Lumen Gloriae Frank Samperi, 1973      Westminster Dictionary of Theological Terms Donald K. McKim, 1996-01-01 Defines 6 000 terms on such topics as the Bible worship theology ministry ethics church history and spirituality      Faith, Scholarship, and Culture in the 21st Century Alice Ramos, Marie I. George, 2002 While some intellectuals at the end of the nineteenth century argued that scientific progress would eventually cause the demise of religion it is evident that this has not been the case and that contemporary science is in fact not necessarily inimical to a religious worldview So a fruitful dialogue between science and religion has become a reality But there is also a more fundamental question that arises which is not simply the relationship of the sciences or of other disciplines to religion but rather whether faith can and should have an impact on teaching and research The majority of the essays in this volume hold that the Christian faith provides definite cognitive advantages and that to leave one's faith at the entrance of the campus thus separating faith from reason leads to a schizophrenic view of the Christian's intellectual life This volume thus shows how the religious faith of intellectuals not all of whom are Christian exercises a real influence on their scholarship In consonance with the thought of Pope John Paul II it is the contention of the scholars whose essays make up this volume that a faith that imbues research and teaching will effect a transformation not only in themselves but also in their students and eventually in society Hence a faith that is fully received thought out and lived will penetrate culture and there is no doubt that present day culture stands in need of transformation In fact the encyclical Fides et Ratio from which a number of the essays draw inspiration attributes the secularization of the West in great part to the separation of faith from culture Jacques Maritain himself more than fifty years ago recognized that modern and contemporary culture had severed its ties with the sacred and in so doing had turned its back on humanity Now in the twenty first century as always human beings have a profound need for meaning and transcendence a need which scholarly reflection such as that found in this volume can help to satisfy In addition to the editors the contributors are David Arias Jr Mariano Artigas Gavin T Colvert John Goyette Frederick Erb III Heather McAdam Erb Alfred J Freddoso Jeanne M Heffernan Leon Klenicki Ralph McInerny John F Morris Warren Murray Peter A Pagan Teresa I Reed Robert Royal James V Schall S J William Sweet and Dallas Willard Alice Ramos and Marie I George are both Associate Professors of Philosophy at St John's University      Anatomy of Transcendence: Mental Excess and Rapture in the Thought and Life of Thomas Aquinas Peter Kwasniewski, 2025-02-12 Man is created by God for an eternal glory that surpasses his nature Even now he is called to a graced participation in divine life that draws him above and beyond himself conforming him to the one in whose image he is made In his theological writings Thomas Aquinas explored this order of excess that characterizes God's elevation of the rational creature discerning in its most extreme instances mystical transport ecstasy and rapture the essential contours of the ordering of Christian life to the transcendent union of beatific vision This same ordering is witnessed in Aquinas's own experience where toward the end of his life he was raised to a contemplative vision surpassing all language and further study In Anatomy of Transcendence Peter A Kwasniewski examines the intersection of Aquinas's theological writings and mysticism establishing a vocabulary and topography for the Angelic Doctor's study and experience of ecstasy and excess in God's raising of the human mind to divine things While drawing on the full scope of the saint's corpus the study pays particular attention to his engagement with Scripture especially the rapture of Paul related in 2 Corinthians thus contributing to the recovery of Aquinas not only as spiritual theologian but also as biblical theologian Theology as Freedom Andrea Vestrucci, 2019-05-03 Back cover Andrea Vestrucci presents a pioneering analysis of Martin Luther's De servo arbitrio one of the most challenging works of Christian theology From the hidden God to predestination from justification to ontology from logic to aesthetics the author explores a paradigm shifting perspective on theological language Gerald Odonis, Doctor Moralis and Franciscan Minister General William Duba, Chris Schabel, 2009-07-20 Famous for his role as Minister General of the Franciscan Order after the flight of Michael of Cesena and company Gerald Odonis ca 1285-1348 has in recent years attracted attention for his scholarly work At an increasing pace studies of specific areas of Odonis's thought reveal another side to the man often portrayed as Pope John XXII's creature a philosopher and theologian who held unique often controversial positions and defended them with zeal and integrity whose impact extended beyond the religious and chronological confines of medieval Christendom Building on the recent scholarship of Bonnie Kent Christian Trottman and especially L M de Rijk this volume gathers together studies by other specialists on Odonis covering his ideas in economics logic metaphysics ethics natural philosophy theology and politics in works written over the entire span of his career Contributors are Paul J J M Bakker Sander W de Boer Stephen F Brown Giovanni Ceccarelli William Duba Roberto Lambertini Sylvain Piron Camarin Porter Chris Schabel and Joke Spruyt Martin Luther's Understanding of Faith and Reality (1513-1521) Ilmari Karimies, 2022-08-03 Ilmari Karimies investigates Martin Luther's understanding of reality and faith He examines Luther's understanding of reality from three perspectives firstly God as the self-giving highest good uniting opposites and hiding beneath them secondly the visible and invisible world and thirdly human beings as tripartite body soul spirit and bipartite flesh spirit The author explores the cognitive conflict between these in relation to spirit's grasping of God and the invisible world with reference to Augustinian Platonism He analyses aspects of faith from the perspective of the theory of divine illumination and shows that Luther represents a realistic Augustinian view Faith functions as the theological intellect grasping the invisible world and showing human beings the future good in a manner similar to the medieval notion of ecstatic knowledge It differs from vision in glory because of sin as mixed with humanity and as partial knowledge Rev. Brown,Thomas Dewender,Theo Kobusch,2009-05-20 This collection of essays papers originally delivered at conferences in Bonn and Boston show in a detailed way the tone and nature of philosophical and theological issues and arguments at the University of Paris in the early fourteenth century They touch on a large number of authors and a broad spectrum of subjects and present these discussions with regard to the intellectual framework set by the earlier Parisian generation of Thomas Aquinas Henry of Ghent and Godfrey of Fontaine It becomes evident that the principal contributors to the new intellectual energy in early fourteenth century discussions at Paris are Meister Eckhart John Duns Scotus Hervaeus Natalis Durandus of St Pour ain Walter Burley and Petrus Aureoli Eternal Life and Human Happiness in Heaven Christopher M. Brown,2021-08-22 Eternal Life and Human Happiness in Heaven treats four apparent problems concerning eternal life in order to clarify our thinking about perfect human happiness in heaven The teachings of St Thomas Aquinas provide the basis for solutions to these four problems about eternal life insofar as his teachings call into question common contemporary theological or philosophical presuppositions about God human persons and the nature of heaven itself Indeed these Thomistic solutions often require us to think very differently from our contemporaries But thinking differently with St Thomas is worth it for the Thomistic solutions to these apparent problems are more satisfying on both theological and philosophical grounds than a number of contemporary theological and philosophical approaches Christopher Brown deploys his argument in four sections The first section lays out in three chapters four apparent problems concerning eternal life Is heaven a mystical or social reality Is heaven other worldly or this worldly Is heaven static or dynamic Won t human persons eventually get bored in heaven Brown then explains how and why some important contemporary Christian theologians and philosophers resolve these problems and notes serious problems with each of these contemporary solutions The second section explains in five chapters St Thomas significant distinction between the essential reward of the saints in heaven and the accidental reward and treats in detail his account of that in which the essential reward consists namely the beatific vision and the proper accidents of the vision delight joy and charity The third section treats in five chapters St Thomas views on the multifaceted accidental reward in heaven where the accidental reward includes among other things glorified human embodiment participation in the communion of the saints and the joy experienced by the saints in sensing God s new heavens and new earth Finally section four argues in four chapters that St Thomas views allow for powerful solutions to the four apparent problems about eternal life examined in the first section These solutions are powerful because not only are they consistent with authoritative Catholic Christian Tradition but they do not raise any of the significant theological or philosophical problems that attend the contemporary theological and philosophical solutions examined in the first section
