue, and devotion against the emerging feminist discourse of the time, offering rich insights into societal norms and gender expectations. Through vivid imagery and a pastoral backdrop, Patmore creates a nuanced exploration of love and sacrifice, making it a vital part of Victorian literary canon.

Coventry Patmore, a contemporary of the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood, was significantly influenced by the cultural and social currents of his era, which prompted him to examine the domestic roles of women. His own experiences, marked by personal loss and the demands of domestic life, informed his view on the sanctity of marriage and the nature of womanhood. Patmore's background in journalism and his involvement in the literary circles of Victorian England further shaped his poetic voice, allowing him to engage deeply with the themes of his work.
